COMMISSION RECOMMENDATION

of 16.8.2010

amending the Recommendation establishing a common "Practical Handbook for Border Guards (Schengen Handbook)" to be used by Member States' competent authorities when carrying out the border control of persons (C (2006) 5186 final)

THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION,

Having regard to the Treaty on the functioning of the European Union, and in particular Article 292 thereof,

Whereas:

- (1) Commission Recommendation of 6 November 2006 (C (2006) 5186 final) established a "Practical Handbook for Border Guards (Schengen Handbook)" containing common guidelines, best practice and recommendations on border controls.
- (2) The Commission committed itself to ensuring regular updates of the Practical Handbook for Border Guards.
- (3) The Practical Handbook should be adjusted to the latest developments including, in particular, the adoption of following legal acts:
 - Council Decision 2008/903/EC of 27 November 2008 on the full application of the provisions of the Schengen acquis in the Swiss Confederation¹;
 - Regulation (EC) No 810/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 13 July 2009 establishing a Community Code on Visas (Visa Code)²;
 - Commission Decision of 19 March 2010 (C(2010)1620 final) establishing the Handbook for the processing of visa applications and the modifications of issued visas;
 - Regulation (EU) No 265/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 25 March 2010 amending the Convention Implementing the Schengen Agreement and Regulation (EC) No 562/2006 as regards movement of persons with a long-stay visa³.
- (4) The Commission recommends to take into consideration the Communication from the Commission to the European Parliament and to the Council on guidance for better transposition and application of Directive 2004/38/EC on the right of citizens of the

(n) Point 6.5 is replaced by the following:

"6.5 Where the officer responsible for checks finds that the holder of a visa has been the subject of an alert in the SIS for the purpose of being refused entry, he/she must revoke the visa by applying a stamp stating 'REVOKED'. For further details, see point 8, Section I."

(o) Point 6.6 is replaced by the following:

"6.6 The visa must not be annulled or revoked solely because the third-country national was not able to produce the supporting document(s) requested to justify the purpose of the journey. In this latter case, a further enquiry must be made by the border guard in order to assess whether the person obtained the visa in a fraudulent way and represents a risk in terms of illegal immigration. If necessary, contacts with the competent authorities of the Schengen State having issued the visa will be taken. Only if it is ascertained that the visa was obtained in a fraudulent way, such visa must be annulled by the border guard. For further details, see point 8, Section I."

(p) Point 6.7 is replaced by the following:

"6.7 All persons to whom entry has been refused or a visa holder whose visa has been annulled or revoked shall have the right to appeal in accordance with national law. A written indication on procedures for appeal and on contact points able to provide information on representatives competent to act on behalf of the third-country national must be given to the third-country national concerned."

When a visa has been annulled or revoked, as appropriate, the border guard must fill in the standard form for notifying and motivating annulment or revocation of a visa substantiating the reason(s) for the annulment, and submit it to the third-country national concerned⁶.

⁶ This procedural requirement will become applicable as of 5 April 2011.

(q) The box after point 6.12 indicating the legal basis is replaced by the following box:
