There shall be a question hour as often as its rules may provide during which the Prime Minister or any minister, upon their own initiative or as may be required by Parliament, can appear before and be heard to answer questions and interpellations by members of Parliament on any matter pertaining to the Government or its ministries. Written questions shall be submitted to the Speaker at least three days before their scheduled appearance. Interpellations shall not be limited to written questions, but may cover related matters. The agenda shall specify the subjects of the question hour. When the security of the state or the public interest so requires, and the Prime Minister so states in writing, the appearance shall be conducted in executive session.
