2010 CATALOG

Kersplebedeb

Since 1998 Kersplebedeb has been an important source of radical literature and agit prop materials.

The project has a non-exclusive focus on anti-patriarchal and anti-imperialist politics, framed within an anti-capitalist perspective. A special priority is given to writings regarding armed struggle in the metropole, and the continuing struggles of political prisoners and prisoners of war.

Besides publishing and producing my own materials, i also distribute books, CDs and DVDs from Arsenal Pulp Press, AK Press, Autonomedia, Kate Sharpley Library, PM Press and the Freedom Archives, amongst others.

This is my Complete Product Catalog as of early 2010—please write or check out my website for updates, as new titles are being added every week. Canadian customers also please note that depending on fluctuations in the exchange rate, prices also may vary from those listed here—check out the website and you'll likely save yourselves some money!

NEW A History of the French Anarchist Movement, 1917 to 1945

David Berry, intro. by Barry Pateman
$21.95US / $26.30CDN • paperback • 352 pages
AK Press 2009 • 9781904859826

The first English-language evaluation of the development and lessons of the French anarchist movement between the wars. Using an impressive array of archival sources and personal interviews, Berry's original research explores the debates and growing pains of a massive, working-class, revolutionary movement facing great obstacles and uncertainty.

A Cavalier History of Surrealism

Raoul Vaneigem • $6.00US / $7.20CDN
paperback • 131 pages • Remastered
AK Press 1999 • 9781873176948

A down-and-dirty survey of the Surrealist movement written under a pseudonym in 1970 by leading Situationist theorist Raoul Vaneigem.

A Contribution to an Anarchist Bibliography of Latin America

Max Nettlau • $5.00US / $6.00CDN
tape bound • 33 pages
KSL 1994 • 1873605021

A Crime Called Freedom

Wolff Landstreicher • $6.00US / $7.20CDN
paperback 4 1/2" x 6" • 168 pages

Texts by Os Cangaceiros, a group of delinquents caught up in the spirit of the French insurrection of 1968 who refused to let that spirit die. This uncontrollable band of social rebels wreaked havoc on the French state—attacking infrastructures of oppression, supporting popular revolts, stealing and releasing secret blueprints for high-tech prisons, raiding the offices of corporate collaborators, and creating their lives in complete opposition to the world based on work.

A Day Mournful and Overcast, by an "uncontrollable" from the Iron Column

$2.50US / $3.00CDN • pamphlet • 21 pages
KSL 2003 • 1873605331

The Iron Column was one of the legendary anarchist fighting units in the Spanish Revolution, famed because it was partly made up of ex-convicts, and because of its ferocious military abilities, and anarchist revolutionary fervor.

A Factory as it Might Be & The Factory We Never Had

William Morris, Colin Ward • $2.50US / $3.00CDN
pamphlet • 29 pages • Kersplebedeb

A classy pairing of Morris's "A Factory As It Might Be" with a thoughtful analysis of his vision from Colin Ward.

A Field Guide for Female Interrogators

Coco Fusco • $16.95US / $20.30CDN
paperback • 144 pages
Seven Stories Press 2008 • 9781583227800

Using details drawn from actual accounts of detainee treatment in U.S. military prisons, Fusco conceives a field guide of instructional drawings that prompts urgent questions regarding the use of torture in general and more specifically about how about how female sexuality is used by today's imperialism.

A Little Matter of Genocide

Ward Churchill • $19.95US / $23.90CDN
paperback • 531 pages
City Lights Books 1998 • 0872863239

Exploring the history of holocaust and denial in this hemisphere, beginning with the arrival of Columbus and continuing on into the present. Churchill frames the matter by examining both "revisionist" denial of the nazi-perpetrated Holocaust and the opposing claim of its exclusive "uniqueness," using the full scope of what happened in Europe as a backdrop against which to demonstrate that genocide is precisely what has been—and still is—carried out against the American Indians.

NEW A New Notion: Two Works by C.L.R. James: "Every Cook Can Govern" and "The Invading Socialist Society"

C.L.R. James, intro by Noel Ignatiev
$16.95US / $20.40CDN • paperback • 160 pages
PM Press 2010 • 9781604860474

Together these two works represent the principal themes that run through James's life: implacable hostility toward all "condescending saviors" of the working class, and undying faith in the power of ordinary people to build a new world.

A New World In Our Hearts: 8 Years of Writings from the Love and Rage Revolutionary Anarchist Federation

Roy San Filippo • $11.95US / $14.30CDN
paperback • 139 pages
AK Press 2003 • 9781902593616

Love and Rage was perhaps the most visible revolutionary anarchist organization in North America in the 1990s. This book documents Love and Rage's rise and fall, while examining the organization's contributions to debates surrounding anarchism and organization, race, white supremacy, and the national question.

A Singsong and a Scrap

Chumbawamba • $14.98US / $17.95CDN
compact disc • 12 tracks

This mainly acoustic album is a collection of songs, pure and simple. Songs with a radical voice, songs with those same old same old Chumbawamba fourpart harmonies and catchy choruses, but songs nevertheless—songs without drumloops or samples, without backwards cymbals or synth sequencers. It won't fit neatly into any categories, since it stands with its eight legs in different camps.

A Spirit Filled Revolution

$15.00US / $18.00CDN • New Winds
paperback book and 14 track cd • 168 pages

Music and words from this Portuguese anarcho-straight edge band. Combines artwork and texts about Indigenous struggles from Palestine to North America, profiles of numerous political prisoners and prisoners of war held by the United States, an examination of spirituality as a dimension of revolution and revolution as a dimension of spirituality, animal rights and more.

A Witness to Genocide

Roy Gutman • $6.00US / $7.20CDN
paperback • 180 pages • Remastered
Macmillan 1993 • 0020329954

The 1993 Pulitzer Prize-Winning Dispatches on "Ethnic Cleansing" in Bosnia. With photographs by Andree Kaiser.

AIDS Conspiracy Theories—tracking the real genocide

David Gilbert • $3.00US / $3.60CDN
pamphlet • 49 pages
Kersplebedeb 2002 • 097314324X

Political prisoner and AIDS activist David Gilbert exposes the right-wing, racist and homophobic foundations of conspiracy theories surrounding the origins of AIDS, and shows how these in fact serve to divert attention from the less spectacular but all-too-real genocide facing Black people today. With commentary by the late BLA/BPP prisoner of war Nuh Washington and others.

Abolition Now!

Ten Years of Strategy and Struggle Against the Prison Industrial Complex

Critical Resistance • $15.95US / $19.10CDN
paperback • 157 pages
AK Press 2008 • 9781904859963

For a decade, Critical Resistance has organized to abolish the reliance on imprisonment, policing, and surveillance, seeing the prison industrial complex not as a broken system to be "fixed," but a well-oiled machine that must be eliminated entirely. Contributors to this book, which was published for CR's 2008 tenth anniversary conference, include: Incite! Women of Color Against Violence, David Gilbert, Martha Escobar, Liz Samuels and David Stein, Dylan Rodríguez and Eddy Zheng.

NEW Academic Repression: Reflections from the Academic Industrial Complex

edited by Anthony J. Nocella II, Steven Best and Peter McLaren • $24.95 US / $29.90CDN
paperback • 590 pages
AK Press 2010 • 9781904859987

Hard-hitting essays on free speech, culture wars, and academic freedom in a post-9/11 era. It's a powerful response to attacks on critical thinking in our universities by well-respected scholars and academics, including Joy James, Henry Giroux, Michael Parenti, Howard Zinn, Robert Jensen, Ward Churchill, and many more.

Addicted to War:

Why the U.S. Can't Kick Militarism

Joel Andreas • $10.00US / $12.00CDN

paperback • 69 pages

AK Press 2004 • 9781904859017

Hard-hitting, carefully documented, illustrated exposé of why the United States has been involved in more wars in recent years than any other country.

Against Freedom: The war on terrorism in everyday New Zealand life

Valerie Morse • $20.00US / $24.00CDN

In 2001, the United States launched the "war on terrorism" in purported response to the September 11th attacks. This book, written by a New Zealand anarchist, provides both a quick and accessible look at what the "war on terror" is all about...

All Power to the People

Albert "Nuh" Washington • 15.00US / $18.00CDN

paperback • 111 pages • Solidarity 2002
1894820215

A collection of writings by Albert "Nuh" Washington, a former member of the Black Panther Party and Black Liberation Army. Washington was imprisoned in 1971 as a result of the U.S. government's war against the Black Liberation Movement and subsequently spent 29 years as a political prisoner (one of the New York Three). He died alone of cancer in the U.S. prison system on April 28, 2000. This is the largest collection of his writings and words ever published, and is a tribute to his memory.

All Things Censored Volume 1

Mumia Abu-Jamal • $14.98US / $17.95CDN

audio cd • 16 essays • 9781902593067

Here are the radio commentaries, the last of them recorded just two days before Pennsylvania prison authorities instituted a media ban to further silence the most famous death row prisoner in the U.S. Included are an NPR commentary by the late, great William Kunstler, also banned by NPR, and brief statements or readings of Mumia's work by Alice Walker, Dorothy Allison, Robert Meeropol, Howard Zinn, Sister Helen Prejean, and Judi Bari.

The Almost Perfect Crime:

The Misrepresentation of Portuguese Anarchism

Julio Carrapato • $3.00US / $3.60CDN

pamphlet • 13 pages • KSL 2004 • 9781873605684

Uncovering the history of anarchism in Portugal from the first days of the International in the 1870s, to the insurrection of 1910, fighting the fascist dictatorship from the 1920s to the '70s, continuing up the present day.

An Issue Of Justice:

Origins of the Israel/Palestine Conflict

Norman Finkelstein • $14.98US / $17.95CDN

cd • 79 minutes • AK Press 2005 • 781904859239

Finkelstein cuts through the fog with indisputable historical facts, optimistic that the struggle in Palestine is winnable, and that it is simply an issue of justice.

Anarchism in America / Free Voice of Labor

$19.95US / $23.90CDN • dvd • 130 minutes

Two fascinating documentaries, both the work of Emmy and Guggenheim Award-winning filmmakers, Steven Fischler and Joel Sucher. In Anarchism in America the two take a road trip to map anarchism as a distinctly American tradition, interviewing a diverse cast of characters: from "ordinary" truckers and farmers to famous anarchists like Kenneth Rexroth, Ursula LeGuin, and Murray Bookchin. The second, Free Voice of Labor, traces the history of the Yiddish anarchist newspaper of that name as told by its now elderly, but decidedly unbowed staff.

Anarchism, Ideology and

Same-Sex Love and Desire

Richard Cleminson • $2.50US / $3.00CDN

pamphlet • 11 pages • KSL 1995 • 187360517X

A look at the Spanish anarchists' view of homosexuality in the 1920s and 1930s, through the debates in the journal Esutios.

Anarchism, Marxism and Hope for the Future

Noam Chomsky • $1.00US / $1.20CDN

pamphlet • 11 pages • Kersplebedeb • 096895037X

A wide ranging interview, conducted by the Irish anarchist journal Red & Black Revolution in 1995, exploring Chomsky's introduction to, and views on, the above.

Anarchism: The Feminist Connection

Peggy Kornegger • $3.00US / $3.60CDN

pamphlet • 24 pages

Kersplebedeb • 0968950388

The text of this pamphlet—now an anarchy-feminist classic—first appeared in the spring 1975 issue of the American feminist magazine The Second Wave, which was edited by Kornegger.

Anarchism: What It Really Stands For

Emma Goldman • $2.25US / $2.65CDN

pamphlet • 21 pages

Kersplebedeb 1999 • 096895037X

With a biographical sketch of Goldman by the Workers' Solidarity Movement.

Anarchism, Zapatismo & the Black Panthers

Ashanti Alston • $8.00US / $9.60CDN

Audio CD-R • AK Press 2006

The economics/experience of the Spanish anarchist collectives 1936-39.

Anarchist Morality

Peter Kropotkin • $5.00US / $6.00CDN

pocketbook • 87 pages

Black Cat Press 2006 • 9780973782745

Kropotkin's classic essay. Now edited, annotated, and bound in a handsome pocketbook edition.

The Anarchist Response to War and Labor

Violence in 1914: Rebecca Edelson, Alexander Berkman, Anti-Militarism, Free Speech and Hunger Strikes

$3.00US / $3.60CDN • pamphlet • 25 pages

KSL 2005 • 9781873605578

A short history of anarchist activity in New York in 1914, at a time of anarchist unemployment protests, anti-militarist work, and protest against U.S. intervention in the Mexican revolution, activities in protest of the Ludlow massacre, the Tarrytown "free speech" fights, imprisonment, and hunger strikes.

Anarchist Voices: An Oral History Of Anarchism In America (Unabridged)

Paul Avrich ed. • $14.00US / $16.80CDN

paperback • 574 pages • Remastered

AK Press • 9781904859277

The 180 interviewees in this oral history (mostly anarchists, but also their friends, associates, and relatives) represent diverse political tendencies—individualists, collectivists, pacifists, revolutionaries.

Anarchist Yellow Pages

$6.00US / $7.20CDN

paperback letter size • 120 pages

Kersplebedeb 2004 • 9781894946094

A huge compendium of anarchist addresses (physical and web)—over 2000 collectives, squats, info shops, zines, cafés, journals, bookstores, and campaigns from around the world—not just America and Western Europe, but a plethora of contacts in Eastern Europe, South America, Asia, Africa, and Australia. Published in 2004, the most up-to-date directory of its kind.

Anarchy and Art: From the Paris Commune to the Fall of the Berlin Wall

Allan Antliff • $23.95US / $28.70CDN paperback • 213 pages • Arsenal Pulp Press 2007
Antliff interrogates moments of engagement when artists, poets, philosophers, and critics have confronted pivotal events over the past 140 years. The survey begins with artist Gustave Courbet and writer Emile Zola's activism during the 1871 Paris Commune, and ends with an examination of anarchist art during the fall of the Soviet empire. Other subjects include the Neo-Impressionists and their depictions of the homeless in the 1890s; the Dada movement in New York City during World War I; the decline of the Russian Avant-Garde during the 1920s and 30s; the West Coast Beats of the 1940s and 50s; the Modernists of the 1960s, 70s, and 80s; and more.

Anarchy in the UK: The Angry Brigade

Tom Vague • $14.95US / $17.90CDN paperback • 162 pages
AK Press 1997 • 1873176988
Here is the story of Britain's premier revolutionary hooligans. Drawing extensively on the Angry Brigade's communiqués, along with both the underground/counter-cultural and mainstream press of the late 60s/early 70s, and police and court documents, the book is profusely illustrated throughout.

Anarchy, by an Anarchist

Elisée Reclus • $1.00US / $1.20CDN pamphlet • 14 pages • Kersplebedeb
This is a reprint of an article by anarchist geographer Elisée Reclus, which first appeared in the Contemporary Review, May 1884.

The Angola 3:

Black Panthers and the Last Slave Plantation
$19.95US / $23.90CDN • dvd • 109 minutes
PM Press 2008 • 9781604860207

The story of the Angola 3, who were politicized through contact with members of the Black Panther Party while incarcerated, and in 1971 formed one of the only recognized prison Panther chapters. Under conditions of segregation, racism, and repression, they organized other prisoners to build a movement for their rights—an astonishing feat given Angola Prison's history of repression. This film reveals the hidden facts and cover-ups that have surrounded and clouded the cases of the Three since the 1970s. In addition, the movie explores the political climate of the 1960s and 70s that produced political prisoners in America, situating the Angola 3 within the political unrest of the Civil Rights and Black Power movements that penetrated the prison walls of America.

Animal Ingredients A-Z, Third Edition

E.G. Smith Collective • $11.95US / $14.30CDN paperback • 99 pages
AK Press 2004 • 9781902593814
As well as a comprehensive listing of animal ingredients, this easy-to-navigate guide contains supplemental information on vegan nutrition, food alternatives, and contact information for animal advocacy groups.

Anti-Fascist Forum #3
The Nature of the Beast

$4.00US / $4.80CDN magazine • 44 pages • Anti-Fascist Forum 1998
This issue includes five articles: "Paramilitary Violence & the State," by Tom Burghardt; "Fascism in Canada: the Early Years," by Dr. Terman; "The Past is Our Master? A Brief History of the Far-Right in Quebec," by Eric Cartman; "The Catholic Far-Right," by Eric Cartman; The International Militant Anti-Fascist Network.

Anti-Mass: methods of organization for collectives

$2.50US / $3.00CDN • pamphlet • 19 pages
Kersplebedeb • 0968950337
A snappy little classic from back in the day, when some folks felt they could draw on both Maoism and anarchism to craft a revolutionary programme for intervention in "the class."

The Arcane of Reproduction: Housework, Prostitution, Labor and Capital

Leopoldina Fortunati • $12.00US / $14.40CDN paperback • 176 pages
Autonomedia 1995 • 0936756144
An Italian feminist critiques traditional Marxist categories and examines the capitalist "reproductive" roles of women's labor and bodies in which the individual is redefined in terms of use value. Dense language, interesting ideas.

NEW! Arena #1: On Anarchist Cinema

$14.00US / $16.80CDN • journal • 157 pages
PM Press 2009 • 9781604860504
Arena, like its predecessor, The Cienfuegos Review, aims to tap into the rich seam of libertarian ideas, culture, history and practice by providing a focal point for anarchist debate.

NEW! Arm the Spirit: A Woman's Journey Underground and Back

Diana Block • $19.95US / $23.90CDN paperback • 392 pages
AK Press 2009 • 9781904859871
A history of the culture and politics of the 1960s and 1970s—especially the decisions that led many to take up arms against the U.S. government, building clandestine resistance to U.S. imperialism at home—and an analysis of the political terrain of the 1990s, when Block resurfaced and tried to find her place in a very different world.

As Nature Made Him:
The Boy Who Was Raised as a Girl

John Colapinto • $15.00US / $18.00CDN audio book • 5 hours • Remaindered
Simon and Schuster 2000 • 0671047922
Embraced by the trans community as an example of individual gender freedom being more important than theories from the "experts".

Assata

Assata Shakur • $14.95US / $17.90CDN
paperback • 274 pages
Lawrence Hill Books 1987 • 1556520743
This captivating book by Black Liberation Army fugitive Assata Shakur gives a feel for the context and substance of revolutionary Black politics in the 1960s and 70s, not to mention a personal account of the extent of political repression and the climate of the times. A classic.

Atamansha: the Story of Maria Nikiforova—the Anarchist Joan of Arc

Malcolm Archibald • $5.00US / $6.00CDN
pamphlet • 47 pages
Black Cat Press 2007 • 9780973782707
The anarchist Maria Nikiforova (1885-1919) played a prominent role in the Russian Revolutions of 1917 and the subsequent Civil War as an organizer, military commander, and terrorist.

Bad: The Autobiography of James Carr

James Carr • $9.95US / $11.90CDN
paperback • 238 pages • Remaindered
Nabat/AK Press 2002 • 9781902593647
Carr, who spent time in prison alongside George Jackson, relates the story of his life with a cold passion, powerfully illuminating the horrors of daily life on the streets and in prison—race riots, murders, rape, and corruption—from the standpoint of one who has overcome them.

NEW Bakunin: The Creative Passion

Mark Leier • $17.95US / $21.50CDN
paperback • 320 pages
Seven Stories Press 2009 • 9781583228944
The spellbinding story of both the man and the theory, Bakunin chronicles one of the most notorious radicals in history, as well as the founding of anarchism, here revealed as a practical moral philosophy based on a critique of wealth and power.

NEW Banksy Location and Tours: A Collection of Graffiti Locations and Photographs in London, England

Martin Bull • $20.00US / $24.00CDN
PM Press 2009 • 9781604860603
In three guided tours, Martin Bull documents sixty-five London sites where one can see some of the most important works by the legendary political artist. Boasting over 100 color photos, this snappy little volume also includes graffiti by many of Banksy's peers, including Eine, Faile, El Chivo, Arofish, Cept, Space Invader, Blek Le Rat, D*face, and Shepherd Fairey.

Bash the Fasc:

Anti-Fascist Recollections 1984-93
K. Bullstreet • $3.00US / $3.60CDN
pamphlet • 29 pages • KSL 2001 • 9781873605875
This is literally a no-punches pulled account of Anti-Fascist Action's fight against fascism in Britain from 1984 to 1993, by a grassroots anarchist member of AFA. It is important, not because he makes any pretence at being a leading light but because the many small (or not so small) contributions such people make are key to the success that AFA achieved.

NEW The Battle of the Story of the "Battle of Seattle"

David Solnit and Rebecca Solnit
$12.00US / $14.40CDN • paperback • 121 pages
AK Press 2009 • 9781904859635
Released just in time for the 10th anniversary of the Seattle WTO protests, this collection confronts the challenges of historical memory, and suggests just how much we have to learn from (and about) the past decade of activism against globalization.

Becoming the Media: a critical history of Clamor magazine

Jen Angel • $5.95US / $7.10CDN
pamphlet • 40 pages
PM Press 2008 • 9781604860221
Clamor Magazine was a movement publication that existed between 2000 and 2006, covering radical politics, culture, and activism. This pamphlet is a case study on how movement projects and organizations deal with vital but rarely discussed issues such as management, sustainability, ownership, structure, finance, decision making, power, diversity, and vision.

Beggars of Life

Jim Tully • $15.00US / $18.00CDN
paperback • 170 pages
AK Press/Nabat 2004 • 9781902593784
Easily the greatest of hobo autobiographies.

Behind The Mask: The Story of the People Who Risk Everything to Save Animals

$19.95US / $23.90CDN • dvd • 72 minutes
Big Noise Films/PM Press • 760137478195
Who are these "animal liberationists" and why do they believe that breaking the law is the best way to help animals? What inspires them to challenge the status quo, fight against all odds, and endure public reproach? Behind the Mask exposes never-before-seen footage that reveals the extent to which these individuals will go to save the lives of animals.

NEW Between Barack and a Hard Place: Racism and White Denial in the Age of Obama

Tim Wise • $13.95US / $16.70CDN
paperback • 159 pages
City Lights Books 2009 • 9780872865006
Tim Wise examines "Black success" in Amerika.

Beyond Bullets: The Suppression of Dissent in the United States

Jules Boykoff • $21.95US / $26.30CDN
paperback • 460 pages
AK Press 2007 • 9781904859598
Focusing on a variety of movements for political, social, and economic change in the U.S., revealing the tools used by government agents to undermine the long-term viability of opposition in this country.

Beyond Elections:

Redefining Democracy in the Americas
$19.95US / $23.90CDN • dvd • 104 minutes
PM Press 2008 • 760137481799
Across the world, 120 countries now have at least the minimum trappings of democracy—the freedom to vote for all citizens. But for many, this is just the beginning not the end. Following decades of U.S.-backed dictatorships, civil wars and devastating structural adjustment policies in the South, and corporate control, electoral corruption, and fraud in the North, representative politics in the Americas is in crisis. Citizens are now choosing to redefine democracy under their own terms: local, direct, and participatory.

Biopiracy:

the plunder of nature and knowledge
Vandana Shiva • $13.00US / $15.60CDN
paperback • 148 pages
South End Press 1997 • 9780896085558
In this intelligently argued and ethically principled book, the internationally renowned Third World environmentalist exposes the latest frontier of the North's ongoing assault against the South's biological and other resources.

NEW Black Flame: The Revolutionary Class Politics of Anarchism and Syndicalism, Vol. I

Michael Schmidt and Lucien van der Walt
$22.95US / $27.50CDN • paperback • 395 pages
AK Press 2009 • 9781904859161
The first of two volumes that re-examine anarchism's democratic class politics, its vision of a decentralized planned economy, and its impact on popular struggles in five continents over the past 150 years. From the nineteenth century to today's anticapitalist movements, it traces anarchism's insights into questions of race, gender, class, and imperialism, significantly reframing the work of previous historians on the subject, and critiquing Marxist approaches to these same questions.

Black and Gold: The Story of the Almighty Latin King and Queen Nation

$19.95US / $23.90CDN • DVD • 80 minutes

Color of Violence

INCITE! Women of Color Against Violence
$20.00US / $24.00CDN • paperback • 325 pages
South End Press 2006 • 9780896087620

The weakness of a lot of anti-violence politics is its reliance on the State and its police, courts and prisons. The weakness of a lot of revolutionary movements is their failure to engage with problems of interpersonal violence and anti-social behaviour amongst and between the oppressed.

Color of Violence doesn't just untangle this knot, it takes a chainsaw to it, elaborating strategies of radical community intervention and grassroots movement building that avoid the trite while zero-ing in on the experiences of the oppressed. Glimpses of what anti-violence strategies that are anti-cop might look like, of what feminism imbued with anti-racism and anti-imperialism can give us.

Confronting Fascism: Discussion Documents for a Militant Movement

Mark Salotte, J. Sakai, Don Hamerquist, Xtn
$15.00US / $18.00CDN • paperback • 169 pages

Kersplebedeb 2002 • 0973143215
Breaking with established Left practice, this book attempts to deal with the questions of fascism and antifascism in a serious and non-dogmatic manner. Attention is paid to the class appeal of fascism, its continuities and breaks with the "regular" far-right and also even with the Left, the ways in which the fascist movement is flexible and the ways in which it isn't. Left failures, both in opposing fascism head-on, and also in providing a viable alternative to right-wing revolt, are also dealt with at length. The lived experiences of anti-fascist activists inform this work, and more attention is paid to actual historical developments and facts than to neat theories that explain everything but only coincidentally intersect with reality. Understanding the relationship of fascism, the State, left reformism and what it means to be revolutionary are priorities in a world where it seems increasingly true that those who do not advance will have to retreat.

The Conquest of Bread

Peter Kropotkin • $10.00US / $12.00CDN

Russell "Maroon" Shoatz • $2.00US / $2.40CDN
pamphlet • 15 pages
Kersplebedeb 2008 • 1894946294
Sensory deprivation, isolation, control units... these terms represent the all-too-real and horrible realities to which thousands upon thousands of u.s. prisoners are subjected, day in and day out. In this short pamphlet, Russell "Maroon" Shoatz, a veteran of the Black Liberation Army, explains the realities behind these terms, revealing a cruel world of "clean" torture which may not leave physical marks, but is designed to inflict deep psychological wounds. Shoatz writes from experience, having been incarcerated in such inhumane conditions for over twenty years now.

NEW! Demanding the Impossible:

Digger Tracts 1649-1650

Andrew Hopton • $3.75US / $4.50CDN
pamphlet • 34 pages • Kersplebedeb
While it may be pushing things to say that these pieces are just as accessible and relevant today as when they were first written almost 400 years ago, it is certainly true that they are as relevant as when this pamphlet was first published by Aporia Press in 1989. The Diggers, for those who don't know, were a communalist movement in 17th century England.

NEW! Direct Action: An Ethnography

David Graeber • $25.95US / $31.10CDN
paperback • 569 pages
AK Press 2009 • 9781904859796
In the best tradition of participant-observation, anthropologist David Graeber undertakes a detailed ethnographic study of the global justice movement (aka the "anti-globalization" movement), using as a case study the organizing and events that led to the dramatic protests against the 2001 Summit of the Americas in Quebec City.

Direct Action: Memoirs of an Urban Guerrilla

Ann Hansen • $19.50US / $23.40CDN
paperback • 493 pages
AK Press/Between the Lines 2002 • 1902593480
The tale of five members of the West Coast Canadian anarchist scene who went underground in the 1980s to carry out armed attacks against an arms manufacturer, a sex shop that specialized in hardcore pornography, and a hydro substation. Written by a participant who spent seven years in prison after her capture by the State. For more information on the Vancouver Five, go to www.kersplebedeb.com/vancouverfive.html

Ward Churchill • $14.98US / $17.95CDN
Audio CD • 9781902593470
AK Press/G7 Welcoming Committee 2001
Exposing the criminal justice system's role as an agent of social control. This lecture, recorded at the Doing Time Conference at the University of Winnipeg, September 2000, focuses on the prison system's compliance with the FBI in subverting and neutralizing movements for social change.

Dreamer Of The Day: Francis Parker Yockey and the Postwar Fascist International

Kevin Coogan • $16.95US / $20.30CDN
paperback • 644 pages
Autonomedia 1999 • 9781570270390
The nitty gritty details and nuances of postwar fascist intellectuals and schools of thought. An unusual and fascinating read, chapters are very short, often semi-anecdotal, and could almost stand alone, their point of connection being Francis Parker Yockey, a deranged man who became, after his suicide, something of a theoretical guru for some of the more innovative sections of the far right. Know your enemy!

Dreams of Freedom:

A Ricardo Flores Magon Reader

Ricardo Flores Magon, intro. Benjamin Maldonado
$19.95US / $23.90CDN • paperback • 420 pages

Durruti in the Spanish Revolution

Abel Paz • $27.95US / $33.50CDN
paperback • 795 pages
AK Press 2007 • 9781904859505
New and unabridged translation of the definitive biography of Spanish revolutionary and military strategist, Buenaventura Durruti. Much more than an account of a single man's life, Durruti in the Spanish Revolution chronicles an entire nation and a tumultuous historical era. Paz seamlessly weaves intimate biographical details of Durruti's life—his progression from factory worker and father to bank robber, political exile and, eventually, revolutionary leader—with extensive historical background, behind-the-scenes governmental intrigue, and blow-by-blow accounts of major battles and urban guerilla warfare.

Dynamite:

A Century Of Class Violence In America

Louis Adamic • $19.95US / $23.90CDN
paperback • 351 pages
AK Press 2008 • 9781904859741
The history of labor in the United States is a story of almost continuous violence. In Dynamite, Louis Adamic recounts one century of that history in vivid, carefully researched detail. Covering both well- and lesser-known events—from the riots of immigrant workers in the second quarter of the nineteenth century to the formation of the Congress of Industrial Organizations (CIO)—he gives precise, and often brutal, meaning to the term "class war."

The three revolutionaries, all captured in the 1980s for engaging in armed struggle in the united states, engage in a frank discussion of past political movements, victories and errors, and the political climate for revolutionary struggle within the u.s.a.

Engendering Colonialism: The Effect of 100 Years of U.S. Colonialism on Women in Hawai'i, Puerto Rico, Cuba and the Philippines

$20.00US / $24.00CDN • VHS videotape • 40 min.
Prairie Fire Organizing Committee

We live in a world where both old and new forms of U.S. colonialism co-exist, and both depend on the exploitation of women. Locating the origins of U.S. colonialism in the theft of Native American lands by European settlers and the conquest of northern Mexico in 1848, this video goes on to examine the effect on U.S. expansionism on women, and how women are resisting the effects of colonialism.

English Rebel Songs 1381-1984

Chumbawamba • $15.00US / $18.00CDN

compact disc • 13 tracks-32 minutes

PM Press 2008 • 9781604860009

Originally recorded in 1988 when

Chumbawamba was determined to stir up a rout in the tiny anarcho-punk community by swapping guitars and drums for a capella singing. The songs were discovered in songbooks, in folk clubs and on cassette tapes, chopped and changed and bludgeoned into shape with utmost respect for the original tunes. Guaranteed to sway the listener, break hearts and encourage hope... just as those who inspired the songs by changing history.

The FBI War on Tupac Shakur and Black Leaders

John Potash • $20.00US / $24.00CDN

Progressive Left Press 2007 • 0979146909

U.S. intelligence's murderous targeting of Tupac Shakur, Martin Luther King, Malcolm X, the Black Panthers, Jimi Hendrix, Bob Marley, rappers and others... a wealth of names, dates and events detailing the use of COINTELPRO style tactics by the FBI against a generation of political hip hop musicians. Based on 12 years of research and includes over 900 endnotes. Sources include over 100 interviews, FOIA-released CIA and FBI documents, court transcripts, and many mainstream media outlets. With a foreword by Pam Africa and Mumia Abu-Jamal, and an Afterword by Fred Hampton, Jr.

Facing the Enemy: A History Of Anarchist Organisation From Proudhon to May 1968

Alexandre Skirda • $17.95US / $21.50CDN

paperback • 292 pages

AK Press 2002 • 1902593197

Critical and engaged, Skirda offers biting and incisive portraits of the major anarchist thinkers and organizations. Bakuninist secret societies; the Internationals and the clash with Marx; the Illegalists, bombers and assassins; the mass trade unions and insurrections; and, of course, the Russian and Spanish Revolutions are all discussed through the prism of working people battling fiercely for a new world free of the shackles of Capital and the State.

False Nationalism False Internationalism

Kae Sera, E. Tani • $22.50US / $27.00CDN

spiral bound photocopy • 260 pages

Seeds Beneath the Snow 1985

A critical history of revisionism, opportunism, and parasitical relationships between white and black revolutionary organizations in the United States. This essay was an attempt to evaluate the rise in radical armed activity in the U.S. during the 1960s and 1970s from an activist perspective. Out of print for years, it is reproduced here with permission as a spiral-bound photocopy of the original.

Fantasies of the Master Race: Literature, Cinema, Art and the Colonization of American Indians

Ward Churchill • $16.95US / $20.30CDN

paperback • 259 pages

City Lights Books 1998 • 9780872863484

Churchill examines the cultural propaganda that has served to support the continued colonization of Native America. From justifying exterminating the "savages", to "civilizing" them, to the appropriation and stereotyping of native culture—the noble savage and the quaint dispenser of native wisdom—literature, art, and film crafted by the dominant culture are an insidious political force, disinforming people who might otherwise develop a clearer understanding of Native American struggles.

Fascism

George Jackson • $3.75 US / $4.50CDN

pamphlet • 40 pages • Kersplebedeb

A reprint of this text by the martyred Black prison revolutionary.

NEW Fire on the Mountain

Terry Bisson • $15.95US / $19.10CDN

paperback • 208 pages

PM Press 2009 • 9781604860870

Presenting an alternative version of African American history, this novel explores what might have happened if John Brown's 1859 raid on Harper's Ferry had been successful.

Fired by the Ideal: Italian-American Responses to Czolgosz's Killing of McKinley

Giuseppe Ciancabilla • $3.00US / $3.60CDN
KSL 2002 • 1873605080

NEW 500 Years of Indigenous Resistance

Gord Hill • $10.00US / $12.00CDN
72 pages • paperback
PM Press 2009 • 9781604861068

This slim volume chronicles the resistance by Indigenous peoples, which limited and shaped the forms and extent of colonialism. This history encompasses North and South America, the development of nation-states, and the resurgence of Indigenous resistance in the post-WW2 era.

Five Years In The Warsaw Ghetto

Bernard Goldstein • $19.00US / $22.80CDN
paperback • 256 pages
AK Press/Nabat 2005 • 9781904859055

Goldstein spent time in prisons from Warsaw to Siberia, took part in the Russian Revolution, and was a respected organizer within the vibrant labor movement in independent Poland. In 1939, with the Nazi invasion of Poland and establishment of the Jewish Ghetto, Goldstein and the Bund went underground—organizing housing, food, and clothing within the ghetto; communicating with the West for support; and developing a secret armed force. His surprisingly modest and frank depiction of a community under siege at a time when the world chose not to intervene is enlightening, devastating, and ultimately inspiring.

Flights of Angels:

My Life With the Angels of Light

Adrian Brooks • $25.00US / $30.00CDN
hardcover • 272 pages

Arsenal Pulp Press 2008 • 9781551522319

The Angels of Light were a genderfucking hippy performance troupe in the 1970s, growing out of the equally legendary Cockettes in San Francisco. In this vivid memoir, San Francisco in the 1970s comes to life as former Angel Adrian Brooks recounts the amazing stories of the Angels from behind closed doors.

NEW For All the People: Uncovering the Hidden History of Cooperation, Cooperative Movements, and Communalism in America

John Curl • $28.95US / $34.70CDN • paperback
506 pages • PM Press 2009 • 9781604860726

Seeking to reclaim a history that has remained largely ignored by most historians, this dramatic and stirring account examines American cooperative movements for social change that have been all but erased from collective memory.

For Workers' Power:

The Selected Writings of Maurice Brinton

Maurice Brinton • $21.95US / $26.30CDN
paperback • 377 pages
AK Press 2004 • 9781904859079

With unrestrained passion, clarity, and consistency, Brinton examines the totality of revolutionary politics and flays the "revolutionaries" who obstruct their realization.

Free Comrades:

Anarchism and Homosexuality in the United States, 1895-1917

Terence Kissack • $17.95US / $21.50CDN
paperback • 183 pages
AK Press 2008 • 9781904859116

By investigating public records, journals, and books published between 1895 and 1917, Terence Kissack reminds us of how anarchists such as Emma Goldman, Benjamin Tucker, and Alexander Berkman defended the right of individuals to pursue same-sex relations, often challenging the conservative beliefs of their fellow anarchists as well as those outside the movement—police, clergy, and medical authorities—who condemned LGBT people.

Free Women Of Spain: Anarchism and the Struggle for the Emancipation of Women

Martha A. Ackelsberg • $20.00US / $24.00CDN
paperback • 286 pages
AK Press 2005 • 9781902593968

The herstory of the Mujeres Libres (Free Women), an organization that mobilized over 20,000 women during the Spanish Revolution to strive for community, education, and equality for women and the emancipation of all. These militants struggled against fascism, the State, and the less than supportive attitudes and concerns of their male comrades.

Free Women of Spain

Aillen O'Carroll • $2.25US / $2.65CDN
pamphlet • 16 pages • Kersplebedeb

This is the text of a talk given by a member of the (anarchist) Workers Solidarity Movement in July 1995, about the anarchist women's organization Mujeres Libres that was active during the Spanish Civil War.

The French National Front: the extremist challenge to democracy

Harvey G. Simmons • $13.00US / $15.60CDN
paperback • 285 pages • Remaindered
Westview Press 1996 • 0813389799

A liberal take on Jean-Marie Le Pen's far right National Front, written in the 1990s.

The Friends of Durruti Group: 1937-1939

Agustin Guillamon • $9.95US / $11.90CDN
paperback • 114 pages
AK Press 1996 • 1873176546

This is the story of a group of anarchists engaged in one of the failed revolutions of the 20th century. Essentially street fighters, the Friends of Durruti used their own experiences to arrive at their analysis of the Spanish Revolution. This study—drawing on interviews with participants and synthesizing archival information—is the definitive text on these unsung activists.

Granny Made Me an Anarchist:

General Franco, The Angry Brigade and Me

Stuart Christie • $19.95US / $23.90CDN
paperback • 400 pages
AK Press 2007 • 9781904859659

The author became Britain's most famous anarchist in 1964 when he was arrested in a plot to assassinate Spanish dictator Francisco Franco. He served 3 years of his 20-year sentence before international pressure secured his release. Five years later, he stood trial in London for alleged involvement with Britain's Angry Brigade, a guerilla group, but was this time acquitted. He is the cofounder of Anarchist Black Cross, Black Flag magazine, and Cienfuegos Press. This is his autobiography.

The Green Nazi:

an investigation into fascist ecology

J. Sakai • $3.00US / $3.60CDN
pamphlet • 34 pages • Kersplebedeb • 0968950396
Jumping off from a review of Blood and Soil, a book by academic Anna Bramwell, disputing her flattering portrayal of Third Reich Imperial Peasant Leader Walther Darre. Takes a critical look at the relationship between social and natural purity, genocide and settlerism, the green movement and the far right.

NEW Green Zone:

The Environmental Costs of Militarism

Barry Sanders • $14.95US / $17.90CDN
paperback • 183 pages
AK Press 2009 • 9781904859949

In a period of unprecedented scrutiny of the social and economic impacts of U.S. defense policies, Sanders also shows how military activity, from fuel emissions to radioactive waste to defoliation campaigns, is the single-greatest contributor to the worldwide environmental crisis.

Guerilla Warfare: a method

Hope Breathing Life: Postcards for Liberation

Zolo Agona Azania • $12.00US / $14.40CDN
16 full-color postcards
Kersplebedeb 2005 • 0973143290

Sixteen postcards featuring artwork by Zolo Agona Azania, a New Afrikan political prisoner who spent 23 years on death row, and this despite having forced the State to admit to racist improprieties in his trial and and having his sentence overturned not once but twice. When a judge ruled in May 2005 that the State should not be allowed to pursue the death penalty a third time as this would constitute a clear violation of Azania's rights, the prosecution appealed, shamelessly pulling out all the stops to kill this man—thankfully they failed, and Zolo has finally been removed from death row. This book was published as a fundraiser for his support campaign. For more information see <http://www.kersplebedeb.com/azania.html>

Hot Lead is Medicine: Thoughts on Whiteness, privilege and violence

Texas F. Slim • $1.25US / $1.50CDN
pamphlet • 12 pages • Kersplebedeb 2005
Clearly written from the "anti-civilization"/insurrectional wing of anarchism, this snappy little pamphlet is nevertheless a cut above most anarchist discussions of violence and revolution.

How It All Began: The Personal Account of a West German Urban Guerrilla

Bommi Baumann • $20.00US / $24.00CDN
paperback • 131 pages
Arsenal Pulp Press 2000 • 9780889780453
The author was a member of the West Berlin Blues scene, out of which emerged the anarchist guerilla 2nd of June Movement in the early seventies. While this book represented Baumann's turn away from armed politics, it remains an important document from the period, a glimpse into what it was like to be a working-class rebel in the freak counter-culture of the sixties, and how one section of the armed resistance in West Germany emerged from this scene. First published in 1975, the book was immediately banned in Germany.

How Nonviolence Protects The State

Peter Gelderloos • $10.00US / $12.00CDN
paperback • 182 pages
South End Press 2007 • 9780896087729
Bringing existing criticisms of nonviolence, and several new ones, together into one book, in an attempt to illuminate one of the most severe roadblocks to social change today.

Writings by a New Afrikan Anarchist
Kuwasi Balagoon • $15.00US / $18.00CDN
paperback • 125 pages
Kersplebedeb 2003 • 0973143282
Kuwasi Balagoon was a defendant in the Panther 21 case in the late sixties, and a member of the Black Liberation Army. Captured and convicted of various crimes against the State, he spent much of the 1970s in prison, escaping twice. After each escape, he went underground and resumed BLA activity. He was captured in December 1981, charged with participating in an armoured truck expropriation in West Nyack, New York, on October 21 of that year, an action in which two police officers and a money courier were killed. Convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment, he died of pneumocystis carinii pneumonia, an AIDS-related illness, on December 13, 1986.

Labor Law for the Rank & Filer: Building Solidarity While Staying Clear of the Law

Staughton Lynd and Daniel Gross
$10.00US / $12.00CDN • paperback • 110 pages
PM Press 2008 • 9781604860337
A guerilla legal handbook for workers in a precarious global economy. Blending cutting-edge legal strategies for winning justice at work with a theory of dramatic social change from below, Staughton Lynd and Daniel Gross deliver a practical guide for making work better while re-invigorating the labor movement. This new revised and expanded edition includes new cases governing fundamental labor rights as well as an added section on Practicing Solidarity Unionism. Illustrative stories of workers' struggles make the legal principles come alive.

Legacy of Torture

$15.00US / $18.00CDN • DVD • 28 minutes
Freedom Archives 2006 • 9780979078903

In 2005 several former Black Panthers were held in contempt and jailed for refusing to testify before a San Francisco Grand Jury investigating a police shooting that took place in 1971. They were released when the Grand Jury term expired, but were told by prosecutors that "it isn't over yet." This DVD provides the background to this case, including details of torture at the hands of the FBI in 1973 when the shooting was first investigated.

After this DVD was produced in late 2006, many of the men as well as other activists from the Black Liberation Movement were re-arrested and charged with the 1971 shooting—known as the San Francisco 8, as of 2010 the government's case against these men, the origins of which are detailed in this DVD, has almost completely unraveled. You can learn more about the San Francisco 8 online at www.cdhrsupport.org

Leninism or Marxism

Rosa Luxemburg • $2.25US / $2.65CDN
saddle-stitched • 20 pages
Kersplebedeb • 189494612X

Originally written in 1904 under the title "Organizational Problems of Russian Social Democracy". Luxemburg was a Marxist who elaborated a critique of what would later be known as Leninism. In 1919 she helped lead the Spartakist uprising in Berlin, and was subsequently murdered by a right-wing mob.

Let Freedom Ring:

a collection of documents from the movements to free U.S. political prisoners

Matt Meyer editor • $38.95US / $46.70CDN
paperback • 912 pages
Kersplebedeb & PM Press 2008 • 9781604860351

A two-decade sweep of essays, analyses, histories, interviews, resolutions, People's Tribunal verdicts, and poems by and about the scores of U.S. political prisoners and the campaigns to safeguard their rights and secure their freedom. In addition to an extensive section on the campaign to free death-row journalist Mumia Abu-Jamal, represented here are the radical movements that have most challenged the U.S. empire from within: Black Panthers and other Black liberation fighters, Puerto Rican independentistas, Indigenous sovereignty activists, white anti-imperialists, environmental and animal rights militants, Arab and Muslim activists, Iraq war resisters, and others. Contributors in and out of prison detail the repressive methods—from long-term isolation to sensory deprivation to politically inspired parole denial—used to attack these freedom fighters, some still caged after 30+ years.

While providing an extensive catalog of scholarly references for the academic reader, this delightful and engaging study is directed at a wide audience and demands no other requirements than a love for pirates, daring theoretical speculation and passionate, yet respectful, inquiry.

Life in English Prisons (100 years ago)

David Nicoll • $2.50US / $3.00CDN
pamphlet • 24 pages • KSL 1992

A damning indictment (completed in 1895) of the penal system, the police, and Scotland Yard. Rescued from the vaults of obscurity.

Life in Occupied America

Ward Churchill • $14.98US / $17.95CDN
Audio CD • 60 min. • AK Press 2003 • 9781902593722

In this trenchant, and often biting acerbic lecture, coupled with a fiery Q&A period,

Indigenous activist-scholar Ward Churchill lays out the state of Native America in 2003.

The London Years

Rudolf Rocker • $21.95US / $26.30CDN
paperback • 228 pages
AK Press 2005 • 9781904859222

The autobiography of the father of anarcho-syndicalism, a German Catholic who fled to London to escape prosecution, taught himself Yiddish, becoming a leader of the Yiddish-speaking Jewish anarchists. From the Jewish Bakers Union to the 1912 tailors' general strike, which abolished sweatshops, The London Years chronicles the vibrant Jewish immigrant community in London, and how it organized, and fought back against poverty, anti-Semitism, and anti-immigrant hysteria. An incredible window into this now largely-forgotten world, and an engaging autobiography of a remarkable man.

NEW Lonely Hearts Killer

Tomoyuki Hoshino • $15.95US / $19.10CDN
paperback • 288 pages
PM Press 2009 • 9781604860849

Looking Back After Twenty Years Of Jail:

Questions And Answers on the Spanish Anarchist Resistance

Miguel Garcia • $2.50US / $3.00CDN
pamphlet • 13 pages • KSL 2002 • 9781873605035

Miguel Garcia was one of the survivors of the libertarian resistance that refused, either at the end of the Spanish Civil War, or World War II, to give up the fight for freedom. Theirs was a rearguard action, attempting to defend the workers' movement against Franco's murderous repression. This interview took place shortly after Miguel Garcia's arrival in London (in the late 1960s) and his return to political activity after serving twenty years for his "crimes." In it, he explains the motivation and methods of the resistance.

Louis Lecoin: An Anarchist Life

Sylvain Garel • $3.00US / $3.60CDN
stapled letter size • 34 pages
KSL 2000 • 1873605528

Anarcho-communist, anarcho-syndicalist, anti-militarist, but always involved in social struggles, Louis Lecoin's life presents the map of a journey through the French Anarchist movement for more than half a century—from the turn of the century right up until the early 1970s.

Kim Stanley Robinson • $12.00US / $14.40CDN
paperback • 128 pages
PM Press 2009 • 9781604860856

This astounding alternate history tale presents a dramatic encounter with destiny wrapped around the terrifying question of what might have happened if that murderous bomber flight over Hiroshima had gone a bit differently.

Mad Bomber Melville

Leslie James Pickering • $16.95US / $20.30CDN
paperback • 158 pages
Arissa Media Group 2007 • 9780974288444
The long overdue biography of Samuel Melville, a white, working class revolutionary, whose guerilla bombings of Manhattan skyscrapers—housing the government and corporate offices driving the Vietnam War—set in motion a flood of armed actions in the United States during the late 1960s and early 1970s. Once imprisoned, Melville became an organizer involved in the Attica Prison rebellion, uniting prisoners across racial barriers and making the ultimate sacrifice for revolutionary change. Mad Bomber Melville traces Sam Melville's short life and rapid political development, highlighting a much-needed example of an undying and uncompromising struggle for justice and liberation.

Marriage and Love

Emma Goldman • $1.00US / $1.20CDN
pamphlet • 8 p. • Kersplebedeb • 0968950353
Anti-marriage rant by Amerikkka's most famous anarchist.

Marxism and Native Americans

Ward Churchill • $16.00US / $19.20CDN
paperback • 221 pages
South End Press 1983 • 089608177X
Prominent Native Americans and Marxists debate the viability of Marxism and the prevalence of ethnocentric bias in politics, culture, and social theory. Contributors include Russell Means, Winona LaDuke, Frank Black Elk, and Ward Churchill.

NEW Meditations on Frantz Fanon's Wretched of the Earth:

New Afrikan Revolutionary Writings
James Yaki Sayles • $20.00US / $24.00CDN
paperback • 399 pages • 9781894946322
Kersplebedeb and Spear & Shield 2010
Like the revs that he most considered his teachers—Malcolm X and George Jackson—James Yaki Sayles grew up poor and found his maturity in prison, the place that Malcolm called "the Black man's university." A child of Chicago's South Side streets, Yaki always just thought of himself as a blood, "just another nigger doing a bit" (to borrow the laconic words of one of the Pontiac state prison revolt defendants). And it was in the prison movement that he found his place in the battlefield. Although he made revolutionary theory his work, his life was rooted in a time of urban guerrillas and the armed struggle. Though he was one of those who eagerly picked up Fanon in the 60s and carried out armed expropriations and violence against white settlers, this is not a memoir—this is political theory in the service of revolution, with Sayles revealing how behind the image of Fanon as race thinker there is an underlying reality of antiracist communist thought.

Memoirs of a Woman Doctor

Nawal El Saadawi • $11.95US / $14.30CDN
paperback • 101 pages
City Lights Books 1989 • 9780872862234

Memories of a Makhnovist Partisan

Ossip Tsebry • $2.50US / $3.00CDN
pamphlet • 17 pages • KSL 2002
One of those who took up arms in defence of the Russian Revolution—fighting against interventionists, Tsarists, Whites and Reds, who linked up with the Makhnovists, and survived to tell his story.

Men, Sexism and the Class Struggle

Men Against Sexist Shit • $3.00US / $3.60CDN
pamphlet • 31 pages • Kersplebedeb

Message to the Black Movement: A Political Statement From the Black Underground

BLA-CC • $4.00US / $4.80CDN
pamphlet • 25 pages • Solidarity 2002 • 1894820223
This statement was originally issued in 1975 by the Black Liberation Army-Coordinating Committee as part of its effort to consolidate the various isolated BLA units. It is political analysis, statement of general political positions, and a contribution to the Black Liberation Movement specifically, and to the revolutionary movement in general. Sections include: view from the armed front; racism and class; leadership of the struggle; what is protracted war in the black liberation struggle; revolutionary internationalism & pan-africanism; alliances with whites.

The Military Strategy of Women and Children

Butch Lee • $12.00US / $14.40CDN
paperback • 116 pages
Kersplebedeb 2003 • 0973143231
Lays out the need for an autonomous and independent women's revolutionary movement, a revolutionary women's culture that involves not only separating oneself from patriarchal imperialism, but also in confronting, opposing, and waging war against it by all means necessary. Critiques reformist "feminism" and shows how genocide, colonialism and patriarchy are intertwined, not only historically but also in the present. The three main essays in this book appeared in slightly different form in the 80s in the underground feminist newspaper Bottomfish Blues, the postscript ("There's Fighting in Iraq but the Real Women's War is in Afrika") was written in 2003. They are the first parts of a work in progress—part four is published separately in the book Jailbreak Out of History.

Models of Revolution: Rural Women and

cal and moral distortions of capitalism, and the need for a moral socialist alternative. Includes artwork by the author, and an introduction by the late Owusu Yaki Yakubu (James Yaki Sayles).

Move Into the Light:

postscript to a turbulent 2007

$2.95US / $3.50CDN • letter size • 20 pages
PM Press 2008 • 9781604860313
Starting from the 2007 anti-G8 mobilization at Heiligendamm, this pamphlet tries to provide a “where we’re at” from a European anti-capitalist perspective. Climate change, developments in Latin America and the 2005 revolt in the French banlieues all figure into this pamphlet, as the authors explore where they are and aren’t and what this might mean for their movement(s).

Mutual Aid and Social Evolution

John Hewetson • $2.25US / $2.65CDN
saddle-stitched • 17 pages • Kersplebedeb

The Unabashedly Human Experience of Raising Kids with Disabilities

$20.00US / $24.00CDN • paperback • 336 pages
PM Press 2009 • 9781604861099
Featuring works by “alternative” parents who have attempted to move away from mainstream thought—or remove its influence altogether—this anthology carefully considers the implications of parenting while raising children with disabilities.

My Enemy’s Enemy: essays on globalization,
fascism and the struggle against capitalism

Anti-Fascist Forum • $15.00US / $18.00CDN
paperback • 135 pages
Kersplebedeb 2003 • 0973143223
Articles by anti-fascist researchers and political activists from Europe and North America, examining racist and pro-capitalist tendencies within the movement against globalization. They expose the activities of fascists and garden-variety xenophobes, showing that the struggle has to be against capitalism and exclusion, not simply its “neo-liberal” rendition.

My First Time:

The Nazi Persecution of the Gypsies

Guenter Lewy • $15.00US / $18.00CDN
hardcover • 306 pages • Remastered
Oxford University Press 2000 • 0195125568
The most comprehensive and accurate English-language examination of the Nazi genocide against the Roma, or Gypsy people. Lewy argues that much of the impetus behind the persecution of Gypsies did not originate with the Nazi leadership, but rather with the grassroots.

Ned Kelly’s Ghost: The Tottenham (New South Wales) IWW and the Tottenham Tragedy (1916)

John Patten • $2.50US / $3.00CDN
pamphlet • 23 pages • KSL 1999 • 9781873605325
An examination of the killing of an Australian policeman, the subsequent hangings of two Australian IWW members convicted of his murder, and the context—a militant IWW, an alarmed ruling class, and the Iron Heel of state repression—in which it all took place.

The phenomenal life of Ukrainian peasant Nestor Makhno (1888–1934) provides the framework for this breakneck account of the downfall of the tsarist empire and the civil war that convulsed and bloodied Russia between 1917 and 1921.

Night-Vision: Illuminating War and Class on the Neo-Colonial Terrain

Red Rover, Butch Lee • $14.95US / $17.90CDN
paperback • 187 pages
Vagabond Press 1993 • 1883780004
The definitive analysis of post-modern capitalism, the decline of u.s. hegemony, and the need and possibilities for a revolutionary movement of the oppressed to overthrow it all. “The transformation to a neo-colonial world has only begun, but it promises to be as dramatic,
as disorienting a change as was the original
european colonial conquest of the human race.
Capitalism is again ripping apart & reconstructing the world, and nothing will be the same.
Not race, not nation, not gender, and certainly not whatever culture you used to have. Now you have outcast groups as diverse as the Aryan Nation and the Queer Nation and the Hip Hop Nation publicly rejecting the right of the u.s.
government to rule them... All the building blocks of human culture—race, gender, nation,
and especially class—are being transformed under great pressure to embody the spirit of this neo-colonial age.”—from the Preface.

No Gods No Masters:

Proudhon, Malatesta, and others.

NEW No More Violence Against Our Sisters!

Sista II Sista • $10.00US / $12.00CDN
DVD • 28 min. + 10 min.
Sista II Sista was a collective organization of working-class young women of color, active in Bushwick, Brooklyn for over a decade. This DVD contains two short films produced by the organization. The title film deals with violence against women and the uselessness of police,

No Surrender: Writings from an Anti-Imperialist Political Prisoner

with interviews with young women from the community and seasoned activists alike. The second film, "You Have the Right to Break the Silence", examines the realities of street harassment and violence against women, including police violence against women.

No Surrender: Writings from an Anti-Imperialist Political Prisoner

David Gilbert • $15.00US / $18.00CDN

paperback • 283 pages

Abraham Guillen Press 2004 • 9781894925266

A founder of Columbia University SDS and a veteran of the Civil Rights and anti-Vietnam War Movements, David Gilbert joined the Weather Underground Organization in the late 60s. After more than 10 years of clandestine resistance, he was captured in the course of an armed action in 1981. Gilbert has been a revolutionary political prisoner for 22 years, continuing his work as an AIDS activist and author from behind the walls. With unsparring honesty (and unfeeling humor), he discusses the errors and successes of the WUO and their allies; the pitfalls of racism, sexism, and ego in revolutionary organizations; and the possibilities and perils facing anti-imperialist resistance today.

No War But the Class War:

Libertarian Anti-Militarism Then and Now

Anna Key • $3.00US / $3.60CDN

pamphlet • 21 pages • KSL 2003 • 1873605137

This pamphlet represents 110 years of anti-militarist propaganda, from Spain's last imperialist adventure in 1893, through the First World War right up to the "War On Terror".

Obsolete Communism:

The Left-Wing Alternative

Daniel and Gabriel Cohn-Bendit

$17.95US / $21.50CDN • paperback • 239 pages

AK Press 2000 • 1902593251

Daniel's gripping account of the May 1968 revolt in France is complemented by brother Gabriel's biting criticism of the collaboration of the state, the union leadership and the French Communist Party in restoring order, defusing revolutionary energy & handing the factories back to the capitalists.

NEW Old Man:

John Brown at Harper's Ferry

Truman Nelson, intro. by Mike Davis

$17.00US / $20.40CDN • 304 pages • paperback

Haymarket Books 2009 • 9781931859646

On October 16, 1859, John Brown led a historic attack on the Harper's Ferry Armory. Nelson narrates the incredible events that unfolded that day and explodes the conventional dismissal of John Brown as a fanatic, presenting him as a revolutionary who helped end slavery.

On A Move: The Story of Mumia Abu-Jamal

Terry Bisson • $7.00US / $8.40CDN

paperback • 215 pages

Litmus Books 2001 • 0874869013

Mumia Abu-Jamal is probably America's most famous political prisoner. In this sympathetic book Terry Bisson recounts Mumia's life, providing both a look at the man and the times that produced him—from life in the Black Panther Party in the 60s to the brutal police repression in Philadelphia in the 70s.

On Marriage

Voltairine de Cleyre • $2.25US / $2.65CDN

On the Justice of Roosting Chickens: Reflections on the Consequences of U.S. Imperial Arrogance and Criminality

Ward Churchill • $15.95US / $19.10CDN

paperback • 309 pages

AK Press 2003 • 9781902593791

The book that caused a media firestorm. Churchill has painstakingly chronicled both U.S. military campaigns from 1776 to the present and U.S. attempts to violate, obstruct, and/or subvert International Law since 1945, illustrating a heart-wrenching history of senseless butchery and democracy deterred. In this context, the only fitting question for a nation still reeling from the wake-up call of September 11th is "How can they not hate us?" Churchill demands that the American public remove its blinders and take responsibility for the crimes carried out in its name.

Only a Beginning: An Anarchist Anthology

Alan Antliff • $24.95US / $29.90CDN

large size paperback • 406 pages

Arsenal Pulp Press 2004

paperback • 344 pages

South End Press 2007 • 9780896087712

Tracing the evolution of the modern police force back to the slave patrols, this controversial study observes the police as the armed defender of a violent status quo.

Outlaw Woman:

A Memoir of the War Years 1960-1975

Roxanne Dunbar-Ortiz • $17.95US / $21.50CDN

paperback • 409 pages

City Lights Books 2002 • 9780872863903

Dunbar-Ortiz's odyssey from dust-bowl poverty to the urban radical fringes of the New Left gives a working-class, feminist perspective on a time and a movement which forever changed American society.

Outlaws of America: the Weather Underground and the Politics of Solidarity

Dan Berger • $20.00US / $24.00CDN
paperback • 432 pages
AK Press 2006 • 9781904859413

The story of the Weather Underground, from its incendiary beginnings to its tumultuous end—from the Students for a Democratic Society of the 1960s through the political trials of the 1980s. In an unsparing critical analysis, Berger uses dozens of in-depth interviews with former Weather members and other activists to trace the group's evolution in relation to the civil rights, Black Power, and anti-war movements.

Overworked and Still Broke #2 (and sometimes unemployed)

Joe LeVasseur • $4.50US / $5.35CDN
saddle-stitched zine • 43 pages

When well done, a personal zine should also be a political zine, and it is telling that this is so rarely the case. But here Joe LeVasseur does it again, discussing life on the job, rich kids pretending to be poor, and creepy child molesters, all from a working-class anti-capitalist position.

Pacifism and Pathology in the American Left

Ward Churchill • $14.98US / $17.95CDN
Audio CD • 78 minutes • 9781902593586
AK Press and Alternative Tentacles 2002

Liberal activism often embraces non-violent resistance in response to State-sponsored terrorism at home and abroad. This forceful critique calls on activists to support any and all tactics in order to stop the tyranny of the State. Recorded at a packed and fired up AK Press warehouse in Oakland.

Pacifism as Pathology: Reflections on the Role of Armed Struggle in North America (2nd edition)

Ward Churchill & Mike Ryan, intro by Ed Mead
$12.95US / $15.50CDN • paperback • 162 pages
AK Press 2007 • 9781904859185

Written in 1986 as a response not only to Churchill's frustration with his own activist experience, but also to a debate raging in the activist and academic communities. He argues that pacifism is in many ways counterrevolutionary; that it defends the status quo, rather than leading to social change.

Pages from Italian Anarchist History

Andrea Ferrari and Aldo Aguzzi
$2.50US / $3.00CDN • pamphlet • 20 pages
KSL 1995 • 1873605226

Partisanas: Women in the Armed Resistance to Fascism and German Occupation (1936–1945)

Ingrid Strobl • $21.95US / $26.30CDN
paperback • 300 pages
AK Press 2008 • 9781904859697

Weaving moving personal narratives into the broader history of the European resistance to German fascism, this is both a detailed historical account and an investigation into what compelled women to reject their traditional roles to take up arms. Strobl excavates the history of the women who shouldered guns, planned assassinations, planted bombs, and were among the era's most active antifascist fighters. The author was herself arrested and charged with membership in the "terrorist" organizations Rote Zora and the Revolutionary Cells in 1987.

People's War... Women's War?

Comrade Parvati, afterword Butch Lee
$5.00US / $6.00CDN • pamphlet • 61 pages
Kersplebedeb 2006 • 1894946219

A look at women's role in the Nepalese Revolution, and the relationship of women to Maoism and revolution in general. The two main texts in this pamphlet are reprints of essays by Comrade Parvati, one of the few women in the central committee of the Communist Party of Nepal (Maoist). In her interview with People's March, and her essay "The Question of Women's Leadership in People's War in Nepal," Parvati is refreshingly critical and honest in her appraisal of the role of women in the CPN(M)'s peasant guerilla army, drawing conclusions regarding the connections between patriarchy and the defeat and degeneration of past communist revolutions, and the centrality of women to any successful communist revolution. Commenting on these texts, North American Amazon theorist Butch Lee examines the mixed record of Marxism-Leninism and Maoism in regards to women's liberation, the role of women in armed struggle, and the role of armed struggle in winning and defending freedom and autonomy for women and children.

Personal Recollections of the Anarchist Past

George Cores • $2.50US / $3.00CDN
pamphlet • 18 pages • KSL • 1873605056
Written in 1947, these are recollections from the inside of the anarchist movement from 1883 to 1939, by a forgotten veteran.

Essays on Hierarchy, Rebellion, and Desire

David Graeber • $22.95US / $27.50CDN
paperback • 433 pages • AK Press 2007 • 9781904859666
Employing an unpretentious style to convey complex ideas, these twelve essays cover a lot of ground: the origins of capitalism, the history of European table manners, love potions and gender in rural Madagascar, the phenomenology of giant puppets at street protests, and much more. But they're linked by a clear purpose: to explore the nature of social power and the forms that resistance to it have taken—or might take in the future.

Kersplebedeb and PM Press 2009 • 9781604860825
Former German political prisoner Klaus Viehmann reflects on prison life and on how to keep one's sanity and political integrity within the hostile and oppressive prison environment; "survival strategies" are the central theme. Preface by North American political prisoner Bill Dunne.

The Prison-Industrial Complex

Angela Davis • $14.98US / $17.95CDN
CD • 54 min. • AK Press 1997 • 9781902593227
Over the last generation, the United States prison systems have grown at a rate unparalleled in history, creating what many call a Prison Industrial Complex. This 1997 talk from Boulder, Colorado offers a succinct yet compelling argument that the time to stop prison expansion is now. Angela Davis is a legendary speaker, known for the clarity and subtlety of her thought and the passion of her delivery.

The Prison-Industrial Complex and the Global Economy

NEW Queen of the Bolsheviks:

The Hidden History of Dr. Marie Equi

Nancy Krieger • $2.00US / $2.40CDN
pamphlet • 30 pages
Kersplebedeb 2009 • 1894946308
Little-known today, in her time Dr. Marie Equi was a physician to working-class women and children, a lesbian, and a dynamic and flamboyant political activist. Spanning the period from the consolidation of northern industrial capitalism to the emergence of the U.S. as the dominant imperialist power, Equi's life serves as a chronicle of her times and illuminates how one person was affected by and sought to change world events. Active alongside the IWW, imprisoned for her anti-war activities during World War I, this is her story.

Radical Priorities

Noam Chomsky, edited by C.P. Otero
$18.95US / $22.70CDN • paperback • 337 pages
AK Press 2003 • 9781902593692
Taken from a wide variety of sources, many never widely published—some never in a book at all—and spanning four decades, the reader is furnished with a truly comprehensive window into Chomsky's anarchist convictions.

The Radical Roots of Divers/Cité

Sketchy Thoughts • $2.00US / $2.40CDN
pamphlet • 18 pages
Kersplebedeb 2008 • 1894946286
In 1990 police attacked the Sexgarage party in Montreal's warehouse district. In retrospect, the subsequent political mobilization looks like the "coming out" of queer politics in Montreal, and as such is commemorated every year in that city's LGBTA march, "Divers/Cité". This short pamphlet looks at the context and previous political mobilizations which laid the basis for people feeling empowered to fight back against police violence—the Mohawk Nation's conflict with the Canadian state, the AIDS activist movement, and previous responses to homophobic violence in Montreal.

$23.95US / $28.70CDN • paperback • 319 pages
AK Press 2007 • 9781904859321
A sprawling and inclusive collection bursting with ideas and images. Ranges from turn-of-the-century French cartoonists to modern-day Indonesian printmaking, from people rolling giant balls of trash down Chicago streets to massive squatted urban villages and renegade playgrounds in Denmark, from the stencil artists of Argentina to the radical video collectives of the U.S. and Mexico—as well as conversations with pioneering anarchist artists like Clifford Harper, Carlos Cortéz, Gee Vaucher, and members of Black Mask—Realizing the Impossible is a richly illustrated history of art and anarchism.

NEW! The Red Army Faction,
A Documentary History
Volume 1: Projectiles For the People

André Moncourt and J. Smith eds.
$34.95US / $41.90CDN • paperback • 736 pages
Kersplebedeb/PM Press 2009 • 9781604860290
The first in a 3-volume series, this is the most in-depth political history of the RAF ever made available in English. This volume presents all of the manifestos and communiqués issued by the RAF between 1970 and 1977. Providing the background information that readers will require to understand the context in which these events occurred, separate thematic sections deal with the 1976 murder of Ulrike Meinhof in prison, the 1977 Stammheim murders, the extensive use of psychological operations and false-flag attacks to discredit the guerilla, the state's use of sensory deprivation torture and isolation wings, and the prisoners' resistance to this, through which they inspired their own supporters and others on the left to take the plunge into revolutionary action. For more check out the German Guerilla website: www.germanguerilla.com

The Religion of Capital: A Satirical Exposure of Capital's Claims to Sanctity

Short Collective Biography of Action Directe Prisoners, "Political Prisoners and the Question of Revolutionary Violence" and "Resistance is a Duty!", explaining the history and giving some insight into the politics of this armed revolutionary organization that was active in France in the 1970s and 80s. Includes a timeline of the group's antecedents and activities.

The Revolution Will Not Be Funded:
beyond the non-profit industrial complex

INCITE! Women of Color Against Violence
$18.00US / $21.55CDN • paperback • 257 pages
South End Press 2007 • 9780896087668
Even as funding shrinks and government surveillance rises, activists often find it difficult to imagine movement building outside the non-profit model. Therein lies the value of this book, where radical activists from around the globe critically rethink the long-term consequences of this lack of imagination. Urgent and visionary, this book is an unbeholden exposé of the "non-profit industrial complex" and its quietly devastating role in managing dissent.

Revolutionary Activism:
The Spanish Resistance In Context

Octavio Alberola • $2.50US / $3.00CDN
pamphlet • 19 pages • KSL 2000 • 9781873605776

The Trial Statements of Ray Luc Levasseur

Ray Luc Levasseur • $3.75US/$4.50CDN
pamphlet • 57 pages
Solidarity 2002 • 1894820401
Ray Levasseur is a Vietnam veteran, a former organizer for Vietnam Veterans Against The War, and revolutionary. He was a political prisoner from 1984 to 2004, accused of membership in the Sam Melville/Jonathan Jackson Unit and United Freedom Front, two anti-imperialist organizations that carried out armed attacks in the 1970s and 80s in solidarity with national liberation struggles in the U.S. and internationally against apartheid in South Africa, U.S. intervention in Central America and in support of Puerto Rican independence. These three trial statements spell out his beliefs and what led him to oppose the empire into which he was born. An additional essay describes life in Atlanta Federal Prison and the impact of support efforts on his behalf.

NEW! What Would It Mean to Win?

Turbulence Collective • $14.95US / $17.95CDN
paperback • 148 pages
Kersplebedeb • 1894820266
Movements become apparent as “movements” at times of acceleration and expansion. In these heady moments they have fuzzy boundaries, no membership lists—everybody is too engaged in what’s coming next, in creating the new, looking to the horizon. But movements get blocked, they slow down, they cease to move, or continue to move without considering their actual effects. When this happens, they can stifle new developments, suppress the emergence of new forms of politics; or fail to see other possible directions. Many movements just stop functioning as movements. They become those strange political groups of yesteryear, arguing about history as worlds pass by. Sometimes all it takes to get moving again is a nudge in a new direction... In this context, various authors ask What would—or could—it mean to “win”?

When Race Burns Class: Settlers Revisited

J. Sakai • $3.00US / $3.60CDN • pamphlet
34 pages • Kersplebedeb • 1894820266

You do not have to use this order form. In fact it is best to email me so i can work out your postage properly (the above just allows you to estimate, you may end up paying more than you would have to). However, if you find it easier, by all means mail or fax it to me and i will fill your order. I can only accept US or Canadian checks or pink international postal money orders (other money orders will not be cashed and i am not responsible for getting them back to you). Don't forget to include your return address, and if possible your email address. If you are in prison, do not add postage and divide your total by two.
