

Classes will Commence
Punctually at 8 p.m., and Regular Attendance is Indispensable

VICTORIAN LABOR COLLEGE
President: W. J. DUGGAN.
Secretary: E. HART,
Box 39, Trades Hall, Melbourne.

VICTORIAN LABOR COLLEGE
BOOKSTALL.

Main Entrance, Trades Hall.

Buy your Books from your own
Bookstall. Full Stocks of Books
Workers Should Read.

Technical Books may also be procured.

Labor Call Print, Patrick-st., Melbourne.

Victorian Labor College

Controlled by Affiliated Trade Unions
Trades Hall, Melbourne.

The aim of the Labor College is to turn out Class-conscious Workers, and thus enable them to play a more intelligent part in the Class Struggle.

SYLLABUS

The First Term for 1927 Commences on 21st FEBRUARY

COURSES OPEN.

Monday, Feb. 21—Social Theory.
Tuesday, Feb. 22—Industrial History.
Wednesday, Feb. 23—Economics.

All Classes are held at Room 58,
Trades Hall, Melbourne, at 8 o'clock.

Winter Lectures are to be arranged.

Victorian Labor College Collection

FROM AN ORIGINAL IN THE
UNIVERSITY OF MELBOURNE ARCHIVES
NOT TO BE REPRODUCED WITHOUT PERMISSION

19 27

Social Theory Course

Twelve Lectures.

MONDAY EVENINGS at 8 p.m.

Class Leader: F. STEVENS.

Outlining the subjects necessary to a clear understanding of Working Class problems.

The main points dealt with are as under:—

Political Theories as matters of opinion.

Class Bias in the solution of Social Problems.

Correct Thinking essential to an understanding of Social matters.

History as the foundation of the modern Working Class viewpoint.

Changes in—

- (a) Form of Society;
- (b) Method of Production;
- (c) Method of Thinking.

What these changes mean.

History as a natural process.

Economics Course

Fourteen Lectures.

WEDNESDAY EVENINGS, at 8 p.m.

Class Leader: G. BARACCHI.

This Course aims to equip workers with an elementary knowledge of the real foundations of Capitalist society, a knowledge on which they may base their struggle to end Capitalism. It is likewise intended to serve as a guide to further independent study, and will range over the following ground:—

1. The Place of Economics in Social Science.
2. Pre-Capitalist Economic Systems.
3. Simple Production of Commodities. (Value—Money and Price—Fetichism of Commodities.)
4. Capitalist Production. (Capital and Surplus-Value—Labor-Power and Wages—The Working Day—Co-operation and Division of Labor—Machinery and Modern Industry—Accumulation of Capital and Relative Surplus-Population.)
5. Division of the Surplus-Value. (Profit and Average Profit—Interest—Rent—Taxation.)
6. Crises.
7. Imperialism as the Last Stage of Capitalism. (Monopoly and Finance Capital.)
8. Socialist Economy.

Classes will commence punctually at 8 p.m., and regular attendance is indispensable.

Industrial History Course

Fourteen Lectures.

TUESDAY EVENINGS at 8 p.m.

Class Leader: E. G. HART.

This Course seeks to explain by what means Capitalism has grown to its present condition, and show the interplay of the forces now operating in modern society.

1. The Economic System as it is.
2. Before Modern Capitalism—
  - (a) Village Economy.
  - (b) Town Economy.
3. The Rise of Modern Capitalism.
4. The Industrial Revolution.
5. The Effect on the Workers.
6. Organising in Trade Unions.
7. Australia a Century Ago.
8. Capitalism Full Grown.
9. Competition and Combination.
10. Australian Industrial Problems.
11. Industrial Unrest.
12. The Development of Social Classes.
13. Discussion Night.

Students are requested to attend Punctually and Regularly.