

Dr Christine Berman
Executive Member

Dr Christine Berman has been a CAA member since 1998 when she started working as a chiropractor.

Over the past 14 years she has worked in a number of practices across Sydney, and currently divides her time between clinics in Centennial Park and Hornsby Heights.

She completed a Bachelor of Science degree at the University of NSW and completed a Masters in Chiropractic at Macquarie University.

Christine was previously a board executive from 2003 to 2006 and, in her current role, is looking forward to working alongside other chiropractors to promote chiropractic in the community.

Dr Dennis Jang
Executive Member

Dr Dennis Jang has been a member of CAANSW since 2011. A practicing chiropractor for six years, Dennis has spent half this time working in clinics overseas. He has worked in South Korea, Singapore and Sydney in both pain and wellness based centers.

Dennis currently works at Central Coast Spinal Care Centre and is undergoing further tertiary education, studying Traditional Chinese Medicine at UTS.

He completed a Bachelor of Chiropractic Science in 2004 and a Master of Chiropractic in 2006, both at Macquarie University, and is particularly interested in sports medicine and acute management of pain.

In his role on the board, Dennis hopes to contribute to the business administration and corporate governance and is particularly passionate about the 'behind the scenes' administrative work.

Dr Leanne Jenkins
Executive Member

Dr Leanne Jenkins has been a member of the CAANSW for three years.

After working in an administrative role at Chiropractic Education Aust Ltd (CEA) for three years and a further five years working at CAA (National), she completed a Bachelor of Chiropractic Science at Macquarie University in 2009 and a Master of Chiropractic in 2011.

As a recent graduate, Leanne is enjoying focusing on further developing her clinical experience and treating a broad array of patients in her current role at the Katoomba Chiropractic Centre in the Blue Mountains.

Leanne is committed to the chiropractic profession and looks forward to a long term relationship with CAANSW. She aims to support the next generation of chiropractors by focusing on the grass roots level of education, building on the relationship with Macquarie University and encouraging more student memberships.
