Free Speech TV is a national, viewer supported, progressive television network that broadcasts alternative current affairs programming, like Democracy Now!, along with documentaries on today's most pressing social and environmental issues. Available in 25 million homes nationwide via DISH Network channel 9415 and over 150 public access cable stations, Free Speech TV provides a national television platform to communities largely ignored by commercial media: the poor, immigrants, women, youth, people of color, LGBT people and activists. Working with artists and activists, Free Speech TV uses electronic media to cultivate an informed and active citizenry to advance progressive social change.
