We were right.

We Americans who protested the invasion of Iraq said that weapons of mass destruction would neither be used nor found.

We were right.

We said there was no material connection to al Queda.

We were right.

We said the invasion would kill hundreds of Americans and thousands of Iraqi civilians.

We were right.

We said that hundreds of billions of our tax dollars would be needed to fund this tragedy.

We were right.

And where are we now? Americans dying every day in Iraq. Our occupation devouring $6 billion a month. Iraq in chaos. And no end in sight.

Come on, America, we're better than that. Let's join in a common effort to defeat the elitist war-makers in the White House.

Or we will be wrong.
