Taxi from New Street Station

There is a taxi rank outside the main doors of New Street station. The taxi ride from the station to Transport House should take about five minutes.

Directions on foot from New Street Station

When leaving New Street Station there are two different exits that you can take either walking from rear exit /entrance at the end of the platform or by leaving from main exit /entrance.

Directions from the rear exit/entrance of the station

1. From the platform follow the signs pointing towards Navigation Street exit.
2. After passing through the ticket barrier go out the glass doors straight ahead. Using the pedestrian crossing directly outside the station entrance cross over and walk up the road directly opposite called Pinfold Street.
3. At the top of Pinfold Street you will reach Victoria Square which features a large fountain.
4. The building facing you is Birmingham Council House. Taking the path to the left you enter into another square which has a smaller fountain in the middle of it. This is called Chamberlain Square and the Birmingham City Library is in front of you.
5. Walk diagonally across this square to the left, past the fountain and up the steps where there is a walkway to a small shopping arcade.
6. Keep walking straight ahead and you will come out through revolving doors into Centenary Square.
7. On entering centenary square, walk diagonally across it, to the left hand corner, passing the ICC on your right and on to Broad Street.
8. Continue to walk along Broad Street, passing the Novotel Hotel on your right. Cross the road at the pedestrian crossing. Continue walking for approximately two hundred yards until you reach Transport House.

Directions from main exit /entrance

1. From the platform follow the signs for the main exit /entrance. When passing through the ticket barriers you will see escalators immediately in front of you which takes you to the Pallasades Shopping Centre. Go up the escalators and at the top turn left. Pass by the shops turning left you will see the exit leading to 'New Street'. Go down the pedestrian ramp and at the bottom of the ramp face left. You are now on New Street. Cross at the traffic lights straight ahead heading towards the top of New Street.

2. Walk straight along New Street passing various shops, until you come to a square, with a fountain that has a statue in the middle of it that sits in front of Birmingham's Council House. This is Victoria Square.
3. Walk up the steps, towards the Council House and around the side of the building where you will come into another square with a smaller fountain in the middle of it.
4. This is called Chamberlain Square and the Birmingham City Library is in front of you.

Follow steps 5 to 8 from the directions noted above.
