

Keeping the Legacy Alive
Picture of the Month

Greetings Comrades:

I took this photo of Frank Kellums and his grandson Zumbi Rama Kellum at a fundraiser for Pete and Charlotte O Neal last weekend in Oakland Hills. Frank attended the fundraiser to give first hand knowledge about Pete and Charlotte's programs in Tanzania.

Brother Frank is raising brother Zumbi right, Zumbi did go to Arusha Tanzania to visit Pete and Charlotte and climb part way up Kilimanjaro. He is 10 years old and plays golf, soccer, baseball basketball and runs track. He is good academic student and third generation vegetarian.

His father went to the Children's Institute which later became the Oakland Community School. Donna Howell was his father's first teacher. His father died of Hodgkin's disease which is a form of cancer that attacks young people. His grandfather Frank is an educator that taught at the Intercommoned Youth Institute and Oakland Community School.

Frank had done community work with the Party assisting families of the incarcerated, varies senior programs, varies political campaigns in the Bay Area and Sacramento. Frank is still very an activist and educator.

He is teaching his grandson the legacy of the BPP and his role in American society, teach Frank, teach.
