

WORLD REFUGEE DAY

The background of the poster features a series of horizontal, jagged black lines representing barbed wire. Above the wire, several black silhouettes of birds are shown in flight, scattered across the upper half of the image. The overall aesthetic is stark and graphic, using only black and white.

A day of information protest, art, education and analysis
0405719850

Sunday
June 19
2005

*The courage to start over deserves our compassion,
not punishment*

Defend Human Rights
End Mandatory Detention

11.00 AM. Rally and march.
Cultural Centre Amphitheatre, James St. Northbridge.
12.00 PM. Public Forum. Alexander Library.
1.00 PM. - 3.00 PM. Community fair.

Keynote address by Jocelyn Scutt

'Broken justice - absent courage, people perish'

Amnesty International - Ethnic Communities Council WA
Labor for Refugees - Greens WA - Oxfam - Project SafeCom
Refugee Rights Action Network - Resistance
Socialist Alliance - State School Teachers Union
WA Refugee Alliance - West Australians for Racial Equity