

“Modern as the minute after midnight”

Oldest Family Business in the ACT Region

IN May this year, Len Mutton & Co was awarded by Family Business Australia as the Oldest Family Business in the ACT Region “in recognition of your contribution to the ACT region’s economy, community and culture since 1913.”

The awards were presented by ACT Deputy Opposition Leader Brendan Smyth who congratulated Canberra’s ten oldest family businesses.

The other family businesses recognised in the region were Cusacks Trading, C.C

Jeffrey Ltd Tharwa, General Store, Frawleys Shoes, R&R Fabric Care, McGlades Jewellers, Corkhill Bros, Canberra Recycling, Bink Concrete and NDH Property.

“Having worked in a family business myself, I know firsthand the pressures placed on these businesses and I congratulate the businesses recognised today on their longevity,” Mr Smyth said today.

“It’s important to take the time to reflect on how these important local businesses have evolved and stood the test of time, some of which have been around for over 90 years.

“All of the businesses recognised today have made an immense contribution to the economic, social and cultural fabric of Canberra and I commend their hard work,” Mr Smyth concluded.

Fiona said “As a fourth generation to be at the helm of Mutton’s I’m really chuffed to have had the business recognised throughout the region for its history.”

“in recognition of your contribution to the ACT region’s economy, community and culture since 1913.”
