FOIA No. 2014-053

This letter responds to your recent Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA") request received by the Federal Communications Commission (FCC or Commission) and assigned to the Consumer & Governmental Affairs ("CGB") and Enforcement ("EB") Bureaus. You are seeking "all informal complaints received at the FCC regarding the television series 2 BROKE GIRLS (or TWO BROKE GIRLS)[.]"

According to the Commission's Records Control Schedule for Informal Complaints ("Records Control Schedule"), the Commission is not required to maintain informal complaints and related correspondence for more than three years after the case is closed. See N1-173-07-1, FCC Disposition Authority. Therefore, all complaints records prior to January 1, 2010, have been purged pursuant to the Records Control Schedule.

On December 3, 2013, Mike Hennigan of my staff contacted you, via email, to discuss your requests and the estimated fee for processing them. On December 5, 2013, you contacted Mr. Hennigan and he advised you that the fees to process your request would be approximately $100.00. Therefore, via email, you advised Mr. Hennigan that you agree to pay a maximum fee of $100.00. Therefore, CGB conducted a search of the databases in which we maintain the records of informal complaints filed by, or on behalf of, consumers. Our search revealed 91 documents that are responsive to your request, which are enclosed. EB informed CGB that a search of its records identified 50 responsive documents, which are also enclosed.

Mike Hennigan of my staff redacted all personal identifying information relating to the individuals who submitted or are named in the enclosed complaints or inquiries based on Exemption 6 of FOIA, which permits agencies not to disclose files that would clearly invade personal privacy. Mr. Hennigan also redacted some FCC employee names based on Exemption 2 of FOIA, which permits agencies not to disclose internal personnel rules and practices.

Please be advised that the Commission receives many complaints and comments that do not involve violations of the Communications Act or any FCC rule or order. Thus, the existence of a complaint filed against a particular carrier or business entity does not necessarily indicate any wrongdoing by any individuals or business entities named in the complaint.

FOIA and FCC rules require the FCC to charge requesters for time spent searching for and reviewing responsive documents, and for copying them.¹ Based on your classification as an "all other" requester, the FCC does not charge you for the first two hours of search time and the first 100 pages of copying.² The total charge for processing your FOIA request is $97.63. The search was conducted by a GS-13 employee for one hour and 30 minutes at an hourly rate of $58.02. The fees for duplication of documents being furnished to you is $10.60 (106 pages x $0.10). The Financial operation Division, Office of Managing Director, Federal Communications Commission, will send you a bill for this amount soon. Interest will be assessed on the fee owed if it is not paid within 30 days of the date of the bill.

If you think this response denies your FOIA request, you may file an application for review of this decision with the FCC's Office of the General Counsel within 30 days.³ Both the application and envelope containing it must be marked "Review of Freedom of Information Action" and the application should refer to FOIA Control No. 2014-053.

Sincerely,

for Nancy Stevenson

Problem Description

This was within the first few minutes of the airing of the program...The main actress/character, Sam I believe is her name, was walking by a table and the customer asked for some side dish and they didn't know where there waitress was. So Sam said, "I think she's on a break...I'll get it." Sam walks into the walk-in freezer, and as the freezer wall and shelves are banging back and forth (this other waitress is having sex on the floor with someone) the other waitress hands Sam what she needs. That's not the part I'm complaining about! Sam goes back out and hands the food to the customer and another customer asks where their waitress is. At this point you hear moaning and screaming from the kitchen area, and Sam says "Oh, she's coming!" Is this really necessary? I should have expected this coming from the directors of Two and a Half Men (which my husband and I quit watching due to the trash). I feel this is soft porn. No wonder our country is in the condition it is in when shows like this are on the air.

Thank you for your time,

Problem Description

In the opening 5 minutes of the broadcast one of the stars made the comment "dry vagina" and then immediately proceeds to another room on the set where a waitress is having sex. When the star returns to the front room she made the comment that the other girl was "coming" followed by the groans being heard by the girl who is supposedly having sex. On a personal note I enjoy comedy, and I was thrilled with the line of comedy shows that were new to the fall season. Every show I tuned into had a some sort of sexual overtone. I am really disturbed by what I am seeing on national television. I tolerated it enough when it was on cable due to the fact that I chose to purchase cable. I simply refused to watch these type of shows but now public television is riddled with sexual overtones and inappropriate material for children. I am asking that the FCC do their job and remove these types of television shows from our public broadcasting systems. I have served my country with honor and am proud to say that I am an American, but when we continuously allow these type of shows to air I am rather embarrassed and ashamed of us as a country. Please do something about this. My next step is to my local congressman. I refuse to simply let this be my only complaint.

Respectfully,

The entire 2 Broke Girls show was vulgar and profane, and I do not believe appropriate for prime time. I encourage you to watch the entire segment, as well as previous episodes. Strong sexual emphasis and explicit language is some of the worst ever in this time slot. I have never filed a previous complaint, but this one is just too much for 7:30 p.m. on a weeknight. Thank you. [REDACTED]

I enjoy the show "2 Broke Girls" (CBS) but the last two episodes uses unnecessary profane words. Nov 7 2011 show used the word "vagina" three separate times in one episode. It was painful. Nov 14 2011 used the word "penis" another three times and it had no bearing on the plot. Do the writers want to break down barriers to good taste and spew coarse language during family hour? This is your job to try to keep television from becoming a cesspool and allow everyone to enjoy profane-free shows. My daughter and I watch it together and aside from those two incidents, we like the rest of the show. Thank you.

Insinuations relating to the word Orgasm. Several times they used the word "come" in a very derogatory fashion, very inappropriate for a 7:30 pm prime time time slot. Watch it, it is terrible. Also, preceding it on the same channel is "How I met your Mother." In it, the words "getting Laid" are used repeatedly. This country does not need such filth on mainstream prime time Television.

Problem Description

I have written this letter and included links to the two most explicit commercials broadcast last night during the Super Bowl. I know that these advertisers knew better, but chose profit over decency. I am outraged by the offensive "Go Daddy" commercial, and the sexually explicit "Two Broke Girls" commercial. I firmly believe that viewers deserve a warning that "The following content may be unsuitable for more sensitive viewers" if these commercials are going to be broadcasted. These warnings appear before shows on Animal Planet, for example, and before "scenes which may be shocking or graphic" on many stations, allowing parents the time and foewarning necessary to protect their children. Likewise, we deserve to be warned before innocent little eyes are subjected to this type of sexual content! These ads crossed the line of public indecency and are now brewing in the collective national subconscious. Little Children are very impressionable and parents have EVERY right to protect them from this type of sexually explicit content. We cannot erase these images from their minds. Grandparents and families have made traditions around sitting down to a plate of home-baked snacks and watching a long-standing American Tradition together. As everyone is cozily gathered around, looking forward the much anticipated Super Bowl, we should absolutely NOT be forced to squirm in our seats or rush around trying to find the remote in an attempt to change channels in time while being forced to listen to obnoxiously smacking kisses between an adult woman and a seemingly underage boy, nor should viewers have to backtrack and attempt to make excuses to their children for what those "Two Broke Girls" were doing on that dance pole. I am sure that there is a demographic of viewers who indeed want to see that type of content, so they should be able broadcast on an "adult viewers only" telecast. But families with children who were innocently watching this all-American sporting event cannot "unsee" (or "unhear") what we saw and heard. Our little, innocent children across the nation should not be chattering and snickering around swing-sets and lunch-room tables today about what they saw. SOMETHING MUST BE DONE!

Everyone that I know on Facebook, and these are liberal people mind you... EVERYONE agrees that it was disgusting. Especially the "GoDaddy.com" commercial. They should be sued for indecency in the public realm, sexual exposure to minors and CBS should have to think twice before they broadcast that kind of material during normal, family viewing hours. We cannot sit back and let these advertisers corrupt our young and impressionable children. It is completely unfair and someone needs to stand-up for all of us who are still nauseated today by what our children were exposed to last night! Please take action on our behalf!

Signed

Problem Description

I am getting very annoyed at the continuous sexual innuendos on this show. at almost 2-3 per minute, it is really getting hard to watch this program. On tonight's episode (Nov. 19, 12) just a few examples... ANAL SEX (used twice), manipulating young boys, touching my almond joy, always looking for an excuse to put it somewhere - why do think we don't serve bagels anymore, he might be into me but he doesn't seem to want to "GET INTO" me, okay but there seems to be plenty of wood right here, you saw how turned on he was - he was practically raising a barn in his pants. That was just the first 10-12 minutes of the show. I won't let my teens watch this show and neither will I. Thanks, [REDACTED]

Problem Description

Beyonce and her girls were just about naked/ they should have had a pole with all the profane moves she was doing. I had to turn the TV off and just forget about looking at the rest of the game. The blackout should have stayed off, this is not appropriate. Last year Madonna tried, then Janet Jackson showed herself, when is this pushing it to the limit going to end.

This isn't the only thing going on with TV. Two and a half men is nasty and just about every 30 minute show feels the need to talk about sex and swearing. Two Broke girls talks about men's body parts. I don't let my children watch TV unless I screen it first.

If this was cable I would not be sending this, but this is regular TV. Most of the shows that come on has filth or sex in it, it has become worse than cable.

Please clean up the TV Stations.

Sincerely,

I put the Superbowl in the space above due to the fact that this draws the line, It was worse than Victoria Secrets fashion show, which needs to be taken off the air.
Sex and profanity does not belong on TV.

Problem Description

Literally flipping through the channels while away on work and stopped on the program. It stopped on a guy walking in a backroom of a store and he was talking about selling his nuts. Then says both his product and his nuts...meaning his testicles. Then adding he is a prostitute. Then when the girls ask to see his product (referring to his food) he zips his fly down and proceeds to open his fly and "shows" them to the girls. He never actually shows them but the camera does clearly show his zipper is open.

I complained once before and it was moved to a later time(not inferring that just my compliant was why), and it seems that it has returned to an earlier time again. This show is not appropriate for 8:30 pm est, not even for 9:30 pm est. It must be on later. I have kids and though my wife and I get them to bed by 8 on most nights I dont need them to be able to watch stuff like this by accident. They only have a small window to stay young and shows like this, at this time doesn't help at all.

Problem Description

According to the FCC's website, "The FCC has defined broadcast indecency as language or material that, in context, depicts or describes, in terms patently offensive as measured by contemporary community standards for the broadcast medium, sexual or excretory organs or activities." The Commission further states on the site that "...broadcasts ...that fit within the indecency definition and that are aired between 6:00 a.m. and 10:00 pm are prohibited and subject to indecency enforcement action."

This episode of 2 Broke Girls focuses primarily on one subject: Caroline's father's penis (a sexual organ), and it was broadcast at 8:30 pm EDT.

The story line is that Caroline's father is in prison. Caroline and Max visit the father in prison. During a private moment with Max, he tells her that a previous girl friend has written a book and "... the woman claims I have a small penis." On the train going home, Caroline repeatedly asks Max what her Dad told her. The scene is complicated by the fact that a small band has gotten on the train and some band members are blowing horns. Finally, Max yells out on the train, "Your Father has a small penis!?"

Later, back at the restaurant, Sophie joins the girls and lets it be known that knowledge of the penis problem is widespread. Then Oleg, the cook, says "It came up on the Google Penis Alert! I have to keep current. See what the trends are. You don't want to be the middle aged guy who wears the same penis you had in high school!"

Toward the end of the show, Caroline and the woman accuser appear on Piers Morgan's TV news show. Caroline works hard to keep the conversation away from her Dad's penis, but Max who has a picture of the penis on her mobile phone and she eventually gets the picture (not shown on the broadcast) in the hands of Piers Morgan. Piers says the penis is not inadequate, and decides in favor of Caroline.

Due to the penis material, the FCC should designate this episode as indecent. Why? The show, as outlined above, i) focuses on a sexual organ, ii) was broadcast and re-broadcast at a prohibited time, iii) is patently offensive and harmful, especially to children and young adults that are watching at the early evening time, and don't need to be worrying about penis lengths at their age, and iv) it is well beyond community standards in Columbus, Ohio and most of America. A key test is this: how many other TV programs or newspaper reports does an average person see about a "man's penis length"? The answer - none for general consumption. The only exception might be occasionally on a health show.

One final point, this complaint should also be considered in WBNS-TV's license renewal proceeding which is currently before the Commission. See BRCDT - 20130603BEU in the Media Bureau.

It has come to my attention after being a part of broadcast industry for some 30+ years. That is far too much profanity as well sexual content on all the networks broadcast & cable. Is there not anymore guidelines as to what is & is not acceptable to air. Much of media reflects the life we have because of the laxness of are broadcast rules, much of the violence and sexual assaults can be tracked to this content. It is my hope that your organization would take a hard look at your responsibility in our culture. Many a nation has fallen by the wayside because of these same immoralities. Thank you

The show made frequent references to "girl on girl porn," phrased exactly like that, and a photography joked to a girl to bend over and arch her back. I would not expect to find references to this on a primetime tv show. Cable would be different, but not CBS. It is indecent because children are still awake at 8pm. I do not want mine hearing the word "porn" in a tv show, much less a specific type of porn. It is indecent.

This program not only shows people being shot indiscriminately, it showed torture of actors by using electrocution and mouth torture tools plus a drill. This is appalling. Where do program developers think that young men learn violence - especially showing this kind of stuff to sociopaths, kidnappers, etc. This isn't the only program on television that has been getting progressively violent - others include NCIS, CSI, Criminal Minds, Hawaii Five-O, etc. I also do not like the tendency of comedy shows to use sexual innuendo to promote their series - How I Meet Your Mother, 2 Broke Girls, etc. This puts women down and promotes male ego.

Thank you

My 3 year old stopped what he was doing to watch because he's not heard that word before. I turned off the TV. Since when is it okay to use the word BITCH on TV during prime time?

"That woman keeps pushing my head down. I feel like I'm on a date with her" and she also says to a male character, "Typical, shoot on my chest and you're done with me". Both of these are references to graphic sexual acts. Forced fellatio and ejaculation on a woman's breasts are not prime time material.

For the little bit of the Superbowl I saw this past year, I found some commercials and images from the halftime show very offensive. The 2 Broke Girls pole dancing commercial was R rated. Stripping clothes off and doing a pole dance was enough for me to turn the channel. The commercial with the old people making out & the old guy plastering his chest on the window of the restaurant was uncomfortable - another channel changer. I did not watch all of Beyonce's halftime show because of her smutwear clothes. By the pictures on the internet her dancing was very suggestive & disgusting. Shame on the NFL & CBS! This is not family friendly.

I do not watch much of CBS programs because of the constant sexual innuendo & language and can't understand why the government over site is so loose on what can be seen and said on regular TV. This episode came on and before I could change it and within the first few minutes the discussion between the two girls was about a date. In the discussion the poorer of the girls stated that the formally rich girl was wearing a sweater that would be difficult for her date to take off in the taxi. The rich girl responded with, I only know how to date rich people so I don't know what's expected on a first date being poor, to which the poor girl responded, anal.

Again, CBS is so blatant about showing inappropriate things on TV and again, why has the government been so lax in allowing this?

Problem Description

In this advertisement for a show called Two Broke Girls, the girls lost half of their clothes and then proceeded to dance on stripper poles. In what world would this possibly be acceptable to the average person on national television for a show watched by families and young children?

The advertisement aired during the Superbowl but later in the program. Closer to 8-9 pm. I apologize that I have the time incorrect but I was more focused on getting my 2 young daughters (under age 10) to bed before they caught any more glimpses of such material.

Please crack down on these idiots putting this stuff on the television. It is wrong in so many ways to put this smut on national television.

Problem Description

Beyonce and her girls were just about naked/ they should have had a pole with all the profane moves she was doing. I had to turn the TV off and just forget about looking at the rest of the game. The blackout should have stayed off, this is not appropriate. Last year Madonna tried, then Janet Jackson showed herself, when is this pushing it to the limit going to end.

This isn't the only thing going on with TV. Two and a half men is nasty and just about every 30 minute show feels the need to talk about sex and swearing. Two Broke girls talks about men's body parts. I don't let my children watch TV unless I screen it first.

If this was cable I would not be sending this, but this is regular TV. Most of the shows that come on has filth or sex in it, it has become worse than cable.

Please clean up the TV Stations.

Sincerely,
Teresa

I put the Superbowl in the space above due to the fact that this draws the line, It was worse than Victoria Secrets fashion show, which needs to be taken off the air.

Sex and profanity does not belong on TV.

Problem Description

Cbs has always pushed the envelope on monday with shows like 2.5 men and others but @broke girls has went far beyond. almost every line is disgusting. From talking about oral sex to anal, from constant comments about sexual positions and ejaculation in every oraface, to menstrual cycles-in much more vulgar terms. If this was on late it would be one thing but CBS starts with these shows at 7:00 pm and get worse all night. The show mike and molly in all fairness has calmed down some but 2 broke girls is unrelenting. We should not have to send our kids from the room when any prime time shows come on. Please dont get me wrong some of these show can be funny but CBS has to be responsible for what it airs and when. I dont know when tv censorship died in this country but we need it back. Pease keep in mind there are many more people who feel this way but dont want to say anything or dont know how to. Complaining to CBS doesn't do anything. Please help the only thing they will understand is things that effect the cash floww. Thank you for your time

Consecutive episodes were aired, exact date not certain. Please verify the date. 1st episode had Pearl Necklace in the title. One female character said "I've had quite a few pearl necklaces, and I've found them sticky rather than lucky." (Laugh track heard) Next episode: when a restaurant female customer was choking, the female waitress asked what to do when a woman is choking. The male cook said, "I just pull back a couple inches." (Laugh track) Please don't disregard my complaint just because I have the dates/times/exact wording wrong. I am sad, angry, and disgusted that such very crude humor is allowed on TV, network or otherwise. Why does my 16 year old daughter have to wonder what a pearl necklace is? Is that forced education the price that needs to be paid for watching TV? Thanks for reading. I hope I will receive a response or notification of the FCC determination.

I was appalled at the TV show "2 Broke Girls" while viewing last evening. The dialogue included constant sexual references, but the most outrageous was a comment about having "anal" on the first date. Direct reference made to Anal Sex once, and then indirectly a second time before commercial break in the first segment of the show. It is disgraceful that a reference in this manner can be made on national TV so casually. I don't want my child observing and then asking me what that means. I am a 32 year old father, and normally not offended by much of anything. However the manner in which the joke was made was extremely offensive.

Problem Description

This program, which has a history of airing obscene and indecent language on the public airwaves in the early evening hours, has several parts of this show that are objectionable. But this FCC complaint focuses on a 3 minute time period near the end of this 9 PM program when the show engaged in dialog and supporting visual effects on female masturbation. Male masturbation was also discussed in the same segment. Here is some of the troubling dialog and visual effects, and also the setting:

Max (a female) and Andy have returned to Max and Caroline's apartment. When they get there, Caroline appears to be missing. A few seconds later, Max tells Andy she has to go to the bathroom. Max opens the bathroom door to find Caroline with her legs up on opposite sides of the bathtub (the rest of her body is hidden). The dialog ?

Caroline: What are you doing? Knock first!!

Max: Why are your legs up in the air like that? And why are you holding the shower head down ?. (Scream) Oh, ho!!

Max closes the door, and says ?I am sorry. I thought you were feeling bad for your self, not feeling your ?bad self?.

A few seconds later, Caroline leaves the bathroom in a bath robe and addresses Max face-to-face.

Caroline: What are you doing home already? Why aren't you at ?Candy Andy's? party? Oh, don?t look at me like that ? it is not like I?m the only person in the world who masturbates.

Max: Also, Andy is here !

Andy: We wanted to surprise you !

Max: Then you surprised us!

(a little later in the show Max and Caroline are back at their restaurant)

Andy comes into the restaurant looking for Caroline.

Caroline: Oh no. I don?t want to see him again.

Max: He has already seen you at your worst. You vomited and masturbated. That is your full range !

Andy: Hi. Look I know you are really embarrassed about everything. So, there is really nothing I can say to convince you not to be. So, (Andy takes off his out garments leaving a short top and shorts) - who is embarrassed now? To further my embarrasment, I will do gymnastics (he does a back flip landing straight up).

Caroline: That is not embarrassing. It was amazing.

Andy: All right. Well then, come back to my house and watch me masturbate !
-- Or we could just get coffee!

(shortly after this the episode ends)

The above dialog and the associated visual support clearly demonstrates that this program, which was broadcast over the public airways from 9-9:30 PM, is obscene. CBS knows from public norms and previous public complaints that this material is offensive to the general public. Yet it persists in these programs which are harmful to young adults and children apparently in order to increase its audience and its revenues. It is time for the Commission to act to stop CBS's arrogant violation of the law and its on-going public harm. The public airways were not created so that networks can use them to significantly harm American families.

A lewd conversation was taking place between a cook and a customer. They comment back and forth about a bag of gifts he gives her - crotchless edible underwear, etc. The waitresses comment "at least he doesn't show us his penis anymore". Honestly, what is the point in this disgusting show? I find it repulsive, and going far beyond the limits of what prime time t.v. should be. If my grandchildren would have been present, I would have been horribly embarrassed and sorry that they had seen something like this. Is there no decency anymore??? Does no one care what is being broadcast anymore? I am angry that this is allowed. It is for shock value, otherwise what would be the point of this? I want to hear back from someone.

Problem Description

This program appears to be a summer repeat. Here are some of the most obscene parts of the program:

Oleg (the cook): ?I save all my hot sauce for her (Sophie?s) breasts.?

(A few minutes later)

Max (on the need for tax filing help): ?Christ, what more do I have to do? Rouge-up my boobs and stand in a store-front window in Amsterdam??

(30 seconds later, big busted Sophie arrives)

Caroline (to Sophie): ?What about you and Oleg? He thinks you two are a couple.?

Sophie: ?A couple? Lord, this is crazy talk! Yes, we had some hot dirty sex in a few kitchens and toilets and on the floor of a sandwich shop in the subway plus twice we did it like dogs on the hallway stairs and on every smooth surface in my apartment. But, come on. That is it! I?m a lady.?

Caroline: ?Sophie, I can?t believe that I am about to say this but for Oleg it?s not just about sex. He feels for you. I know for a fact he is buying you a special gift. Tell her Max.?

Max(a girl):?He mentioned something about fur, and tonight when he was talking about you, he did use the word ?love.??

Sophie: ?Love? Don?t ruin my cupcake. This man has no future but he does have a ?giant penis?. But I worked hard to get where I am. I need a man with big dreams and a drive. And, I can buy a ?giant penis? on-line for $47.00.?

Max: ?Really? ?Add to Cart? (buy a giant penis.).?

Discussions of breasts in a sexual manner, the emotional mentioning of sex in various places (many unusual - toilets?), and several mentions of a "giant penis" including buying one on-line, show that this material is obscene because a) it exceeds any normal community standards, b)it appeals to the purient interest of young adults and any children watching and c) taken as a whole, the "2 Broke Girls" program has a history of frequent use of obscene language, sex terms, sex acts,sex organs and sex slang.

I ask the Commission to act against CBS and WBNS to protect the public, children and young adults from the scourge of harmful pictures and language being broadcast over the public airways.

Problem Description

I am generally disgusted by the vulgarity of today's sitcoms that is allowed to be broadcast on network TV. Some examples: "Two and a Half Men," "How I Met Your Mother," and ESPECIALLY "Two Broke Girls." The FCC should sit down and review the episodes of Two Broke Girls. This show has set a new low in using vulgar jokes in its content. FCC should fine the producers and cancel the show.

Problem Description

The two CBS network programs that are the subject of this complaint are "How I Met Your Mother" and "2 Broke Girls". These programs aired on WBNS, the CBS affiliate in Columbus, Ohio, between 8 and 9 PM on Monday, August 6 - each program was for 30 minutes. During the first program, "How I Met ...Mother", one of the program's stars, Neil Patrick Harris, talks to the girl next to him at a party about his penis. He tells her that his penis is a girl. She says she is uncomfortable with the conversation. Later in the program the suggestion is made that people should go to the zoo to see Walrus' masterbate. In the second program, "2 Broke Girls", one of the girls indicates at one point in the dialog that the other girl goes in the bathroom to masterbate. In talking to a male friend at work the 2 Girls comment about grabbing "the balls". I called the President of the local station, WBNS, to complain about these programs and their effect on children and young people. In dialoging with the station's management, they indicate the programs contents are controlled by CBS HQ and that they are not allowed to modify the obscene content. I urge the FCC to fine both CBS and WBNS for the use of obscene language during hours when families watch TV. Both of these programs were repeat episodes. This means that WBNS took no action to protect children and TV viewers from what they knew was obscene material. The fact should be given major weight during WBNS next request for a license renewal.

As a concerned parent and a offended adult, I would like to know how this program, that airs weekly, continues to run under your watch. I am completely repulsed at the jobs your organization is doing to insure this type of material doesn't hit the air. Week after week this program, right from the very first seconds of the show begins to talk about penis, dick, blowjobs, balls, sex, anal, sex with animals, drugs, drug dealers, and every other vial piece of garbage that rots this country to its core is played out on tv, and you people DO NOTHING to stop it. What is going on there? Is this the type of garbage you want your family to sit down to watch ? is this what your families are like ? I want an end put to this ASAP !!

This show is about as filthy as I have seen a show, particularly one at aired at 8 pm. One thing is play on words
 But "come inside you" "going down on brussel sprout" is blunt and better seen in pornos.. In prior shows they speak about vibrators and masterbation. I only watch this show with my wife as she enjoys this channels line up on this day. Mike and Molly is on at 9:30 and other than occasional pot references it is a fairly clean show but how is this on later? One day this show will be syndicated and be on at an earlier time and my kids will what this stuff.

I am not saying the show should be cancelled but just not on at 8 pm.

Blatant reference to oral sex: "I kissed her on her lips-oh, not those on her face". Indecent remarks regarding "my fake orgasims" conjuring up images of sexual intercourse.

This dialogue was obscene and indecent and perhaps appropriate in porn movies certainly not appropriate for a prime time TV show.

Please investigate and stop this type of material from being presented under the guise of "comedy".

I have always considered the program on the edge between acceptable and unacceptable content. But since Ashton Kutcher has joined the mix, they are really pushing the limits on sexual content! This is still considered "prime time" viewing where children could be watching! Granted, parents should not allow their children to watch such shows, however as parents we expect that type of content to be only on shows that are not during the "prime time" hours! It seems that all the "prime time" shows are pushing the sexual content envelope...Two Broke Girls, Mike and Molly, etc. The shows could be just as good without so much explicit sexual talk or innuendo! Whatever you can do about it would be greatly appreciated!

Problem Description

I am not a prude, but having a male character talking about having finger sex and hand sex with a female character is offensive to me at 8:30 in the evening on network television. It was not even a double entendre - the male character actually said, "I had hand sex with her", and then seconds later when asked to pinkie swear, another character said, "I don't know where that pinkie has been" and the first character said, "I just told you". Meaning that his pinkie was in a woman's vagina. Are you serious? This is okay? Last week on the same show, a thirteen year old boy, flirting and talking back rudely with a grown woman said, "Yeah, and how are you gonna talk with your mouth full?" meaning, with my penis in your mouth. No, I didn't misunderstand, that's exactly what was meant and if you see the show you will see that I am correct. Every week there are blatant sexual comments made during this show. Just because this guy also created Sex and the City, doesn't mean he should be allowed to put any disgusting stuff on TV that he feels like. Where is Standards and Practices during all this? This is an 8:30 show! It's not 10:00. It's not on cable. This is CBS - primetime. Why aren't you guys doing your job?

Problem Description

I am not a prude, but having a male character talking about having finger sex and hand sex with a female character is offensive to me at 8:30 in the evening on network television. It was not even a double entendre - the male character actually said, "I had hand sex with her", and then seconds later when asked to pinkie swear, another character said, "I don't know where that pinkie has been" and the first character said, "I just told you". Meaning that his pinkie was in a woman's vagina. Are you serious? This is okay? Last week on the same show, a thirteen year old boy, flirting and talking back rudely with a grown woman said, "Yeah, and how are you gonna talk with your mouth full?" meaning, with my penis in your mouth. No, I didn't misunderstand, that's exactly what was meant and if you see the show you will see that I am correct. Every week there are blatant sexual comments made during this show. Just because this guy also created Sex and the City, doesn't mean he should be allowed to put any disgusting stuff on TV that he feels like. Where is Standards and Practices during all this? This is an 8:30 show! It's not 10:00. It's not on cable. This is CBS - primetime. Why aren't you guys doing your job?

Problem Description

2 13 year old Barmitzva boys were making sexual remarks to one of the broke girls. They brought these characters in several times. Each time making these remarks and making a mockery of the religious program which was to be part of a Barmitzva. The main characters were told of another woman that was a relative of the boys and stole something from someone else's house and these people saw it stolen from a Jewish house. He felt that it showed Jews were thieves and can not be trusted. Could not stand this foul program and I switched the station, and have never experienced anything like this? This was on at prime time. It was disgusting and a miserable program and has no place in our society. This is for free over the air broadcast.

Problem Description

This programe had 2 young boys repetatively using profance language and making sexual references, gestures and inuendos that went way to far. From memory, the term "bitches", ta-ta's, asses, were used multiple times. Then the comment was made that one of the females that the little boy was talking to, would not be able to speak, making reference that his penis would be in her mouth. I consider myself to be a very liberal and tollerant person but this episode went way to far. It was offensive and degrading towards woman (I am a male) and I was embarrassed to be watching this with my wife and 10 year old son in the room at 8:30 at night. Surely this is not the new standard of what is allowed on television.

For the entire thirty minutes there was nothing but constant sexual innuendos!! about 2 minutes on "coming" . the cook meaning it in a sexual way and the woman saying about not coming to clean his house etc etc. then another example....saying I am going to staple your ball sack to the chair. and this just goes on and on. just a tad too much. I am not a prude but at 8:30 kids are up and getting ready for bed and inbetween are channel surfing etc. if they are going to have this put it on at 10p. and 2 1/2 men is absolutely worse since charlie sheen left if that is possible. because of what my 10 yr old grandson happen to hear on tv he asked his mom what does clitoris mean. come on people this is a bit much!!!! i also complained to cbs. I am the grandmother and my 4 grandchildren of my two girls are in busy working and ballgames households. and we cant be the only ones with this issue. It is out of control and running rampant without the feds able to monitor it all. but this is enough!!!!!!!!

The show had a line where one character was seeking a discount for a purchase and the second character said... I can't believe you are "shooing her down"... There is no inuendo or double meaning here except a play on a phrase which exemplifies ethnic bigotry.

I believe a word play involving antisemitic stereotypes is indecent and profane.

The show is also replete with sexual inuendo and vulgarity which goes beyond humor in my opinion. Examples relate to dropping ones pants in response to a conversation or employing artificial means for sexual satisfaction. It is one thing to be hip and quite another to employ salacious dialogue for ratings on a family channel during primetime.

Within a 1 minute span, the sexually charged, derogatory term "bitch" was used 4 times by two different characters during the prime time for family viewing in the central time zone. I have noticed a gradual increase in the use of heretofore forbidden words during prime time on the "major networks" which is very disheartening to me.

The airwaves come with a "public trust" to not propagate counter-cultural language, ideas, or lifestyles. It is YOUR responsibility to keep that trust and tell networks that if their producers and writers that if they wish to express themselves in counter-cultural ways to go to work with a cable channel that produces such programming and leave the major networks cleaner.

Problem Description

Oct 31st. I turned the TV on, channel 4's new show (2 Broke Girls) is being broadcast at 7:30 PM. During the minute that I watched it, I had heard the phrases: "What you need is to go out and get laid" and "You're sleeping on a bed that looks like a vagina". (My mouth is gaping open at this point and I'm shaking my head and wondering "how can this junk be broadcast, and who wants to hear these types of comments".

As I'm hearing this I'm wondering: "How has our society digressed to such a low level"?
 "Why is the FCC allowing this type of broadcasting at all, not to mention the fact that it is on during family viewing hour".

This unwholesome broadcasting can only poison young minds and lead to depravity and wickedness in my view. I am asking you to confirm this broadcast and remove this type of television show from the air waves, and fine the persons responsible.

Problem Description

Toward the end of the show, there is a Latin character who curses in Spanish at one of the main characters, and during this tirade, calls the main character a "puta".

This is totally unacceptable. A word not allowed in English is certainly NOT ok just because it's translated into Spanish. In fact, it's even more offensive as it stands out on an English show.

During the course of the show , there is a situation were there is a missing shirt from a basket and the comment is " may be the puertorican girl took it" I am from Puerto Rico and we are no thieves, it is wrong to label someone as thief just because of origin. The same girl "puertorican latina" is confronted by the main character of the show, and to do an insult they use the word "puta" which means a demeaning way to call a woman prostitute. There is many other word they can choose, but that one in specific is like cursing no different than an F or N words.

Then the guy says, "there's more salami where that came from." This is the second complaint I have sent the FCC about this show. I thought this kind of language wasn't allowed to air until after 10pm.

I was just flipping thru the reg tv stations and channel 11 was airing this show. The first words I heard were Bitch and 5 dollar Whole multiple times. The girls talked about orgasms, getting laid, drunk, ect. They said they could drink for free, b/c the short shorts were going to pay for the drinks. These Liberal and Progressive people in Holleywood need to stop pushing the limit with the American Conservative culture and placing this "Garbage" in front of our children. This show needs to be taken off the air ASAP and replaced with a "family" show that everyone can watch without fearing for the words that will come up next. We should not have to allow this trash to be on our tv! Looking at some articles on this show, the NYT said this was the Vagina month or season, what the hell is this suppose to mean. Start fining these people and get this filth out our homes. If they want to watch this garbage, by all means, take it home and watch it yourselves, in your own home. Our tax dollars pay your salaries and fees to regulate this trash, now regulate it. DO NOT TELL ME THIS IS FREEDOM OF SPEECH and the PRESS! This is filth and they are trying to change the culture of America which will backfire very soon. AMERICA did not ask to see any of this trash. Maybe it is time to bring back "Leave it to Beaver for this generation to watch!

Problem DescriptionTWO BROKE GIRLS

In this show there was talk of masturbation, and after seeing two girls in bed together(although innocent) had sexual implications when a male figure entered the room and made reference to having a threesome.

The next show on this same channel and network was...Two and A Half Men

This show also talked about masturbation, a male having a threesome with two women and also showed two males who had fallen asleep in the same chair together and how one of them had an erection that should be ignored by the other male character. This show also had the mother figure talking about how she was going to have wild loud sex with a stranger that night . The American viewers were even able to hear her cries of pleasure threw out the show.

The next show on this same channel and network was MIKE AND MOLLY

This show ONCE AGAIN tales about masturbation, and as a real disgusting treat showed Molly during her yoga/ exercise class with her instructor positioned behind her in SEVERAL sexual poses.

I am a middle aged woman (50 years old to be exact) and not ancient by any means. I know that the world is changing and that more things are being allowed on television , but I find the content of the 3 shows I watched this evening disgusting, inappropriate and disturbing !!!!! I am VERY surprised that the FCC allows garbage such as this to be allowed. It makes me wonderWhat's Next ???? How is it possible for this stuff to be allowed ????

This is the way I feel and I must say that I am highly disappointed that things such as this are allowed these days. I have included my phone number so feel free to contact me if you wish...

I've been offended for awhile now that such profane language such as "damn," "son of a bitch," and "bastard," is used regularly on broadcast TV. It reached a new low tonight when I heard "masturbate" used on three CBS comedies tonight. It was as if it was the theme of the evening. And it was in prime time. Why is there no censoring or monitoring of profane language?

I will submit a separate complaint for each show. They are:

2 Broke Girls

Two and a Half Men

Mike and Molly

This program included a scend in which a simulated sex act was going on in the back room of a diner. You could see the girl's legs moving in the air from the simulated sex, accompanied by screams of pleasure. Furthermore, there were many jokes related to semen stains in the show. This is obscene and I am thankful my children were not watching the show.

Problem Description

I thought both of these shows (Two and a Half Men, and 2 Broke Girls) were vulgar and coarse and not appropriate for broadcast TV. I only watched a few minutes of each one (broadcast 09-19-2011) before I was turned off and changed the channel. Two and a Half Men had a reference to masturbation by Jon Cryer and then Ashton Cutcher running around naked (with pixilated sections). 2 Broke Girls had jokes about "boobs" and "vagina" within like the first 5 minutes of the show. These shows are disgusting and just go to show how low the quality of TV has become. How come classic shows like the "Bob Newhart Show" or "Mary Tyler Moore" could be funny without being vulgar. I hope you censure these vulgar programs. Thank you.

CBS's new show "2 Broke Girls" (which premiered last night) is too sexually-oriented and explicit for primetime broadcast TV. The near-nude scenes and the sexually-oriented words/phrases/jokes make it a better candidate for late night TV or cable. I don't understand why there aren't rules on this for shows in primetime.

WIBW chose to preempt the normal CBS programming for a college ball game, and aired that programming starting just after 12:30 am, running, supposedly, through 3:30 am. On all five programs (How I Met Your Mother, Partners, Two Broke Girls, Mike & Molly, and Hawaii Five-o), they did NOT include any closed captioning. They had captioning on every program prior to those, and on the programs after those, but not on those broadcasts. This is, I believe, a direct violation (times five) of the Telecommunications Act of 1996, that requires closed captioning on all new programming. I have recorded these programs, save the last of Hawaii Five-o (since WIBW also chose to cut off the last of that program, ending it at around forty-seven minutes, and not broadcasting either the ending or the titles), and would be happy to provide a copy of the DVD upon which I was recording the shows for other family members to watch tomorrow, since they were aired so late at night.

95 % of what we watch is on CBS. We are charged more without warning for all kinds of things, but never given an opportunity to say we'd pay more to keep our favorite shows available. Adding insult to injury cannot get comparably priced competitor to serve our home, as Time Warner Cable has rights to serve our entire block according to ATT representative, who told us ATT is not allowed to provide us cable, only Time Warner Cable may.

Entertainment and News
I enjoy shows provided by CBS. Since 8-9-13 have had no access to the shows we watch: CBS Evening News, CBS Local News, 60 Minutes, Sunday Morning, NCIS, NCIS-Los Angeles, Person of Interest, Two Broke Girls and Blue Bloods. TWC is involved in a dispute with CBS. Instead of giving consumers a chance to pay more and keep CBS, TWC shut off CBS programming 8-9-13. My TWC bill often has higher prices. Tried to replace TWC with ATT, which offers comparably affordable cable without a big dish of potential liability, but ATT says they are not allowed to provide anyone on my block with cable service, only TWC may serve us. Want FCC to scold TWC for horrible customer service, open my block to be able to get cable from AT&T, & make TWC not charge consumers for the time TWC made CBS unavailable. In these tough times a little recreation with favorite shows does much to soothe me. TWC will still want their payment, & I am not getting what I pay for with them since 8-9-13. Thank you.

Complaint Summary

This was within the first few minutes of the airing of the program...The main actress/character, Sam I believe is her name, was walking by a table and the customer asked for some side dish and they didn't know where there waitress was. So Sam said, "I think she's on a break...I'll get it." Sam walks into the walk-in freezer, and as the freezer wall and shelves are banging back and forth (this other waitress is having sex on the floor with someone) the other waitress hands Sam what she needs. That's not the part I'm complaining about! Sam goes back out and hands the food to the customer and another customer asks where their waitress is. At this point you hear moaning and screaming from the kitchen area, and Sam says "Oh, she's coming!" Is this really necessary? I should have expected this coming from the directors of Two and a Half Men (which my husband and I quit watching due to the trash). I feel this is soft porn. No wonder our country is in the condition it is in when shows like this are on the air. Thank you for your time. [REDACTED]

Complaint Summary

In the opening 5 minutes of the broadcast one of the stars made the comment "dry vagina" and then immediately proceeds to another room on the set where a waitress is having sex. When the star returns to the front room she made the comment that the other girl was "coming" followed by the groans being heard by the girl who is supposedly having sex. On a personal note I enjoy comedy, and I was thrilled with the line of comedy shows that were new to the fall season. Every show I tuned into had a some sort of sexual overtone. I am really disturbed by what I am seeing on national television. I tolerated it enough when it was on cable due to the fact that I chose to purchase cable. I simply refused to watch these type of shows but now public television is riddled with sexual overtones and inappropriate material for children. I am asking that the FCC do their job and remove these types of television shows from our public broadcasting systems. I have served my country with honor and am proud to say that I am an American, but when we continuously allow these type of shows to air I am rather embarrassed and ashamed of us as a country. Please do something about this. My next step is to my local congressman. I refuse to simply let this be my only complaint. Respectfully, [REDACTED]

I am watching t.v with my family (not past 9 yet) and within the first 2 mins of watching I hear a waitress tell her male customers that they cause her to have vaginal dryness & then hear/see another waitress getting "banged" in the stockroom only to hear her orgasm & the other waitress state she is coming! SERIOUSLY! Does ANYONE read the scripts anymore? DEAR GOD, this is completely UNACCEPTABLE! I will NOT ever watch CBS nor will my children!

Complaint Summary

This program included a scend in which a simulated sex act was going on in the back room of a diner. You could see the girl's legs moving in the air from the simulated sex, accompanied by screams of pleasure. Furthermore, there were many jokes related to semen stains in the show. This is obscene and I am thankful my children were not watching the show.

Complaint Summary

I've been offended for awhile now that such profane language such as "damn," "son of a bitch," and "bastard," is used regularly on broadcast TV. It reached a new low tonight when I heard "masturbate" used on three CBS comedies tonight. It was as if it was the theme of the evening. And it was in prime time. Why is there no censoring or monitoring of profane language? I will submit a separate complaint for each show. They are: 2 Broke Girls Two and a Half Men Mike and Molly

Complaint Summary

The entire 2 Broke Girls show was vulgar and profane, and I do not believe appropriate for prime time. I encourage you to watch the entire segment, as well as previous episodes. Strong sexual emphasis and explicit language is some of the worst ever in this time slot. I have never filed a previous complaint, but this one is just too much for 7:30 p.m. on a weeknight. Thank you. [REDACTED]

This program is indecent. They said vagina at least 8 times during the show. This type of language should not be on Prime Time TV. My kids and Grandkids are still awake. they also say penis and last week referred to 9 inches not being enough. This type of language should not be permitted. It is not funny at all. Please make them keep this language off the air. Sincerely, [REDACTED]

Complaint Summary

COMPLAINT FOR [REDACTED]

The show had a line where one character was seeking a discount for a purchase and the second character said... I can't believe you are "shooing her down"... There is no inuendo or double meaning here except a play on a phrase which exemplifies ethnic bigotry. I believe a word play involving antisemitic stereotypes is indecent and profane. The show is also replete with sexual inuendo and vulgarity which goes beyond humor in my opinion. Examples relate to dropping ones pants in response to a conversation or employing artificial means for sexual satisfaction. It is one thing to be hip and quite another to employ salacious dialogue for ratings on a family channel during primetime.

Complaint Summary

COMPLAINT FOR [REDACTED]

Oct 31 st. I turned the TV on, channel 4's new show (2 Broke Girls)is being broadcast at 7:30 PM. During the minute that I watched it, I had heard the phrases: "What you need is to go out and get laid" and "You're sleeping on a bed that looks like a vagina". (My mouth is gaping open at this point and I'm shaking my head and wondering "how can this junk be broadcast, and who wants to hear these types of comments". As I'm hearing this I'm wondering: "How has our society digressed to such a low level"? "Why is the FCC allowing this type of broadcasting at all, not to mention the fact that it is on during family viewing hour". This unwholesome broadcasting can only poison young minds and lead to depravity and wickedness in my view. I am asking you to confirm this broadcast and remove this type of television show from the air waves, and fine the persons responsible.

Complaint Summary

While watching Broke Girls, 2 and a Half Men and countless other new programs, the language is getting harsher and harsher. I am not a prude by any means, but I thought there was a code of conduct established for TV, other than pay cable stations. Vagina, balls, penis, and I could go on and on are not words that should be used while children "could" be watching. It seems like the new shows are really pushing the limit this new season and I see nothing or no-one saying anything about it. Is there anything that can be done about this or is the FCC unable or unwilling to handle this?

Complaint Summary

COMPLAINT FOR [REDACTED]

Within a 1 minute span, the sexually charged, derogatory term "bitch" was used 4 times by two different characters during the prime time for family viewing in the central time zone. I have noticed a gradual increase in the use of heretofore forbidden words during prime time on the "major networks", which is very disheartening to me. The airwaves come with a "public trust" to not propagate counter-cultural language, ideas, or lifestyles. It is YOUR responsibility to keep that trust and tell networks that if their producers and writers that if they wish to express themselves in counter-cultural ways to go to work with a cable channel that produces such programming and leave the major networks cleaner.

Complaint Summary

CBS's new show "2 Broke Girls" (which premiered last night) is too sexually-oriented and explicit for primetime broadcast TV. The near-nude scenes and the sexually-oriented words/phrases/jokes make it a better candidate for late night TV or cable. I don't understand why there aren't rules on this for shows in primetime.

COMPLAINT FOR [REDACTED]

This programme had 2 young boys repetatively using profance language and making sexual references. gestures and inuendos that went way to far From memory, the term "bitches", ta-ta's, asses, were used multiple times. Then the comment was made that one of the females that the little boy was talking to, would not be able to speak, making reference that his penis would be in her mouth. I consider myself to be a very liberal and tollerant person but this episode went way to far. It was offensive and degrading towards woman (I am a male) and I was embarrassed to be watching this with my wife and 10 year old son in the room at 8 30 at night. Surely this is not the new standard of what is allowed on television.

Complaint Summary

COMPLAINT FOR [REDACTED]

The episode that aired tonight included sexual content, including minors. Two 13 year- old-boys were making sexual statements to adult women, encouraging them to perform sexual acts. Although the comments were not blatant, one such comment inferred one of the adult women would not be able to talk because her "mouth would be full", suggesting a sexual act be performed on the young teen (underage) male. The two boys repeatedly called them "bitches", and threw money around asking the two lead actresses to undress. At the end of the show, instead of telling the parents about the boys behavior, the two adult actresses lied about what happened. It's bad enough that evening content has comments such as this between adult actors however, using early teen males to be portrayed in a very sexual nature such as this on television is over the limit and should be investigated.

Complaint Summary

COMPLAINT FOR [REDACTED]

2 13 year old Barmitzva boys were making sexual remarks to one of the broke girls. They brought these characters in several times Each time making these remarks and making a mockery of the religious program which was to be part of a Barmitzva. The main characters were told of another woman that was a relative of the boys and stole something from someone else's house and these people saw it stolen from a Jewish house. He felt that it showed Jews were thieves and can not be trusted. Could not stand this foul program and I switched the station, and have never experienced anything like this? This was on at prime time. It was disgusting and a miserable program and has no place in our society. This is for free over the air broadcast.

Complaint Summary

I am not a prude, but having a male character talking about having finger sex and hand sex with a female character is offensive to me at 8:30 in the evening on network television. It was not even a double entendre - the male character actually said, "I had hand sex with her", and then seconds later when asked to pinkie swear, another character said, "I don't know where that pinkie has been" and the first character said, "I just told you". Meaning that his pinkie was in a woman's vagina. Are you senous? This is okay? Last week on the same show, a thirteen year old boy, flirting and talking back rudely with a grown woman said, "Yeah, and how are you gonna talk with your mouth full?" meaning, with my penis in your mouth. No, I didn't misunderstand, that's exactly what was meant and if you see the show you will see that I am correct. Every week there are blatent sexual comments made during this show. Just because this guy also created Sex and the City, doesn't mean he should be allowed to put any disgusting stuff on TV that he feels like. Where is Standards and Practices during all this? This is an 8:30 show! It's not 10:00. It's not on cable. This is CBS - primetime. Why aren't you guys doing your job?

Complaint Summary

i have watched this program several times, mostly fascinated by the amount of obscene material used now on network programming during times when children may be awake. i'm not a prude, but the 'jokes' consist of a set up followed by an obscene return which frankly i would be too embarrassed to recite and will leave to others a truly disturbing trend that has been allowed to saturate our culture. i can't believe that the fcc which continually threatened howard stern over program content allows this sort of programming to thrive without similar consequences. thank you for allowing me to contribute my opinion.

Complaint Summary

Blatant reference to oral sex: "I kissed her on her lips-oh, not those on her face". Indecent remarks regarding "my fake orgasms" conjuring up images of sexual intercourse. This dialogue was obscene and indecent and perhaps appropriate in porn movies certainly not appropriate for a prime time TV show. Please investigate and stop this type of material from being presented under the guise of "comedy".

I ALSO THINK THIS TYPE OF MATERIAL IS BEST NOT BROADCAST AT ALL BUT THAT IS UNREALISTIC. THEREFORE THE BROADCAST SHOULD BE ON CABLE TV OR SATALITE AND NOT ON NON-SUBSCRIBED BASIC TV . Complaint Summary

This program appears to be a summer repeat. Here are some of the most obscene parts of the program: Oleg (the cook): ?I save all my hot sauce for her (Sophie?s) breasts. ? (A few minutes later) Max (on the need for tax filing help): ?Chnst, what more do I have to do? Rouge-up my boobs and stand in a store-front window in Amsterdam?? (30 seconds later, big busted Sophie arrives) Caroline (to Sophie): ?What about you and Oleg? He thinks you two are a couple.? Sophie: ?A couple? Lord, this is crazy talk! Yes, we had some hot dirty sex in a few kitchens and toilets and on the floor of a sandwich shop in the subway plus twice we did it like dogs on the hallway stairs and on every smooth surface in my apartment. But, come on. That is it! I?m a lady.? Caroline: ?Sophie, I can?t believe that I am about to say this but for Oleg it?s not just about sex. He feels for you. I know for a fact he is buying you a special gift. Tell her Max.? Max(a girl): ?He mentioned something about fur, and tonight when he was talking about you, he did use the word ?love.?? Sophie: ?Love? Don?t ruin my cupcake. This man has no future but he does have a ?giant penis?. But I worked hard to get where I am. I need a man with big dreams and a drive. And, I can buy a ?giant penis? on-line for $47.00.? Max: ?Really? ?Add to Cart? (buy a grant penis).? Discussions of breasts in a sexual manner, the emotional mentioning of sex in various places (many unusual - toilets?), and several mentions of a "giant penis" including buying one on-line, show that this material is obscene because a) it exceeds any normal community standards, b) it appeals to the prurient interest of young adults and any children watching and c) taken as a whole, the "2 Broke Girls" program has a history of frequent use of obscene language, sex terms, sex acts, sex organs and sex slang. I ask the Commission to act against CBS and WBNS to protect the public, children and young adults from the scourge of harmful pictures and language being broadcast over the public airways.

Complaint Summary

COMPLAINT FOR [REDACTED]

I am getting very annoyed at the continuous sexual innuendos on this show. at almost 2-3 per minute, it is really getting hard to watch this program. On tonight's episode (Nov. 19, 12) just a few examples ... ANAL SEX (used twice), manipulating young boys, touching my almond joy, always looking for an excuse to put it somewhere - why do think we don't serve bagels anymore, he might be into me but he doesn't seem to want to "GET INTO" me, okay but there seems to be plenty of wood right here, you saw how turned on he was - he was practically raising a barn in his pants. That was just the first 10-12 minutes of the show. I won't let my teens watch this show and neither will I. Thanks [REDACTED]

Complaint Summary

This program, which has a history of airing obscene and indecent language on the public airwaves in the early evening hours, has several parts of this show that are objectionable. But this FCC complaint focuses on a 3 minute time period near the end of this 9 PM program when the show engaged in dialog and supporting visual effects on female masturbation. Male masturbation was also discussed in the same segment. Here is some of the troubling dialog and visual effects, and also the setting: Max (a female) and Andy have returned to Max and Caroline's apartment. When they get there, Caroline appears to be missing. A few seconds later, Max tells Andy she has to go to the bathroom. Max opens the bathroom door to find Caroline with her legs up on opposite sides of the bathtub (the rest of her body is hidden). The dialog? Caroline: What are you doing? Knock first!! Max: Why are your legs up in the air like that? And why are you holding the shower head down? (Scream) Oh, ho!! Max closes the door, and says ?I am sorry. I thought you were feeling bad for your self. not feeling your ?bad self?. A few seconds later, Caroline leaves the bathroom in a bath robe and addresses Max face-to-face. Caroline: What are you doing home already? Why aren't you at ?Candy Andy?s? party? Oh, don?t look at me like that ? it is not like I'm the only person in the world who masturbates. Max: Also, Andy is here ! Andy: We wanted to surprise you ! Max: Then you surprised us! (a little later in the show Max and Caroline are back at their restaurant) Andy comes into the restaurant looking for Caroline. Caroline: Oh no, I don?t want to see him again. Max: He has already seen you at your worst. You vomited and masturbated. That is your full range ! Andy: Hi, Look I know you are really embarrassed about everything. So, there is really nothing I can say to convince you not to be. So, (Andy takes off his out garments leaving a short top and shorts) - who is embarrassed now? To further my embarrassment, I will do gymnastics (he does a back flip landing straight up). Caroline: That is not embarrassing. It was amazing. Andy: All right. Well then, come back to my house and watch me masturbate! - Or we could just get coffee! (shortly after this the episode ends) The above dialog and the associated visual support clearly demonstrates that this program, which was broadcast over the public airways from 9-9:30 PM, is obscene. CBS knows from public norms and previous public complaints that this material is offensive to the general public. Yet it persists in these programs which are harmful to young adults and children apparently in order to increase its audience and its revenues. It is time for the Commission to act to stop CBS's arrogant violation of the law and its on-going public harm. The public airways were not created so that networks can use them to significantly harm American families.

Complaint Summary

COMPLAINT FOR [REDACTED]

I do not watch much of CBS programs because of the constant sexual innuendo & language and can't understand why the government over site is so loose on what can be seen and said on regular TV. This episode came on and before I could change it and within the first few minutes the discussion between the two girls was about a date. In the discussion the poorer of the girls stated that the formally rich girl was wearing a sweater that would be difficult for her date to take off in the taxi. The rich girl responded with, I only know how to date rich people so I don't know what's expected on a first date being poor, to which the poor girl responded, anal. Again, CBS is so blatant about showing inappropriate things on TV and again, why has the government been so lax in allowing this?

Complaint Summary

During the broadcast of "2 broke girls" on CBS, the female character, Max, says two offensive things: "That woman keeps pushing my head down. I feel like I'm on a date with her" and she also says to a male character, "Typical, shoot on my chest and you're done with me". Both of these are references to graphic sexual acts. Forced fellatio and ejaculation on a woman's breasts are not prime time material. The entire episode was graphic with references not only to the above material, but also group sex, rape, and other questionable topics for broadcast TV

Complaint Summary

The '2 broke girls' were in a scene looking for a lost earring. They were smashing up cupcakes and began calling each other BITCH. One girl used the word "Bitch" as an insult to the other girl at the end of a sentence. So, in reply, the other girl replied "YOU BITCH!" My 3 year old stopped what he was doing to watch because he's not heard that word before. I turned off the TV. Since when is it okay to use the word BITCH on TV during prime time?

Complaint Summary

The show made frequent references to "girl on girl porn." phrased exactly like that, and a photography joked to a girl to bend over and arch her back. I would not expect to find references to this on a primetime tv show. Cable would be different, but not CBS. It is indecent because children are still awake at 8pm. I do not want mine hearing the word "porn" in a tv show, much less a specific type of porn. It is indecent.
