Mr Tom Watson (West Bromwich East): To ask the Secretary of State for Culture, Media and Sport, how much Arts Council England has spent on the design of its website in each of the last five years. (309784)

Answer:

We did not do any major work to the main Arts Council website until 08/09. The 08/09 costs were £55,255.

Over the past five years Arts Council England has created some microsites to help with functionality and for specific initiatives. These costs are as follows:

06/07: £4140
07/08: £16,203
08/09: £4,916
