

Fuck Grand Juries

“ I refuse to appear because I despise the state. They are working to undo everything that anarchists stand for. I refuse to help them on the principle that prisons should be abolished. I refuse them because I am in complete support of the crimes they are investigating. I refuse them with a visceral hatred for the law and all of the lives they ruin.

Three people are currently in solitary confinement in Seattle for refusing to comply with a politically motivated Grand Jury investigating anarchist organizing in the Pacific Northwest. Two others have refused to appear at all, and even more have disappeared to evade subpoenas altogether.

Support the silent ones.
