

External services and support

There are a range of off-campus support services that may also assist you with your studies and participation in university life. These services include:

- Willing and Able Mentoring \(WAM\) Program
Making the transition from education to employment.
- Australian Vice-Chancellors' Committee Guidelines for Universities
Guidelines relating to students with disabilities.
- Centre of Excellence for Students who are Deaf and Hard of Hearing
Working with deaf and hard of hearing students and interpreters, and for information relating to Auslan Interpreting.
- Vision Australia
Vision Australia services.
- Opening All Options
Learning disability resources.
- National Information and Library Services \(NILS\)
Production of text in alternative formats.
- A Guide to the Disability Discrimination Act 1992
A brief outline of the Disability Discrimination Act.
- Choosing Your Path. Disclosure: It's a Personal Decision
Options and pathways that can be used in disclosing a disability in education and employment environments.
- Australian Disability Clearinghouse on Education and Training \(ADCET\)
Inclusive teaching, learning and assessment strategies, accommodations and support services for people with disabilities.
- Creating Accessible Teaching & Support \(CATS\)
Resources for teaching and supporting students with disabilities
- Inclusive Practice is Good Practice \(developed by UTAS\)
Practical strategies that can be readily applied in a variety of teaching environments.
- Project U
A career planning tool to assist high school students.

Disclaimer Note:

Victoria University gives no undertaking as to the availability or quality of the services provided by the organisations listed.