INDEPENDENT SCRUTINEERS' REPORT OF VOTING (CONTINUED)

We are satisfied:

- a) That there are no reasonable grounds for believing that there was any contravention of a requirement imposed by or under any enactment in relation to the ballot
- b) That the arrangements made with respect to the production, storage, distribution, return or other handling of the voting papers used in the ballot, and the arrangements for the counting of the votes, included all such security arrangements as were reasonably practicable for the purpose of minimising the risk that any unfairness or malpractice might occur,
- c) That we have been able to carry out the functions conferred on us under section 114 of the Trade Union and Labour Relations NI Order 1995 without any interference from the trade union or any of its members, officials or employees.

For a six-month period starting from the date of the ballot a copy of this report should be made available, on request, to any person who was entitled to vote in the ballot and the employer of any such person. A reasonable fee may be charged for this service.

Yours sincerely,

JOHN GALLOGLY
SECTION MANAGER
For and on behalf of Electoral Reform Ballot Services.
