

Curb Corn Dog Cornyn!

A Political Protest With a Bone to Pick

Movement for a Democratic Society/Austin invites you to BRING OUT THE DOGS!

A street theater spectacle "honoring"
Senator John "Corn Dog" Cornyn—
ever-faithful lap dog to the President

Dress up like a dog!
Bring your dog!

(Hey, your dog is smarter than John Cornyn.)

5-6:30 p.m.

Friday, Feb. 15

221 W. Sixth St.

(between Colorado and Lavaca streets outside Cornyn's Chase Tower office)

U.S. Senator John Cornyn, or "Corn Dog" as George W. Bush affectionately calls him, has been a tail-wagging supporter of the administration's bad policies on the war, torture, and civil liberties as well as a dogged defender of Bush's veto of affordable health care to millions of needy kids. As the president's obedient lap dog, Texas' pet senator has earned approval ratings lower than a parcel of puppy poop.

Through canine-related costume, music, and street theater, you are invited to create your own distinctive message about Cornyn's flea-bitten record. Bring your dog and/or come costumed as a dog.

For more information, contact Thorne Dreyer or Jim Retherford at mdsaustin@nuevoanden.com or visit the MDS Austin website <<http://mds-austin.pbwiki.com>>.

MDS Austin

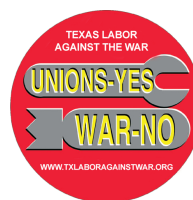

Iraq Moratorium
National Committee

CO-SPONSORS

CodePink

Texas Labor
Against the War

The Rag Blog

UT Austin SDS

"Bring Out the Dogs" is a part of Iraq Moratorium's monthly nationwide "third Friday" demonstrations against the Iraq war.