Budget to cater for growth

WODONGA Mayor Cr. Mark Byatt has indicated that the 2011-2012 Wodonga Draft Budget will assist in supporting the future growth of Wodonga.

The draft budget proposes a rate increase of 7 per cent, which the council had outlined in the Strategic Resource Plan adopted last year.

Cr Byatt said the budget has been developed while striving to keep a balance between providing services for our community, planning for the ongoing growth of Wodonga and managing the finances.

"We are in the middle of a challenging time as we have two major capital projects - the aquatic centre and arts, community and entertainment centre - which we need to deliver," he said.

"These projects have a significant impact on the overall budget for 2011-2012, as well as future and past budgets this council has delivered.

"Our operating budget continues to be lean and we need to ensure our costs are always closely monitored and we are financially prudent."

Cr Byatt said while new borrowings would be needed in 2011-2012 for the two projects, debt minimisation remains a key priority.

"Wodonga continues to enjoy strong growth levels with record development applications achieved in recent times and while this increases our rate base, it also increases the size of the city, placing pressure on infrastructure, parks and gardens and other service costs," he said.

"We also face arguably the biggest change in the city's history with a new and revitalised CBD development planned following the removal of the railway line.

"In these exciting times which will benefit our city, this council believes that this is a budget that is both prudent and realistic and I would urge residents to carefully review the budget and take the opportunity to discuss their issues and comments with councillors."

The budget, Strategic Resource Plan and amended council plan, as well as a budget information kit, are available for viewing at the council offices, the Baranduda, Feltrimber and Belgrade community centres, the Wodonga Library and Wodonga Visitor Information Centre or from the council's website.

Copies of all documents are available on CD by request.
