BUILD, MEMORY

by James Stewart Polshek

This illustrated odyssey begins in Japan in 1961. It represents a new genre of architectural literature by assimilating the events, personalities, and places essential to sixteen projects including the Clinton Library; Rose Center/Hayden Planetarium; and Santa Fe Opera. All convey the author's core belief that architecture is, at best, a healing art.

ISBN: 9781580933629 • Cloth, $60.00 • 528 pages • Professional Memoir/

Architecture & Design/Illustrations & Photographs
