

AUSTRALIAN PEACE

SUNDAY, APRIL 16, 1950, 2.30 p.m. EXHIBITION BUILDINGS.

OPENING RALLY OF THE AUSTRALIAN PEACE CONGRESS.

Chairman: Rev. A. M. Dickie (Chairman, Australian Peace Council).

Canon F. E. Maynard will declare open the Congress.

Speakers: Very Rev. Dr. Hewlett Johnson, Dean of Canterbury.

Mr. F. Stover, Vice-Chairman of the National Progressive Party of the U.S.A.
Professor J. Fletcher of the Episcopal Theological College, Cambridge, U.S.A.

Senator W. Morrow (Tasmania).

Mr. M. O'Brien (A.C.T.U. Interstate Executive).

Mr. J. Healy (Gen. Sec., Waterside Workers' Federation).

Miss Katharine Susannah Prichard (author).

Mr. Frank Dalby Davison (author).

Mr. Arthur Locke (Chinese Seamen's Union).

Mrs. Jessie Street (former Australian delegate to United Nations).

Mrs. Eleanor Dark (author).

Mr. D. Eaton (Sec., Queensland Legion of Ex-Servicemen).

Mr. D. Stevens (Newport Railway Workshops).

Mr. N. Rothfield (President, Melbourne Jewish Council).

Mr. W. Onus (Australian Aboriginal League).

Rev. F. J. Hartley (Joint Sec., Australian Peace Council).

Songs by Morris Williams.

Overseas Greetings.

Children's Dances.

MONDAY, APRIL 17, 1950, 10 a.m. Assembly Hall, Collins St.

First Session: "A Programme for Peace."

Business: 1. Election of Congress committees.

2. Presentation and discussion of a resolution on the policy of the Australian Peace Council.

The Dean of Canterbury will speak during this session.

MONDAY, APRIL 17, 1950, 8 p.m. Halls as announced.

Commissions of the Congress will meet to discuss the problems of particular sections of the community in the struggle for peace.

TRADE UNION AND FACTORY DELEGATES' COMMISSION:

North Melbourne Town Hall. Cars will run from the North Melbourne station to the hall. All trade unionists are invited.

MINISTERS OF RELIGION AND CHURCH PEOPLE'S COMMISSION

Club Room, 1st Floor, Independent Church Hall, Collins St.

CONGRESS PROGRAMME

MONDAY, APRIL 17, 1950, 8 p.m. (Continued).

WOMEN'S COMMISSION.

Australian Church Hall, 19 Russell St.

YOUTH COMMISSION.

New Theatre, 92 Flinders St.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 1950, 10 a.m. Assembly Hall, Collins St.

Second Session: "Disarmament and the Atom Bomb."

Business: Presentation and discussion of a resolution.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 1950, 2 p.m. Assembly Hall, Collins St.

Third Session: "Australia in the Pacific."

Business: Presentation and discussion of a resolution.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 1950, 8 p.m. Lower Melbourne Town Hall.

SPECIAL WRITERS' AND READERS' CONFERENCE ON PEACE.

Leading Australian writers, including Alan Marshall, Eleanor Dark, Katharine Susannah Prichard, Frank Dalby Davison, Leonard Mann and John S. Manifold will read from their works and discuss the problems of the writer and peace. The public are invited to take part in the discussion.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 19, 1950, 9.30 a.m. Assembly Hall, Collins St.

Fourth Session: Business:

1. Presentation of reports from Commissions.
2. Election of permanent Australian Peace Council.
3. Declaration of Australian Peace Ballot.
4. Appointment of deputation to wait on Federal Government.
5. Adoption of policy of Australian Peace Council.
6. Closing of the Congress.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 19, 1950, 8 p.m. Exhibition Buildings.

CLOSING PUBLIC RALLY OF AUSTRALIAN PEACE CONGRESS

The Dean of Canterbury and other overseas visitors will speak at greater length on the world struggle for peace.

The decisions of the Congress will be submitted for public endorsement.

Paul Robeson's recorded message to the Congress, and other special features, will be presented.