

The Vidal Sassoon International Center for the Study of Antisemitism

Call for Applications For Felix Posen Doctoral Fellowships

is an interdisciplinary research center founded in 1982. The Center is dedicated to an independent, non-political approach to the accumulation and dissemination of knowledge necessary for understanding the phenomenon of antisemitism. The Center supports research on antisemitism through the ages, focusing on relations between Jews and non-Jews, particularly in situations of tensions and crisis.

The Center welcomes applications from doctoral candidates, working on their dissertation, for a Felix Posen Fellowship.

The fellowship is awarded for doctoral studies in a variety of disciplines such as history, Islam and Middle East, political science, sociology, psychology, economy, literature and folklore, and any other discipline which might assist in the understanding of the antisemitism phenomenon.

The deadline for submitting applications is 8 November 2012.
