

MEET SISTER CHARLOTTE

From Tanzania to South Central

Representing her husband Pete O'Neal, UAACC, and their community work that continues nearly 4 decades later

Still in exile

Still unapologetic

STILL COMMITTED TO THE PEOPLE

The children of the UAACC's Leaders of Tomorrow Children's Home

Saturday
March 7, 2009
3 p.m.

The legacy and spirit of the Black Panther Party live on through the United African Alliance Community Center, co-founded by Sister Charlotte O'Neal and her partner Pete O'Neal in Tanzania, Africa. Don't miss this chance to meet Sister Charlotte in person and raise some funds for their work!

@ the Southern California Library

6120 S. Vermont Avenue,
Los Angeles, 90044

$5 suggested donation/Everyone welcome

Plus an exhibit of BPP newspaper art!

Sponsored by:

It's About Time and UAACC

www.itsabouttimebpp.com • www.uaacc.habari.co.tz

For more info: (323) 759-6063 • www.socallib.org

GRAPHICS AND ART OF THE BLACK PANTHER Newspaper Exhibit

March 7
3 p.m.

@ the Southern California Library
6120 S.Vermont Ave.
Los Angeles, 90044

Help raise money for the children in the UAACC's Leaders of Tomorrow Children's Home

$5 suggested donation

Meet Sister Charlotte of the UAACC!
www.uaacc.habari.co.tz/

Exhibit curated by BillyX of It's About Time:
www.itsabouttimebpp.com

Sponsored by:  It's About Time and UAACC

For more info: (323) 759-6063 • www.socallib.org