Sony Ericsson WTA Tour Story

The year-end Sony Ericsson Championships have been held in Doha, Qatar.

Billie Jean King and her group of eight other renegades were revolutionary by 1970s standards. A full two years ahead of the passage of Title IX in the United States, they envisioned a better future for women's tennis. In September 1970, the birth of women's professional tennis was launched when nine players signed $1 contracts with World Tennis publisher Gladys Heldman to compete in a new women's tour. The Original 9, as they were called, included Billie Jean King, Rosie Casals, Nancy Richey, Kerry Melville, Peaches Bartkowicz, Kristy Pigeon, Judy Dalton, Valerie Ziegenfuss and Julie Heldman.

Heldman, along with her friend Joe Cullman from Philip Morris and several others, provided women's professional tennis the opportunity the Original 9 and so many others sought. The inaugural $7,500 Virginia Slims of Houston was established on September 23, 1970 and it was the event that became the ground-breaker for all others.

1971 - The Virginia Slims Circuit debuted with 19 tournaments, with a total purse of $309,100 on offer in the United States and Billie Jean King became the first female athlete to cross the six-figure mark in season earnings

1973 - Billie Jean King founded the Women's Tennis Association, uniting all of women's professional tennis in one tour. The WTA was borne out of a meeting held in a room at the Gloucester Hotel in London the week before Wimbledon; the US Open, for the first time, offered equal prize money to the men and women.

1974 - The WTA signed the first television broadcast contract in the history of the Association (with CBS).

1975 - The Virginia Slims Circuit was streamlined to an 11-week Tour of the US, concluding at the end of March

1976 - Colgate assumed sponsorship of the Tour events from April to November for four years; at the Palm Springs event, Chris Evert became the first female athlete to cross $1 million in career earnings

1977 - New York hosted the season-ending Championships for the first time

1979 - Avon, replacing Virginia Slims as winter circuit sponsor, offered a record $100,000 to the winner of the season-ending Avon Championship

1980 - By now over 250 women were playing professionally all over the world in a Tour consisting of 47 global events, offering a total $7.2 million in prize money

1982 - Navratilova became the first woman to earn over $1 million in a season 1983 - Virginia Slims returned, replacing Avon and Toyota to sponsor the first unified Circuit of more than $10 million

1984 - Navratilova received a $1-million bonus from the ITF for winning Roland Garros and thus holding all four Grand Slam singles crowns at the same time, having won Wimbledon and the US and Australian Opens in 1983 (Steffi Graf would later do so in 1988 and 1993-94); Navratilova crossed the $2-million mark in season earnings, more than men's No.1 John McEnroe; the Australian Open joined the US Open in offering the women's event equal prize money (temporarily did not between 1996-2000)

1986 - Navratilova passed $10 million in career earnings by winning the US Indoors

1988 - Graf became the second woman in the Open Era to complete a calendar year Grand Slam, and made it a 'Golden Grand Slam' by winning the Olympic title in Seoul

1990 - Another Philip Morris company, Kraft General Foods, replaced Slims after 15 years of loyal sponsorship; the Tour's prize purse increased to $23 million and concluded the season at Madison Square Garden, in New York, with the first-ever $1-million tournament in women's sports; Navratilova won a record ninth Wimbledon singles title

1991 - Monica Seles became only the second player to pass the $2-million mark in season earnings and would better men's leader Stefan Edberg in '91 and '92

1995 - The WTA Players Association merged with the Women's Tennis Council to form the WTA Tour, and after Monica Seles' inspiring return to the sport in the summer, the Corel software corporation came on as title sponsor at the end of the year; prize money of the season-ending Championships doubled to $2 million

1997 - On March 30, Hingis became the fastest player ever to win $1 million in a season and a day later became the youngest-ever world No. 1, ending Graf's record reign (for men and women) of 377 total weeks

1998 - By winning Leipzig, Graf eclipsed Navratilova's all-time prize money record

1999 - After 17 years, Graf retired from the Tour with 22 Grand Slam singles titles and a record $21,895,277 in career earnings

2000 - Sanex bodycare products came on board as the Tour's title sponsor for three years; after 22 consecutive years, Madison Square Garden hosted its last season-ending Championships 2001 -The Australian Open returned to equal prize money and overall Tour prize money increased to $50 million in 63 events, including the first-ever Middle Eastern Tour events in Doha, Qatar and Dubai, UAE; Munich hosted the season-ending Championships; Jennifer Capriati capped a fairytale return to the sport by winning her first two career Grand Slam titles and rising to No. 1 in October

2002 - The Williams sisters fulfilled their father's prophecy by becoming the No.1 players in the world, first Venus in February, then Serena in July. Serena won three majors, defeating her older sister in each final; Los Angeles hosted the season-ending Championships for the first time since 1976

2003 - The "Get In Touch With Your Feminine Side" marketing campaign was launched, the Tour's most significant branding effort in its history; Serena Williams won the Australian Open to complete the "Serena Slam" while Kim Clijsters became the first female athlete to earn $4 million in season earnings

2004 - Dubai Duty Free became Presenting Sponsor of the Middle East/Asia-Pacific region, while Whirlpool came on board as European Premier Sponsor; the season will be remembered as the year of the Russian emergence, with Anastasia Myskina, Maria Sharapova and Svetlana Kuznetsova claiming their nation's first Grand Slam singles titles

2005 - Sony Ericsson became the Tour's worldwide title sponsor in a landmark $88-million, six-year deal, the largest and most comprehensive sponsorship in the history of tennis and of women's professional sport; as winner of the US Open Series, Kim Clijsters earns double prize money for winning the US Open; her $2.2 million prize cheque was the single biggest payday in women's sports and in any official tennis event, men's or women's

2006 - Worldwide title sponsor Sony Ericsson unveiled several game-changing innovations designed to make the sport more fan-friendly and interactive (such as electronic line-calling and on-court coaching); partnerships with USANA Health Sciences and Traveler were announced, along with the extension of the Tour's partnership with Eurosport/Regency into 2011, becoming the largest TV deal in the history of women's tennis; European Premier Sponsor Whirlpool extended its agreement for three years; Martina Navratilova ended her 32-year career in which she amassed more titles than any other female or male player; a global partnership with UNESCO was announced to advance gender equality and promote women's leadership in society

2007 - The Board of Directors approved the Roadmap circuit reform, the most sweeping changes in our history which will include a shorter season, fan-friendly structure and 40 percent increase in Tour prize money (from 2009); the historic achievement of equal prize money at Roland Garros and Wimbledon meant that following a 30-year campaign that began with Billie Jean King, all four majors offered parity for the first time; after two successful years in Madrid, the Tour announced the season-ending Sony Ericsson Championships would move to Doha, Qatar for 2008-2010 and to Istanbul, Turkey from 2011-13; Justine Henin became the first woman to earn $5 million in a single season

2008 - Celebrating its 35th anniversary, the Tour unveiled the largest advertising campaign in its history, with the Looking For A Hero? campaign launched on the eve of Wimbledon. Around the same time, the Tour's Asia-Pacific headquarters opened in Beijing, China, complementing existing offices in St Petersburg, Florida and London, England. Dubai Duty Free announced an extension of its Tour sponsorship through 2011, while Justine Henin became the first player to retire while ranked No.1 in the world, saying goodbye to professional tennis at the age of 25. A record five different women held the No.1 ranking during the season (Henin, Sharapova, Ivanovic, Jankovic, S.Williams), while Doha, Qatar made a successful debut as host of the season-ending Sony Ericsson Championships

2009 Season In Review

Serena Williams finished the 2009 season by winning the Sony Ericsson Championships – Doha 2009 as she clinched the year-end No.1 ranking.

Stunning breakthroughs by rising stars, rousing comebacks and an intense battle for No.1 provided the defining moments on the Sony Ericsson WTA Tour in 2009. And it was all played out against the backdrop of the historic Roadmap circuit reforms and change at the top of the Tour's administration.

By the end of the Sony Ericsson Championships - Doha 2009 the matter of the top ranking had been settled in emphatic fashion by Serena Williams. Her second season-ending title, coming on top of her 10th and 11th Grand Slam singles titles at the Australian Open and Wimbledon, ensured the 28-year-old American would finish the year in the top spot for the second time. In the process she also became the first female tennis player to earn more than $6 million in prize money in a single season.

But Serena was one of just six players who won three titles in 2009, the others being Dinara Safina, Svetlana Kuznetsova, Elena Dementieva, Victoria Azarenka and Caroline Wozniacki - who reached eight finals, the most of any competitor. And if further proof is needed of depth in women's tennis, consider this: the 53 Tour titles on offer were won by 34 different players - including 13 first-time champions, from Azarenka in Brisbane in January to Frenchwoman Aravane Rezai, who won her first title at Strasbourg in May and went on to capture the innovative Commonwealth Bank Tournament of Champions in Bali in November.

Thirteen also proved to be a lucky number for the Tour's teenagers, for that's how many of them - led by Wozniacki at No.4 - finished the year inside the Top 100. But if the qualification of Azarenka, Wozniacki and alternate Agnieszka Radwanska for the season finale in Doha hinted at a changing of the guard, established stars shared the Grand Slam spoils.

Joining Serena in the winners' circle, Kuznetsova won her second major at Roland Garros, while Kim Clijsters captured her second US Open title. Kuznetsova also won the China Open in Beijing, one of the four 'mini-Slam' Premier-level events held in conjunction with the ATP World Tour. Vera Zvonareva won at Indian Wells, Azarenka took Miami and Safina prevailed at Madrid's Magic Box, one of several new stadium facilities that were unveiled during the season.

None of this means the sport didn't produce its share of surprises. As a qualifier who had never previously won a Tour match, Romania's Alexandra Dulgheru won the Premier-level Warsaw Open, becoming only the fifth player to win a Tour singles title on a ranking outside the Top 200. Afterwards she leapt from No.201 to No.83 with a bullet - a dreamlike 20th birthday present.

And the battle for No.1 was by no means the only interest in the rankings. Three players cracked the Top 10 for the first time - Azarenka, Wozniacki and Flavia Pennetta, who in the summer became the first Italian woman to reach the elite and also played a key role in Italy's second Fed Cup triumph. For the first time, China had two players - Li Na and Zheng Jie - simultaneously ranked inside the Top 20. Other notable movers included former doubles No.1 Samantha Stosur of Australia, who established herself in the Top 15 in singles.

Speaking of doubles, Cara Black and Liezel Huber won five titles to carry their co-world No.1 status into a third year, but the formidable duo didn't have things their own way. Taking their joint haul of majors to 10, the Williams sisters pocketed three of the four Slams. And, while Anabel Medina Garrigues and Virginia Ruano Pascual defended at Roland Garros, their compatriots Nuria Llagostera Vives and Marla José Martínez Sánchez were the real standouts, winning a Tour-best seven events - in the process becoming the first Spanish duo to win the Tour Championships.

Hello (again), goodbye

Above all, 2009 may be remembered as the year of the comeback. First, Jelena Dokic dazzled Down Under with her emotional run to the quarters of the Australian Open, while Maria Sharapova's return from shoulder injury culminated with a title at Tokyo in October and a return to the Top 15. On the eve of her 39th birthday, Kimiko Date Krumm won her first title since 1996 at Seoul, becoming the second-oldest woman to win a Tour singles title in the Open Era after Billie Jean King at Birmingham in 1983.

Then, of course, there was Clijsters' astonishing run at Flushing Meadows, in just her third tournament back after two years away. With the win, the popular 26-year-old became the first mother to win a Grand Slam title since Evonne Goolagong Cawley in 1980; her on-court celebrations with husband Brian and daughter Jada arguably provided what will remain the lasting image of the year.

Inevitably, the 2009 season brought its share of fond farewells too. Japanese icon Ai Sugiyama, who played her first professional match in 1990, said goodbye at the Toray Pan Pacific Open in Tokyo; the 34-year-old had played in 62 consecutive Grand Slam main draws, a record among men's and women's tennis players. Others hanging up their racquets in 2009 included France's Nathalie Dechy, Emilie Loit, Amelie Mauresmo and Akiko Morigami of Japan.

And behind the scenes, Larry Scott, the Tour's Chairman and CEO from April 2003 to June 2009, departed to become the commissioner of the NCAA's PAC-10. Scott, who spearheaded unprecedented sponsorship and broadcast deals during his tenure, handed over to a safe pair of hands, with Tour President Stacey Allaster appointed as his replacement.

Allaster has affirmed her commitment to build on the Roadmap, which has already produced quantifiable results, particularly in the area of player commitment. In 2009, Top 10 players met their commitments 90% of the time (up from 78% in 2008), while overall player withdrawals were down 34%. While tournament organizers and fans enjoyed reliable fields, the players were rewarded with a healthier calendar and overall prize money increase of 35%.

Such figures must be music to the ears of Tour founder King, whose reflected glory once again shone on women's tennis when she was awarded the Presidential Medal of Honor by US President Barack Obama. While the spirit of King's off-court work continues with appointments such as Zvonareva's new role as a promoter of gender equality under the Tour's partnership with UNESCO, King and her cohorts can take pride in the fact that at a time of economic challenges when other sports and leagues are struggling, the Tour will add two new International events in 2010, along with larger qualifying draws at several tournaments.

Will Serena maximize her reign by delivering week in, week out in 2010 and beyond or will Safina capture that elusive Slam and the top ranking with it? Already safely back in the Top 20, how high will Clijsters fly - and what impact will the much-anticipated return of another celebrated Belgian, Justine Henin, have? While the success of the Roadmap must ultimately be measured by longer, healthier careers and fewer premature retirements, it cannot be denied such comeback stories give heart to the Tour's history.

Kim Clijsters returned to win the 2009 US Open in her third tournament back after two years away.

Ai Sugiyama, who played her first professional match in 1990 announced her retirement at the Toray Pan Pacific Open in Tokyo in October.

Sony Ericsson
make.believe

2009 has been yet another exciting season for the Sony Ericsson WTA Tour, with triumphs both on and off the court.

Working closely with the Tour throughout the year, Sony Ericsson has been committed to bringing entertainment to tennis, offering unique and creative experiences that give consumers new opportunities to interact with both our brand and the sport as a whole.

From competitions that give consumers exclusive access to glamorous player parties, to taking tennis directly to fans by having two world-class players playing a game of 'street tennis' in Toronto, we have continued to attract new audiences to the sport and broaden its appeal on a global basis.

This year's historic Roadmap circuit reforms have proved a success, with the 2009 season witnessing spectacular comebacks, rising stars, and an intense battle for No.1 ranking position. The Sony Ericsson WTA Tour can be proud of its efforts to bring further innovations to the game, ensuring that the profile of women's tennis is stronger than ever.

2010 promises to see even more action. With well-known female players re-entering the arena, and reigning stars intent on staying on top, it is set to be a memorable year for the sport.

Good luck to all the players and we look forward to seeing you during the Tour in 2010.

STACEY ALLASTER

A 15-year veteran of Tennis Canada and one of the most successful women executives in sports, Stacey Allaster (pictured left with women's tennis pioneer Billie Jean King) came to the Sony Ericsson WTA Tour on January 1, 2006 in the newly-created role of President, responsible for the Tour's operations, business development, television, new media and tournament and player relations. On July 13, 2009 she was named Chairman and CEO, replacing Larry Scott.

Since joining the Sony Ericsson WTA Tour, Allaster has played an integral role in several groundbreaking Tour achievements. She has been instrumental in the Tour's longstanding quest to achieve equal prize money for women tennis players at all four Grand Slams, which was finally completed in 2007 when Wimbledon and Roland Garros committed to offering equal prize money to male and female tennis players. In addition, Allaster helped secure equal and record prize money at the year-end Sony Ericsson Championships, adding to a total of ten tournaments with equal prize money. Another achievement has been the adoption of the Roadmap, the Tour's long term strategic plan aimed at streamlining the calendar in order to enhance the overall health and well-being of the athletes and deliver top players on a more consistent basis to tournaments and fans. In her first eighteen months with the Tour, Allaster spearheaded more innovative programs than the total number in the prior history of the sport, including on-court coaching, electronic line calling, and a revised doubles scoring format, all aimed at enhancing the fan experience and taking women's tennis to new heights.

Allaster's commitment and dedication to the Tour's global title sponsor, Sony Ericsson, helped solidify the mobile handset company's investment in the Tour and extend the sponsorship through 2010. Under Allaster's leadership, the Sony Ericsson WTA Tour has undertaken a series of ambitious digital media projects which include a new improved interactive website and, in partnership with the ATP, a launch of TennisTV.com - a single broadband online TV console that will host and stream live matches and highlights packages from more than forty of the sport's largest Tour events beginning in 2009.

Under Allaster's leadership at Tennis Canada, tournament revenues and attendance witnessed record growth at the Canadian Open (currently known as the Rogers Cup) and were among the highest on the Tour. In addition to turning the women's and men's tournaments in Toronto and Montreal into premier global sporting events, Allaster has played an instrumental role in the building and fundraising for Toronto's world-class, $40 million Rexall Tennis Centre.

The only female tournament director to be part of the ATP's prestigious Masters Series, the Welland, Ontario native also was the only woman named by Canada's national newspaper, The Globe & Mail, among the Top 25 Leaders in Canadian sport (in 2003 and 2005). In 2006, Allaster was named to a prestigious Top 100 Most Powerful Women in Canada list and received a Sports Media Canada's Executive of the Year award, the first woman to do so. A consummate tennis professional, Allaster has held every position in the sport of tennis, from a junior to a collegiate player, to a Tournament Director of prestigious Masters Series and Premier Events, to President. A member of the Tour's Tournament Council since 2001, Allaster also served as a Tournament Class alternate on the Tour's Board of Directors since 2002.

Allaster holds a Bachelor's degree in Economics and Physical Education from the University of Western Ontario, and an MBA from the University's Ivey School of Business. The mother to children Jack and Alexandra, Allaster and husband John Milkovich reside in St. Petersburg, Florida.

Sony Ericsson
WTA TOUR

Sony Ericsson WTA Tour - Pro U™

PRO U™ is the Sony Ericsson WTA Tour's umbrella institution for education and resource center. PRO U™ is charged with educating Sony Ericsson WTA Tour players and their support teams. PRO U™ is available to promote and enhance the player's career fulfillment, safety and well-being. "How", you might ask? PRO U™ helps players access the services available on the Tour and gain concrete skills to maximize their performance on and off the court. PRO U™ training is conducted both in-person as well through the PRO U™ e-learning environment, which makes it possible for players to learn career fundamentals according to their schedules and in a way that meets their on-the-go lifestyle.

PRO U™ offers:

MENTOR PROGRAM- "PARTNERS FOR SUCCESS"

The 1st mentor program in professional sports, Partners for Success brings together young players with veteran and retired players who share their dynamic experience to help these protégés make a smooth transition into their careers. Billie Jean King, the program's historian, exemplifies the role of a mentor.

PLAYER ORIENTATION- "ROOKIE HOURS"

Players learn the on-site realities and responsibilities of being a participant on the Tour. The orientation helps the players understand the building blocks of the business and her responsibilities and opportunities.

MEDIA TRAINING

Players learn how to be prepared, professional and self-expressive for public speaking opportunities.

SCHEDULEZONE

Successful schedules and outcomes incorporate the principles of periodization. ScheduleZone is an interactive, online scheduling tool that helps players plan a healthy and performance-driven schedule; it also integrates relevant Tour rules such as automatic entries. The combination of the Tour's circuit structure and ScheduleZone encourages players to plan their annual schedules carefully, keep their competition commitments and achieve their goal of performing at the highest level possible.

PREMIER PLAYER EDUCATION

Provides players with the information and training they need to succeed as they grow into a top-ranked player, whether it is learning about the Tour's history, financial planning, safety & security or identifying ways to give back to the community and the sport.

PLAYER SUPPORT TEAM EDUCATION

Player Support Team members (parents, coaches, agents, fitness trainers, etc.) are an integral part of each player's career. The Sony Ericsson WTA Tour is committed to providing education and information to these Support Team members, ranging from what players will encounter in the professional arena to the rules and expectations that govern all parties in the environment, including adherence to the Code of Conduct.

AGE ELIGIBILITY

The Age Eligibility Rule progressively allows players to play more and at a higher level by phasing them into professional tennis in accordance with their age, their ranking and the skills gained from participation in PRO U™.

ATHLETE ASSISTANCE

Provides players access to educational and preventative strategies to enhance their on-court performance and cope with the challenges of professional tennis. Assistance can be accessed through: monthly education topics; the AAP phone services/ website; and via on-site staff including the departments of Athlete Assistance, Sport Sciences & Medicine and PRO U™.

ALL COURT-GAME

A player is also required to complete the minimum educational requirements of her country, complete an annual physical examination, and participate in a variety of educational activities that promote her health, safety and career longevity.

PRO U™ programs are scientifically proven to keep female tennis players in and at the top of their Game.

Sony Ericsson WTA Tour - Pro U™

Historical Prospective

SONY ERICSSON WTA TOUR – PRO U™ – HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE

The Sony Ericsson WTA Tour takes a committed approach to the well-being and success of its players, on and off-the court. Since 1995, the Tour, through its PRO U™ initiatives, has provided professional training to its athletes.

These PRO U™ programs facilitate skill development, promote career fulfillment and longevity, and minimize the physical, psychological and developmental risks of competing in women's professional tennis. In 2004, the Tour marked the ten year anniversary of these model programs by conducting an extensive review, guided by the PRO U™ Advisory Panel. The Panel is an independent, volunteer body of leading international sports sciences and medicine professionals with extensive experience with female professional athletes and tennis players; such a panel is commissioned annually to advise the Tour on all aspects of its athlete growth and development programs.

SUMMARY OF FINDINGS:

Since their implementation in 1995, the Tour's innovative PRO U™ programs have dramatically decreased premature retirement and achieved the desired effect of increasing career longevity among players who began competing under the age of 18 and were ranked at one time in the Top 150:

- Premature retirements (prior to age 22) dropped from 7% to less than 1%.
- Playing careers are lasting 24% longer.
- A Tour player was 73% more likely to enjoy a 15-year career in 2004 compared with 1994.
- 1994 athlete stressors such as media, loneliness and family are no longer at the top of the list. Performance-based stressors, including injuries, expectations and competition are of increased concern and being addressed through Roadmap and other Tour programs.
- Players and the tennis community also overwhelming support the need for the PRO U™ programs, including 91% of the tennis community and 89% of the player community.

PRO U™ Programs are proven successful at addressing the athletes' top stress and performance-related factors.

PANEL CONCLUSIONS:

- The programs and the rule have greatly reduced burnout while fostering the health, development and long-term success of young athletes.
- The approach of PRO U™ is cutting edge within the sports community, is recognized as a model and helps athletes prepare for and handle the physical and psychological demands of full-time professional tennis.
- Early exposure to the programs is creating a new generation of athlete who can mitigate the sport's external factors (family, media, etc.) to focus more on important performance factors (expectations, injuries, etc.) that maximize career potential.

2010 AGE ELIGIBILITY RULE HIGHLIGHTS

- A 14-year-old may play up to 8 ITF Women's Circuit events plus Fed Cup. A 14-year old may accept up to one Wild Card into a Sony Ericsson WTA Tour International tournament if she is enrolled and current in PRO U™.
- A 15-year-old may play up to 10 professional events (WTA Tour & ITF Women's Circuit), the WTA Tour Championships (if she qualifies), plus Fed Cup.
- A 16-year-old may play up to 12 professional events (WTA Tour & ITF Women's Circuit), the WTA Tour Championships (if she qualifies), plus Fed Cup.
- A 17-year-old may play up to 16 professional events (WTA Tour & ITF Women's Circuit), the WTA Tour Championships (if she qualifies), plus Fed Cup. In the Tour Year of her 17th birthday a player may be named to the Top 10 and/or Premier Player Lists.
- Merited Increases: A player aged 15-17 is allowed up to four (4) merited increases per birth year (i.e., birthday to birthday). Merited increases are in addition to a player's allotted number of Tournaments under the AER. A merited increase is earned when a player aged 15-17 has completed all of her PRO U™ requirements to-date and earned her way into the Main Draw or Qualifying of a Premier Mandatory Tournament or Grand Slam via a direct acceptance. Players may include up to two (2) Grand Slam events in their total number of four (4) merited increases. However, if a player is: i) accepted via a Wild Card; ii) 14 years of age; or iii) aged 15-17 and was accepted by direct acceptance but has not completed her PRO U™ requirements prior to competing in the Premier Mandatory or Grand Slam event, then participation in such event is counted towards her total allotment of Tournaments under the AER.
- An 18-year-old may play an unlimited number of professional tournaments, Fed Cup and the WTA Tour Championships. The player will remain a full participant in PRO U™ until notified of graduation.
- Mandatory Play: All players, regardless of age, who by ranking (including Special Rankings) qualify for acceptance into the Main Draw of a Premier Mandatory Tournament (Indian Wells, Miami, Madrid, Beijing) or the Main Draw of a Grand Slam will be entered automatically. A player who has reached her maximum number of professional tournaments under the Age Eligibility Rule prior to such mandatory Tournaments, will not be allowed to play in the Mandatory Tournament and will be assessed a fine and/or receive zero ranking points unless she meets the requirements for it to count in addition to her allotted number of Tournaments.
- Olympics: The Age Eligibility Restrictions with respect to the Women's Tennis Competition will be detailed in the 2012 WTA Tour Age Eligibility Rule and ITF Olympic Tennis Event 2012 Regulations.

This serves only as a brief view of the Age Eligibility Rule. Refer to the complete version of the 2010 Age Eligibility Rule on the website at www.sonyericssonwta.com or in the 2010 Sony Ericsson WTA Tour Rulebook for details. Questions can be referred to Ashley Keber and Tom Livengood of the PRO U™ department by email at akeber@wtatour.com or tlivengood@wtatour.com.

Sony Ericsson WTA Tour - Pro U™ 2009 In Review

September 4, 2009; Billie Jean King National Tennis Center, New York, NY:

It was standing room only in the Presidential Conference Room at the US Open for the 12th annual Billie Jean King POWER HOUR. "Power Hour" is the Ultimate Mentoring Experience for Tour players who interact with each other while learning about the history of our Tour, gaining exposure to our Tour's leadership, and understanding the business side of our game.

Stacey Allaster, the Sony Ericsson WTA Tour's CEO and Chairman, opened the day by recognizing the importance of Billie Jean King's actions and accomplishments, noting without them, none in the room may have the opportunities they do, including her.

This year's theme was 'FIT & FABULOUS', focusing on how performance – on and the off the court - is critical to every Tour athlete's development. Billie Jean King, along with fellow mentors Katrina Adams, Leslie Allen, Mercedes Paz, Brenda Perry and Barbara Schett, used the "FIT & FABULOUS" platform to guide the discussion, answer questions and offer perspective to the room full of up and coming professional women's tennis players.

2009 Attendees included Kristie Ahn, Lauren Albanese, Julia Boserup, Gail Brodsky, Mallory Burdette, Mallory Cecil, Liga Dekmeijere, Courtney Dolehide, Andrea Hlavackova, Christina McHale, Kristina Mladenovic, Asia Muhammed, Vladimira Ulirnova, Laura Robson, Sloane Stephens, Stefanie Voegele, and Mashona Washington.

We are thrilled about the continued participation of mentors in PRO U™ programs; appreciation to all of the mentors who have given of their time and expertise. Special recognition goes to Billie Jean King who passionately supports the future of the game by educating and inspiring players year after year as the Historian of our Tour's "Partners for Success" Mentor Program. Mentors include:

Katrina Adams, Sabine Appelmans, Leslie Allen, Tracy Austin, Yayuk Basuki, Manon Bollegraf, Nicole Bradtke, Chris Evert, Gigi Fernandez, Mary Joe Fernandez, Judith Flomair (nee Wiesner) Bettina Fulco, Stefanie Graf, Zina Garrison, Magda Grzybowska, Anke Huber, Lielze Huber, Mima Jausovec, Kathy Jordan, Billie Jean King, Elena Likhovtseva, Katerina Maleeva, Maggie Maleeva, Manuella Maleeva, Evgenia Maniokova, Lori McNeil, Leila Meshki Betsy Nagelson-McCormack, Martina Navratilova, Larisa Neiland, Mercedes Paz, Brenda Perry, Mary Pierce, Claudia Porwik, Karine Quentrec, Kathy Rinaldi-Stunkel, Virginia Ruzici, Arantxa Sanchez-Vicario, Gabriela Sabatini, Barbara Schett, Pam Shriver, Monica Seles, Liz Smylie, Andrea Stoltenberg, Renee Stubbs, Helena Sukova, Catherine Suire, Nathalie Tauziat, Pam Whytcross and Natasha Zvereva.

May 7th and 8th, 2009 Quinnipiac University, Hamden Connecticut:

The 6th annual Athlete Development Summit hosted over 50 Athlete Development Specialists from professional sports organizations including the NBA, NFL, NHL, ATP, MLB, WNBA, MLS, and the NCAA. The purpose of the Summit is to discuss the personal and professional development needs of athletes; to share complementary programs and best practices; and to continue promoting the business of sports entertainment through successful training.

2009 Summit Topics included:

- Advancements in the field of Athlete Development
- Technology, new media and their impact on Athlete Development
- Millennial athlete panel: A Conversation with Elite Athletes
- Evaluation training and techniques
- Safety & Abuse prevention
- Formation of PAADS (Professional Association of Athlete Development Specialists) organization

The Sony Ericsson WTA Tour's PRO U™ programs and results continue to be recognized by this group of Specialists as trailblazing, particularly the e-learning platform and its ability to outreach early and broadly.

March 30, 2009, USTA National Training Center, Boca Raton, Florida:

The USTA invited the Sony Ericsson WTA Tour to meet with its top and up-and-comers at its NTC. Ashley Keber, Director of PRO U™, oriented the players as well as key coaches and administrators to the business of the Tour as well as the resources the Tour makes available to players and their team. Keber says, 'The USTA has provided an amazing team to help its players as well as a training center that is as beautiful as it is comprehensive. Through PRO U™, the Sony Ericsson WTA Tour wants to complement the USTA's programs and help these players be successful in their pursuit of succeeding at the Tour, the most elite level of women's professional tennis in the world'. The Sony Ericsson WTA Tour applauds the efforts of and commitment by the USTA to invest in the future of tennis in the USA and looks forward to continued collaboration.

2009 IN REVIEW

She didn't win the title Down Under, but the first Grand Slam tournament of the year all but belonged to Jelena Dokic, who repaired her testy relationship with her adopted country with a gutsy, emotion-charged run to the quarter-finals. It took no less a player than Dinaara Safina, so impressive through much of 2008, to stop the Aussie comeback queen in three nail-biting sets. The Russian duly advanced to the final, but couldn't match the big-match savvy of Serena Williams, who captured her fourth Australian Open title – and 10th singles major overall.

Talented newcomers Carla Suárez Navarro, who upset Venus Williams, and Alisa Kleybanova, who dispatched 2008 runner-up Ana Ivanovic, also made a splash – as did Vera Zvonareva, who reached her first Grand Slam semi-final. There was consolation for Venus when she combined with Serena to win the doubles – an eighth major for the siblings – over Daniela Hantuchova and the soon-to-retire Ai Sugiyama. The Indian duo of Sania Mirza and Mahesh Bhupathi, runners-up 12 months earlier, blitzed Nathalie Dechy and Andy Ram in a 54 minute mixed doubles final.

Is she ready to win a Grand Slam title? That was the question hanging over newly-minted world No.1 Dinara Safina as Roland Garros kicked off. The signs were good: since securing the top ranking Safina had won on the red clay of Rome and Madrid, and indeed she made her appointed slot in the championship match in Paris – her third Grand Slam final – without incident. But once again nerves seemed to get the better of the Russian and it was her compatriot, Svetlana Kuznetsova (who had beaten Safina a few weeks earlier at Stuttgart) who handled the occasion better. After two uneventful sets Kuznetsova had her second major title, five years after her triumph at Flushing Meadows.

Slovakia's Dominika Cibulkova – who ended Maria Sharapova's post-shoulder surgery return to Grand Slam play in the quarters – and Australia's Samantha Stosur made breakthrough runs to the semis. Anabel Medina Garrigues and Virginia Ruano Pascual successfully defended the women's doubles title they won together 12 months earlier, taking Ruano Pascual's personal haul of majors to 10. The Spaniards had beaten co-world No.1s Cara Black and Liezel Huber in the semis, but Huber enjoyed a career first when she won the mixed event with Bob Bryan.

2009 IN REVIEW

Once again Wimbledon was all about the Williams sisters, who met in the final for the fourth time, and also won their ninth Grand Slam doubles title when they beat Australians Samantha Stosur and Rennae Stubbs. But while Serena was clearly thrilled to put the disappointment of her loss to five-time champion Venus 12 months earlier behind her, the championship match wasn't the best of their rivalry, or the tournament. That distinction went to Serena's semifinal against Elena Dementieva, who actually held match point in the third set. Left to rue the missed opportunity the elegant 27-year-old Russian put on a brave face; many would later decide it had been the contest of the year. There were mixed feelings too for Dinara Safina, who as top seed reached the semis at the All England Club for the first time, only to be given a 61 60 grass court lesson by Venus.

Germany's Anna-Lena Groenefeld won her first Grand Slam title of any kind, partnering Mark Knowles of the Bahamas to beat Cara Black and Leander Paes in the final of the mixed doubles. Black and fellow co-world No.1 Liezel Huber had fallen in the semis of the doubles to the Williams sisters.

2009 IN REVIEW

Heading to New York with just two tournaments under her belt after two years out of action, Kim Clijsters had already shown she would not be humbled by her comeback. Yet surely even the amiable Belgian herself could not have anticipated what was to come at Flushing Meadows, where she had won her sole Grand Slam title in 2005 but was back as an unranked wild card. Casting aside Venus Williams in the round of 16 and an out-of-sorts Serena in the semis, Clijsters was never less than cool, calm and collected, her experience also proving too much for fast-rising Caroline Wozniacki in the Danish teenager's first major final.

With the win, Clijsters became the first mother to lift a Grand Slam trophy since Evonne Goolagong Cawley at Wimbledon in 1980; her on-court celebrations with daughter Jada provided the enduring image of the event. For the Williamses there was consolation in a third Grand Slam doubles triumph of the year (taking the family total to 10), this time at the expense of Cara Black and Liezel Huber (which meant the co-world No.1s ended the year without a major). Black also fell at the final hurdle in the mixed, for she and Leander Paes – the defending champions – were beaten by Americans Carly Gullickson and Travis Parrott.

Event History

The Sony Ericsson Championships is the most prestigious and important tournament in professional women's tennis. It is the final event in the Sony Ericsson WTA Tour calendar, contested by only the very best singles and doubles players in the world. The Championships were first played in 1972 and since then the event has been held in such notable venues as Madison Square Garden, New York City, the Olympiahalle in Munich, Staples Center in Los Angeles, and the Recinto Ferial Casa de Campo in Madrid. Former singles champions include Tracy Austin, Kim Clijsters, Chris Evert, Evonne Goolagong, Steffi Graf, Justine Henin, Martina Hingis, Martina Navratilova, Gabriela Sabatini, Serena Williams and Venus Williams. The 2010 season concludes in November with the Sony Ericsson Championships – Doha 2010 at the Khalifa International Tennis Complex, with the Top 8 singles players and Top 4 teams competing in the Qatari capital for a second consecutive year. Doha will also host the season-ending event in 2010 before moving to Istanbul, Turkey 2011-2013.

Event History

The inaugural Commonwealth Bank Tournament of Champions debuted at the Bali International Convention Centre adjoining the Westin Resort) from November 4-8 in 2009. Featuring top Tour players and next generation champions, competing in an innovative 12-woman round-robin singles format (four groups of three players), the tournament offers both $600,000 in prize money. The highest-ranked 10 players who have won at least one International tournament during the year and who are not participating in singles at the year-end Sony Ericsson Championships

- Doha 2009 qualified for the event, along with two wildcards. The 2009 field was highlighted by the Top 4 seeds – Marion Bartoli, Samantha Stosur, Yanina Wickmayer and Sabine Lisicki. The four seeds were joined by Melinda Czink, Kimiko Date Krumm, Maria Jose Martinez Sanchez, Anabel Medina Garrigues, Shahar Peer, Magdalena Rybarikova, Agnes Szavay and Aravane Rezaï, who captured the title in Bali.

The Commonwealth Bank Tournament of Champions is set to take place in Bali for an initial period of 2009-2011. Bali was a hugely successful host of a Tier III Sony Ericsson WTA Tour event between 2001 and 2008, featuring the likes of Lindsay Davenport, Jelena Jankovic, Ana Ivanovic, Svetlana Kuznetsova and Patty Schnyder. In 2007 it won the Tour's Tier III/IV Tournament of the Year award, voted on by the players themselves.

Event History

The brainchild of business partners Charlie Pasarell and Raymond Moore, the Indian Wells Tennis Tournament has witnessed growth like no other event during the last 21 years. An ATP-only event for its first 13 editions (Pasarell was an ATP Board Member at the time), the women held their own Virginia Slims edition in 1989 featuring none other than Chris Evert and Martina Navratilova, their third-last regular Tour appearance in the same draw. Memorable finals followed (Seles vs. Navratilova in 1991 and Graf vs. Serena Williams in 1999) before the event moved from the Hyatt Grand Champions Resort to its refurbished and expanded home at the Indian Wells Tennis Garden. That year Lindsay Davenport recovered a 64 42 deficit to Martina Hingis to come back and win. In 2005 Kim Clijsters surprised everyone coming back from injury and a No.133 ranking to become the lowest-ranked player ever (at the time) to upset the world's No.1 (Davenport) in the final. After eight years running back-to-back with the men, the tournament became combined in 1997 and the player field increased from 64 to 80 in 2000 and to its current 96 singles format in 2001. Indeed, the event has gone from strength to strength during the last two decades; in 1989 women's prize money was $350,000, but when Vera Zvonareva beat Ana Ivanovic in the 2009 final her pay check was drawn from a total prize pool of $4.5 million – marking the first time the event offered prize money equal to the men.

Event History

The Sony Ericsson Open began as one man's dream when former US professional Butch Buchholz envisioned an international players' tournament, staged in South Florida and styled after the Grand Slams. The dream became a reality on February 4, 1985, when the first Lipton International Players' Championship began in Delray Beach, played as a two-week tournament (the first of its kind outside the four majors), with men's and women's 128-player singles draws, three doubles events and equal prize money totaling $1.8 million, then the richest after Wimbledon and the US Open. A quarter of a century on the event continues to grow in stature: The starry honor roll includes former No.1s Martina Navratilova, Chris Evert, Steffi Graf, Monica Seles, Arantxa Sánchez-Vicario, Martina Hingis, Kim Clijsters and most recently the Williams sisters, who have won eight of the last 12 singles titles; Serena again made the final in 2009, only to be bested by rising star Victoria Azarenka. In 2006, Electronic Line Calling made its debut in the sport here, and equal prize money was restored for the first time since 1989. Today the event is played at the Crandon Park Tennis Center, where a permanent stadium seating 14,000 has stood since 1994; in 2010 the tournament is extended from 12 to 13 days, which should send attendance past 300,000. With a 96-player singles draw, the event will also be seen via some 2000 hours of global television and boast a total purse of $9 million for men and women. Sony Ericsson, the Tour's title worldwide title sponsor since 2005, also became the Miami tournament's main sponsor in 2007, bringing even more glitz to an already-glamorous event.

Event History

Even before the much-anticipated creation of the Mutua Madrileña Madrid Open in 2009, Spain, with its proud tennis heritage, was no stranger to the stars of the Sony Ericsson WTA Tour. The Madrid Open had been a lead-up tournament a week before Roland Garros through 2003, and for back-to-back years in 2006 and 2007 the Spanish capital was home to the season-ending Sony Ericsson Championships, affording fans the chance to witness one of the sport's all-time greats - Justine Henin - fend off all-comers before finishing each season at No.1. Now players and fans alike can look forward to a more permanent showcase for the sport; under the Tour's Roadmap reforms the new event is firmly established on the calendar as one of the four Premier Mandatory events, with $4.5 million in prize money and a joint stage with the stars of the ATP World Tour. Lending additional prestige, the spectacular Caja Mágica (Magic Box) - boasting a series of retractable roofs - was instantly recognized as one of the most impressive sporting venues in the world. And the champions' roll was given the top notch start it deserved when, having made her debut at No.1 in the rankings just weeks before, Russia's Dinara Safina underlined her status by capturing the title over red-hot teenager Caroline Wozniacki. The young Dane duly cracked the Top 10 and kept rising through the year - a hint, perhaps, that the clay courts of Madrid will serve as a launch pad for supernovas for years to come.

Event History

With players like Li Na, Zheng Jie and Peng Shuai surging up the Sony Ericsson WTA Tour Rankings – in a Chinese first, Li and Zheng simultaneously ranked inside the Top 20 during 2009 – it was only a matter of time before the China Open became a bigger and more prestigious event on the calendar. A Tier III Tour event was staged in Shanghai for four years between 2000 and 2003, with Meghann Shaughnessy, Monica Seles, Anna Smashnova and Elena Dementieva winning titles. In 2004, Beijing debuted as host of the Tier II China Open, with Serena Williams, Maria Kirilenko, Svetlana Kuznetsova, Agnes Szavay and Jelena Jankovic as its champions. In 2008, of course, Beijing also hosted the Olympic Tennis Event at the brand-new Olympic Green Tennis Center; in 2009 this facility, with its unique lotus flower inspired design, became the state-of-the-art home of the new-look China Open as it blossomed into a Premier Mandatory extravaganza offering a purse of $4,500,000. Local fans were given plenty to cheer about as Peng upset Jankovic and Maria Sharapova on her way to the quarters, but ultimately it was reigning French Open champion Kuznetsova who prevailed in the 60-strong field. Burnishing her fine record in the Chinese capital, where she was champion in 2006 and runner-up on two other occasions, the Russian was too strong for talented Pole Agnieszka Radwanska in the final.

Notable Changes in 2010

Copenhagen: New International Venue

Kuala Lumpur: New International Venue

San Diego: Returns to calendar as Premier venue (moved from Los Angeles)

Tournament Categories

The Sony Ericsson WTA Tour's 2010 season comprises the season-ending Sony Ericsson Championships - Doha 2010 and Commonwealth Bank Tournament of Champions, four Grand Slam events and 51 Premier and International category events.

Season-Ending Championships

Sony Ericsson Championships - Doha 2010, held in November in Doha, Qatar and comprised of $4,550,000 in prize money, featuring the Top 8 singles players and Top 4 doubles teams from the 2010 season.

Commonwealth Bank Tournament of Champions, held in November in Bali, Indonesia and comprised of $600,000 in prize money, featuring 12 of the best singles players in the International-level tournaments.

Grand Slam Events

The official championships of Australia (Australian Open), France (Roland Garros), Great Britain (The Championships, Wimbledon) and the United States of America (US Open).

Tour Events

Under the Roadmap changes rolled out in 2009, all events other than the Grand Slams and two Season-Ending Championships are designated into one of two categories:

Premier

Tournaments having prize money of between $600,000 and $4,500,000 and approved in this Tier by the Sony Ericsson WTA Tour. There are 19 of these events (plus season-ending Sony Ericsson Championships). Four (4) of these events (Indian Wells, Miami, Madrid, Beijing) are designated as Premier Mandatory events, with mandatory entry for all players ranked high enough and comprised of $4,500,000 in prize money.

International

Tournaments having minimum prize money of $220,000 and approved in this Tier by the Sony Ericsson WTA Tour. There are 32 of these events (plus season-ending Commonwealth Bank Tournament of Champions).

Explanations Regarding Profiles

- This Official Guide features profiles of the Top 100 singles and Top 20 doubles players using the Sony Ericsson WTA Tour Rankings for the week of November 10, 2009, along with any other players deemed necessary for inclusion.
- Win-loss records in the Grand Slam (Singles) History chart comprise main draw matches only.
- Players without a season-ending Championships chart in their biography have not qualified for the event up to and including 2009.
- Career-high ranking information is up-to-date through the week of November 10, 2009.
- Player pronunciations, where necessary, are included below the players' names on their biography page and on Page 59.

More Information?

In addition to the profiles of active players that appear in this section there are several hundred active and historical player profiles, updated regularly, located in the Players section of the Sony Ericsson WTA Tour's official Web site at www.sonyericssonwtatour.com.

The Sony Ericsson WTA Tour Web site also features the latest weekly Sony Ericsson WTA Tour Rankings, the Race to the season-ending Sony Ericsson Championships standings, regularly updated scores and schedules of current Tour events, tournament information, news stories and a photo gallery. Player profiles also feature match activity and head-to-head search functions.

Sony Ericsson

2010 Sony Ericsson WTA Tour Ranking System

The ranking system is a 52-week, cumulative system in which the number of tournament results comprising a player's Sony Ericsson WTA Tour Ranking is capped at 16 Tournaments for singles and 11 Tournaments for doubles.

The results used to determine a player's Sony Ericsson WTA Tour Ranking shall be those yielding the highest ranking points during a rolling, 52-week period, and must include a player's ranking points from the Grand Slams, Premier Mandatory Tournaments and the Sony Ericsson Championships plus the best two (2) Premier5 Tournament results for Top 10 Players.

General Description

The worldwide computer ranking for women's Professional Tennis (the "Sony Ericsson WTA Tour Rankings") reflect a player's performance in tournament play and determine player acceptances and seeding for all Tournaments. The Sony Ericsson WTA Tour Rankings are computed and published weekly by the Tour from its Corporate Headquarters in St Petersburg, Florida, USA.

Eligibility

Number of Tournaments

Players must earn ranking points in at least three (3) valid Tournaments to appear on the Sony Ericsson WTA Tour Rankings.

Age Requirements

Players under the age of 14 cannot obtain a Sony Ericsson WTA Tour Ranking. If a player under the age of 14 plays singles or doubles in a Tournament, that Tournament and the points acquired during play will not be counted for ranking purposes for that player. Players aged 14 through 17 if a player plays singles or doubles in a Tournament that exceeds the number permitted to be played under the Age Eligibility Rule (p.21), that Tournament and the points acquired during play will not be counted for ranking purposes for that player.

Processing of Rankings

Sony Ericsson WTA Tour Tournaments plus ITF $100,000, $75,000 and $50,000 events (as long as the ITF events are completed by 11:59 p.m. US Eastern time on the Sunday of that week) are processed on a weekly basis. ITF $10,000 through $25,000 events are processed a minimum of one (1) week following the completion of the tournament.

Points stay valid for 52 weeks from the week in which a Tournament is included in the Sony Ericsson WTA Tour Rankings totals.

SONY ERICSSON WTA TOUR RANKING SYSTEM

Automatic Main Draw Entry Tournaments

Definition

All players who qualify by ranking for acceptance into the Main Draw of the following Tournaments will be entered automatically:

- Premier Mandatory Tournaments;
- Grand Slam events; and
- Sony Ericsson Championships.

Ranking Point Treatment

- The ranking points earned by any player who qualifies for acceptance in the Main Draw of the above Tournaments must count on a player's ranking as one (1) of her best 16 Tournament results. Any player who is originally accepted into the Main Draw of the automatic entry Tournaments listed above, or becomes a direct acceptance and subsequently withdraws and therefore fails to play the Tournament, will automatically receive zero (0) points for the Tournament, and it will count on that player's ranking as one (1) of her best 16 Tournament results.
- Any Top 10 Player who fails to play in a Premier 5 or Premier $700 Commitment Tournament will automatically receive zero (0) points for the Tournament and it will count on that player's ranking as one (1) of her best 16 Tournament results.
- Any Marquee Player who fails to play in a Premier $700 Commitment Tournament will automatically receive zero (0) points for the Tournament and it will count on that player's ranking as one (1) of her best 16 Tournament results.
- A Top 10 Player's ranking must include her two (2) best results from Premier 5 Tournaments played during the year plus any zero (0) points.
- A 2009 year-end ranked player 11-20 must include her 2 best Premier 5 Tournaments if played during the year.
- Ranking Points for 1st-round losses at Grand Slams: Players receive five (5) ranking points for a 1st-round loss in Grand Slam singles and doubles Main Draws and two (2) points for a 1st-round loss in Grand Slam singles Qualifying.

ITF Events

For the purpose of awarding ranking points, in all ITF tournaments with prize money of $50,000 or greater, the round of 32 will be considered to be the 1st round of Qualifying, and all rules will apply as if that were the 1st round of play. In these ITF tournaments, the Sony Ericsson WTA Tour will award ranking points in Qualifying starting in the round of 32, and play in any prior round will not be considered as having taken place for ranking purposes.

GENERAL RULES

Ranking Order

Players are ranked on the basis of their total points.

Byes/Defaults/Withdrawals

Byes

The following rules will apply to the cases outlined below:

- If a player or team receives one (1) or more consecutive byes and loses her/his/their 1st match played, 1st round losers' points will be awarded, and the player or team shall receive prize money for the round reached.
- If a player or team receives one (1) or more consecutive byes and withdraws from her/his/their 1st match, no ranking points shall be awarded, the Tournament will not count on her/his/their record and no prize money shall be paid out.

Defaults

The following rules will apply to the cases outlined below:

- If a player or team receives a walkover in the 1st round, and there is no Alternate or Lucky Loser to take the spot, or if a player or team receives a walkover in a subsequent round without having yet played a match, the player or team will receive ranking points from the round preceding their elimination.
- A player or team who receives a walkover in any round except the 1st round after having played and won a match shall be awarded ranking points for the walkover from their opponent. For any disciplinary default occurring in a Tournament after the match begins, the advancing player or team will be awarded ranking points over her opponent or team.

Withdrawals

The following rules will apply to the cases outlined below:

- Players or teams who withdraw from a Tournament before playing their 1st match will not have the Tournament count on their record, with the exception of Automatic Main Draw Entry Tournaments and Commitment Tournaments for Top 10 and Marquee Players.

- If a player qualifies but is unable to play the Main Draw for any reason, she will receive last round Qualifying prize money and Qualifier points.
- If a doubles team withdraws in any round, their prize money and ranking points are calculated as follows: (i) the non-withdrawing partner will receive prize money and ranking points per the round they withdrew less 50% of the difference between that round and the previous round; and (ii) the partner causing the withdrawal will receive the prize money and ranking points from the previous round, unless one of the following apply, in which case the withdrawing partner will receive 50% of the difference between that round and the previous round: (i) player also withdraws from playing singles in a Tournament to be held the following week at the time she withdraws from doubles; (ii) player is declared unfit to play singles at the same Tournament; (iii) player withdraw/retires from a singles match which was scheduled the same day as doubles; or (iv) player does not play in a tennis event the following week.

Wild Cards

Player or teams who receive Wild Cards are awarded the same ranking points as any other player.

Tournament Cancellation or Early Termination

Tournament Cancellation Without Play Occurring

If the singles or doubles event of a Tournament is cancelled due to poor weather, and there has been no play, 1st round prize money will be paid out to the players.

Tournament Cancellation After Play Has Begun

If play has commenced and has been terminated before the Tournament is concluded, players will be paid loser's prize money for the individual round reached. Additionally, if the 1st round has been completed, all players/teams will receive their ranking points earned through the last completed round only, and the Tournament will count as a Tournament played.

Tournament Cancellation Without Completion of Finals

If a Tournament is officially terminated and the finals have not been completed, the finalists each will receive finalist's prize money and ranking points. The difference between the winner and finalist prize money will revert back to the Tournament.

Tie-breaking Procedures

When two (2) or more players have the same number of ranking points, the tie for the ranking position will be decided according to the following priorities:

1. The player with the most combined total points from Grand Slams, Premier Mandatory Tournaments, Premier 5 Tournaments and the Sony Ericsson Championships;
2. The player with the most total points from all Sony Ericsson WTA Tour Tournaments, including Sony Ericsson WTA Tour Championships;
3. The player with the fewest number of Tournaments in a 52-week period (including any Mandatory Tournaments, if the player qualified for acceptance); and
4. The highest number of points from one (1) single Tournament, then if needed, the second highest and so on. If the results of all of these tie-breaks are the same, the rank for such players will be considered to be the same or tied for that ranking position. Last Name followed by First Name will list the players who are tied in the Sony Ericsson WTA Tour Ranking Alphabetically. If both the First and Last Names are the same, the players will be listed according to whichever one is encountered first during the ranking process.

Singles

- Players are awarded ranking points for the highest round they reach.
- In Tournaments where prize money is $25,000 or greater:
 - i. Qualifiers earn Main Draw ranking points based on the highest round reached in the Main Draw plus the ranking points specified in the Qualifier (QLFR) column on the ranking points table on p.219.
 - ii. Qualifiers who lose in the 1st round of the Main Draw are awarded only the ranking points specified in the Qualifier (QLFR) column on the aforementioned table.
 - iii. Lucky Losers earn Main Draw ranking points based on the highest round reached in the Main Draw, unless they lose in the 1st round of the Main Draw in which case they receive only the ranking points earned in Qualifying.
- In Tournaments where prize money is less than $25,000:
 - i. No Qualifying ranking points are awarded to Qualifiers or Lucky Losers.
 - ii. Qualifiers who lose in the 1st round of the Main Draw are awarded only the points specified in the Qualifier (QLFR) column on the ranking points table on page 196. However, Qualifiers earn Main Draw ranking points based on the highest round reached in the Main Draw plus the ranking points specified in the Qualifier (QLFR) column on the aforementioned table.
 - iii. Lucky Losers earn only Main Draw ranking points based on the highest round reached in the Main Draw.
- Entries and seeding are determined by highest rank. In the event of a tie, the 1st tie-break procedure is the highest ranking from the previous week. The 2nd tie-break procedure is the player with the fewest number of Tournaments played over the previous 52-week period (including any Mandatory Tournaments, if the player qualified for acceptance).

Doubles

- Players are awarded ranking points for the highest round they reach.
- Entries and seeding are determined by highest combined rank. For entries, unranked players will be assigned a rank equal to one (1) plus the rank of the lowest player on the latest rankings. Teams who receive Wild Cards are awarded the same ranking points as any other team.
- In the event of a rankings tie, the 1st tie-break procedure is the team with the highest combined total points. The 2nd tie-break procedure is the team with the highest combined ranking from the previous week. The 3rd tie-break procedure is the team with the fewest combined number of Tournaments played over the previous 52-week period.
- Lucky Losers who lose in the Main Draw are awarded Main Draw ranking points only.
- See the Grand Slam Rulebook for Grand Slam entry and doubles qualifying procedures.

* When Chris Evert played her last Tour match at the 1989 US Open, she was world No. 4.

 Ranking reflects only four tournaments as a result of inability to play following April 30, 1993, stabbing in Hamburg, Germany.

 Monica Seles was co-ranked No. 1 for her first six tournaments when she returned to the Tour on Tuesday, August 15, 1995, in Toronto.

* Seles' special ranking status was revised in 1996, where she received a ranking average for the first time since her return to the WTA Tour May 27, 1996, after her sixth tournament in Madrid, Spain. Following Madrid and until she had played 14 tournaments, or, 18 months after her first tournament (the Canadian Open in August 1995), her average was calculated using a divisor of the actual number of tournaments she had played. Seles would be co-ranked with the player whose average is immediately below her average. After February 1997, or on completion of her 14th tournament following her 1995 return, (whichever came first) Seles would no longer receive special ranking status.

SINGLES — PRE-MODERN RECORD

Helen Wills Moody did not lose a set in singles from 1927 to 1932. Suzanne Lenglen was defeated only once in singles from 1919 to 1926 and that was in a match against Molla Mallory at the US Championships in 1921, in which she retired while trailing in the second set. Exact numbers of match victories are unavailable due to lack of records from that era.

DOUBLES - MODERN RECORD

109 matches Martina Navratilova and Pam Shriver. After losing the final to Billie Jean King and Anne Smith at the Tournament of Champions in Orlando, FL-USA, on April 24, 1983, Navratilova/Shriver won 109 consecutive matches before falling to Kathy Jordan/Elizabeth Smylie in the 1985 Wimbledon final on July 6, 1985.

SINGLES - ON A SINGLE SURFACE

125 matches Chris Evert, on clay courts, from August 12, 1973 to May 12, 1979, when Tracy Austin defeated her 64 26 76 in SF at Rome.

2008/09 Sony Ericsson WTA Tour Awards

The Sony Ericsson WTA Tour announced the 2008 annual player awards during the Sony Ericsson Open in Miami in March 2009. Eight players were honored for their achievements both on and off the court, with each winner receiving a Waterford Crystal amethyst trophy. The annual player awards are voted on by the global tennis media.

Serena Williams earned the Player of the Year Award for the second time in her career, having first earned the accolade in 2002. In addition to winning the 2008 US Open, Serena became the world No. 1 for the second time in her career on September 8, 2008 and capped her season with a gold medal in doubles with sister Venus at the Beijing Olympic Games.

Having captured 10 titles in 2008, the world No.1 doubles team of Cara Black and Liezel Huber earned their second award for Doubles Team of the Year. For the second year in a row and third time overall, Huber was also honored with the Player Service Award, which recognizes off-court contributions and charitable endeavors. This award is voted on by Tour players.

Other award winners were Dinara Safina (Most Improved Player), Zheng Jie (Comeback Player of the Year), Caroline Wozniacki (Newcomer of the Year) and Ana Ivanovic (Humanitarian of the Year).

As well as voting to honor Elena Dementieva with the Karen Krantzcke Sportsmanship Award, players named the Porsche Tennis Grand Prix (Stuttgart) as their Favorite Premier Tournament and the Commonwealth Tennis Tournament in Bali as Favorite International Tournament.

2008 Sony Ericsson WTA Tour Player Awards

- Player of the Year – Serena Williams
- Doubles Team of the Year – Cara Black and Liezel Huber
- Most Improved Player – Dinara Safina
- Comeback Player of the Year – Zheng Jie
- Newcomer of the Year – Caroline Wozniacki
- Humanitarian of the Year – Ana Ivanovic
- Karen Krantzcke Sportsmanship Award – Elena Dementieva
- Player Service Award – Liezel Huber

During the Sony Ericsson Championships

- Doha 2009 last November the 2009 Diamond ACES Award was presented to Elena Dementieva. Points were awarded for each off-court promotional activity carried out during the year; Dementieva's contribution included participation in two major stunts led by Sony Ericsson

- Underground Tennis in Madrid and Fountain Tennis in Cincinnati.

Also recognized in Doha were the Tour's 2009 year-end No.1s – Serena Williams in singles and Cara Black and Liezel Huber for a third straight year in doubles. They are the fourth doubles team since 1984 to jointly hold the No.1 doubles ranking and only the second to do so at year's end.

All-Time Grand Slam Champions

Known as the Big Four, the Grand Slam tournaments (Australian Open, Roland Garros, The Championships, Wimbledon and the United States Open) are the major championships. The most prolific winner of these events (women or men) is Australian Margaret Smith Court with a total of 62 Grand Slam titles (24 singles, 19 doubles, 19 mixed). Martina Navratilova is second overall with 59 (18 singles, 31 doubles and 10 mixed). Court also holds the record for the most Grand Slam singles titles with 24, followed by Steffi Graf (22), Helen Wills Moody (19) and Chris Evert and Martina Navratilova (18 each). Pete Sampras holds the record for men with 14.

Only 14 players have won each of the four Grand Slam singles titles: Court, Maureen Connolly, Evert, Shirley Fry, Graf, Doris Hart, Billie Jean King, Navratilova and Serena Williams among women and Don Budge, Roy Emerson, Rod Laver, Fred Perry and Andre Agassi among men.

Three women, Connolly (1953), Court (1970) and Graf (1988), won all four majors in the same calendar year, achieving the Grand Slam. Navratilova, Graf and Williams completed non-calendar year Grand Slams (Navratilova by winning 1983 Wimbledon, US Open, Australian Open and 1984 Roland Garros; Graf by winning 1993 Roland Garros, Wimbledon, US Open and 1994 Australian Open; Williams by winning 2002 Roland Garros, Wimbledon, US Open and 2003 Australian Open).

Two men, Budge (1938) and Laver (1962 and 1969), achieved calendar year Grand Slams.

Here are the all-time leaders, noting how many in each category—singles (S), doubles (D), mixed (M)—she has won at each of the Grand Slam events, and the years encompassing her victory span first to last:

CAREER IN REVIEW

- Won three Grand Slam singles titles: two Australian Opens (2001, 2002) and one at Roland Garros (2001); was 3-0 in Grand Slam singles finals.
- Title run at 2001 Australian Open included rare back-to-back straight set wins over world's Top 2 at a Grand Slam (d. No.2 Davenport 63 64 in SF and No.1 Hingis 64 63 in final; first to achieve the feat in over 20 years, since Austin at 1979 US Open); 2001 Roland Garros final against Clijsters included longest third set in all Open Era finals at the event (won 16 64 1210; was two points from defeat four separate times); another dramatic Grand Slam final at 2002 Australian Open (d. Hingis 46 76 (7) 62; trailed 64 40 and saved 4mp in second set).
- Won 14 Tour singles titles (14-17 in finals) and one Tour doubles title (1-1 in finals).
- Held No.1 in singles for 17 non-consecutive weeks.
- Career prize money is $10,206,639.
- Turned pro on March 5, 1990 and played first event of career that week at Boca Raton, becoming youngest ever player to reach a Tour final at 13 years, 11 months (l. to Sabatini in final); won first Tour title later in season at Puerto Rico; between 1990 and 1993 reached QF or better at nine Grand Slams, won six of 14 career Tour singles titles and cracked Top 10; missed 1994 and almost all of 1995 w/personal reasons; played on-and-off between 1996 and 1999 but never finished inside Top 20; second successful phase of career came between 1999 and 2004, winning eight of 14 career Tour singles titles (incl. Grand Slam titles at 2001 Australian Open, 2001 Roland Garros and 2002 Australian Open), rising to No.1 in late 2001 and finishing in Top 10 every year from 2001 to 2004 (incl. No.2 in 2001 and No.3 in 2002).
- Missed Australian season in January 2005 w/right shoulder problems, then underwent surgery on January 27 in Wilmington, Delaware, USA; withdrew from all events rest of season for rehabilitation; has not returned to Tour since.

International Tennis Federation

As the world governing body of tennis, the International Tennis Federation (ITF) is responsible for every level of the sport including the regulation of rules and the future development of the game. Based in London, the ITF has 206 member nations and six regional associations, which administer the game in their respective areas, in close consultation with the ITF.

The ITF is committed to promoting tennis around the world and encouraging as many people as possible to play the game. An estimated 60 million people enjoy playing tennis in more than 200 countries worldwide, making tennis one of the few truly global sports. The breadth of appeal is appropriately reflected in the ITF's active involvement in a range of circuits including junior tennis, lower level professional events, wheelchair tennis, seniors tennis and beach tennis, which was launched in 2008.

Dedicated websites can be found on each of these circuits by visiting www.itftennis.com.

During 2009, 446 ITF Women's Circuit tournaments were organized in 67 countries worldwide, enabling players to gain experience and earn the ranking points necessary to enter Sony Ericsson WTA Tour events. The ITF Women's Circuit, which forms part of the ITF Pro Circuit, is the vital link between junior tennis and the Tour. During 2008, the total amount of prize money available on the Circuit was over $10 million.

All players who compete in ITF Pro Circuit tournaments must have a valid IPIN and sign up to the IPIN Online Service, for which an annual IPIN fee is payable ($55 in 2010). For details of these entry requirements and other related Circuit information visit www.itftennis.com/ipin.

The ITF actively promotes the importance of representing one's country whether at the Olympics or within the team competition format. The men's Davis Cup by BNP Paribas and women's Fed Cup by BNP Paribas are the largest annual international team competitions in sport and most prized in the ITF's event portfolio. Both have a rich history and have consistently attracted the best players from each passing generation.

Both team competitions continue to maintain their appeal. In 2010, 133 nations have entered Davis Cup, while 87 countries have entered the 2010 Fed Cup. Further information on these competitions is available at www.daviscup.com and www.fedcup.com.

The Olympic and Paralympic Tennis Events are also an important part of the ITF's responsibilities. The 2008 Olympic Tennis Event was held in Beijing in August with 169 players from 48 nations participating. The Paralympic Tennis Event also took place in the Chinese capital in September. For further information on the Olympic Tennis Event visit www.itftennis.com/olympics.

At the grass roots level, the development of the game is a major priority. The ITF runs a comprehensive development programme with the aim of raising the level of tennis worldwide and increasing the number of countries competing in mainstream tennis. The development programme's remit is far-reaching and includes a worldwide schools tennis initiative program, the education of coaches, equipment distribution, facility grants, increasing competitive opportunities, as well as organizing junior and professional touring teams and tournaments.

The ITF Development Programme is funded by the ITF and by the Grand Slam tournaments through the Grand Slam Development Fund. In the last 20 years more than $56 million has been invested in tennis development worldwide. For further information on the ITF Development Programme visit www.itftennis.com/development.

One of the ITF's most important tasks is to safeguard the future of the game. This is achieved through governance of the rules of tennis, conducting research into the technical aspects of tennis and by keeping ahead of all new trends and issues. Regulation of the sport also includes keeping tennis free from drugs, and the ITF is responsible for the management, administration and enforcement of the Tennis Anti-Doping Program at all Sony Ericsson WTA Tour events.
