Dreamtime Stories

- Dreamtime Stories
- Indigenous Mythology

The Aboriginal people have developed a vital and imaginative religious culture centred around myths, comprising legends of the ten ways life began and how their society, laws and customs were established. With original music composed for the series these colourful, enchanting "Dreamtime stories" tell tales that have provided a basis of belief to a society over 40,000 years old.

Make it Real

- HIV/Aids
- Africa

When devout Catholic Kevin Sumba's mother died of AIDS, he was left alone to fend for himself from the age of 10 in Kisumu, Kenya. Determined to get an education, he snuck into school and supported himself by roasting peanuts. Gripping, even funny at times but deeply moving, this film is the story of the AIDS epidemic told through one teenager transforming from a victim into a young leader, against the virus that is threatening whole communities' survival.

Ryan's Well

- Ryan Hreljac
- Africa

BEST SELLER

This is an amazing, inspirational story about 7 year old Ryan Hreljac from Ontario who was determined to build a well for his pen pal Jimmy and the people in Angola, Uganda so they would have fresh, clean water. His modest $70.00, earned mainly from his extra household duties and chores, grew in time to over $750,000.00 largely through the contributions of many individuals and organizations committed to Ryan's cause.

THE BEST OF THE WISDOM
INTERVIEWS – with Peter Thompson

Peter Thompson has interviewed some of Australia's most eminent individuals for ABC Radio National's The Wisdom Interviews. The best of these interviews are now available as a 6CD set.

Interviewees include:

Peter Cundall

Peter Cundall survived solitary confinement in the former Yugoslavia, has been a military parachutist, was a machine-gunner in the Korean War and is now a passionate pacifist. He retains his great passion and zest for life that make this a memorable interview.

Dr Peter Hollingsworth

In his first interview since the events leading to his resignation, the former governor-general reveals what he had learned from his tumultuous time in office, and how he came to gain a deeper understanding of what it's like to be a victim of child sexual abuse.

Dr Dorothy Rowe

Psychologist and author Dorothy Rowe is known as a leader in the study and treatment of depression. Her opinions about the place of drugs in the treatment of the illness have made her controversial in the medical field.

BAD BEHAVIOUR

- Criminal behaviour

This three part documentary series by Jenny Brockie explores with criminals themselves, and the perplexing question of why they break the law. Rather than focusing on the familiar commentators on crime - lawyers, criminologists, psychologists and police - this series concentrates on the perpetrators, the offenders.

Ep 1 – Footloose

We meet a white-collar criminal, a petty thief and two drug importers who each in their own way, has lost touch with reality in crossing moral lines:

Ep 2 – Man for the Month

Episode two features five young robbers - four are male and three are related.

Ep 3 – Hurting People

This episode addresses the question of how one human being can reach the stage where he or she is able to hurt, even kill, another.

Two Tribes

- Business Ethics
- Mentoring

Two Tribes traces the course of a fascinating and innovative mentoring program. A group of Westpac's brightest and best young high fliers volunteered to spend some time outside their comfort zone, mentoring some students from an inner city school just down the road. What follows is a heart-warming story about tolerance, acceptance and humility. An excellent case study for personal development.
