

Jennifer de St Georges

Dental Practice management based on Common Sense & Logic!

Jennifer de St Georges has developed a strong global reputation for providing dentists and their teams bottom line and logical solutions to solving complex dental management issues.

Audiences love her content driven programs delivered in her fast-paced, humorous, and motivating style. Meeting planners appreciate her multiple programs, allowing them to mix, match and customize her programs for their group's specific needs. This flexibility allows Meetings to book her for multiple days and ongoing return visits.

Jenny places special focus on helping dentists and teams raise their level of oral and written communication with patients. Jenny supports all her programs with detailed workbooks. Attendees relish this take-home tool to plan and implement her program solutions. Through her company JdSG International Inc., Jenny provides telephone, webinar and self-paced management support programs.

A member of the National Speakers Association since 1983, Jenny is regularly booked by NSA and its affiliate global organizations, to educate career and emerging speakers, on raising their level of speaking careers to the next level. Born and raised in the UK, Jenny has been based in the San Francisco Bay area for many years. To book Jenny to speak, please visit www.jdsg.com, or call 800.393.2207.

Some facts about Jenny:

- Jenny has given over 1,000 programs on five continents
- Her expanding international meeting bookings include 8 FDI annual conventions
- Jenny's been featured at virtually every national, state & regional meeting in US
- Jenny customizes her programs for specialists, study clubs and private sponsors
- Jenny has over 350 published articles and commands a loyal following as an author