

Committee on Faculty Retirement

1. Charge

To facilitate the transition of faculty to retirement and help retirees to continue to use their experience and wisdom for the benefit of the University, the committee shall

- a. consult with individual retired faculty and with independent organizations of retired faculty at Brown (Society of the Elderbears) and other universities;
- b. act as a resource for faculty considering retirement;
- c. communicate with administrators and other Faculty Committees who can assist the committee in fulfilling its charge and work carefully with the Committee on Faculty Equity and Diversity (CFED);
- d. issue reports as appropriate; and
- e. make recommendations for faculty and administrative action.

2. Membership

The committee shall consist of six faculty members at least three of whom shall be faculty emeriti. Members will serve staggered three-year terms. In choosing emeriti members, the Committee on Nominations may consult with the Society of the Elderbears.
