

Imagine revolution

The last few years have seen workers and young people rise up around the world against austerity and inequality. Where do we go from here — how can we make lasting change?

Freedom Socialist Party National Convention

Los Angeles • May 24-27, 2014

KEY DISCUSSIONS

Featuring U.S. and international speakers

- Saving the planet and its inhabitants: what road to success?
- Winning justice for immigrants
- An awakened labor movement
- Revolutionaries join forces across borders
- Students of color and public education

Registration

$20 daily; $10 for students and strikers.

Meeting site:

AFSCME District Council 36,
514 Shatto Pl, Los Angeles,
CA 90020

Saturday, Sunday, and Monday sessions are open to the public.

WORKSHOPS

- Socialist feminism: theory and practice
- Race, gender, and sexuality: a class approach
- How would socialism work?
- The art of revolution
- Marx on economy and ecology
- How to stand up in your union
- Organizing to free Nestora Salgado
- Radicals and electoral politics

For more info,

contact the U.S. National Office at 206-985-4621 or fspnat@igc.org.

Llame con anticipación para arreglar traducción al español.

Register online at www.socialism.com or see below to contact an FSP Organizer near you.

- Los Angeles: 323-732-6416. fspla@earthlink.net
- New York City: 212-222-0633. fsp@nyct.net
- Portland, Ore.: 503-240-4462. fsp@igc.org
- San Francisco: 415-864-1278. bafsp@earthlink.net
- Seattle: 206-722-2453. FSPseattle@mindspring.com

