ECONOMIC RECOVERY
FOR WORKERS,

BANKERS?

Think it's wrong that Wall Street executives got $18 billion in bonuses last year while the economy went in the toilet and more than a million workers got laid off?

The Employee Free Choice Act would strengthen America's unions by restoring and protecting the workers' rights to organize and bargain.

Together, we can re-balance the scales of economic justice. More than half of all workers – over 60 million – say they would join a union today if given a free choice.
