Plagiarism means using another person's intellectual output and presenting it (without appropriate acknowledgment of the author or source) as one's own. Plagiarism constitutes academic misconduct. Where there are reasonable grounds for believing that this has occurred, disciplinary procedures as outlined in the Academic Integrity and Preventing Plagiarism Policy and the Student Misconduct Procedure and Regulations will be instituted. These documents are available on the VU Policy Register.

PLEASE TICK TO INDICATE THAT YOU HAVE SATISFIED THESE REQUIREMENTS

- I have read the Academic Integrity and Preventing Plagiarism Policy, the Australian Guide to Legal Citation (3rd Edition) and associated referencing guides (or have had this explained to me by my lecturer) and understand the consequences of committing academic misconduct as outlined in the policy.
- This assignment is my own work, I have not participated in collusion, nor have I previously submitted this or a version of it for assessment in any other Unit of Study at the University or any other institution without having obtained the approval of the lecturer.
- I have taken proper and reasonable care to prevent this work from being copied by another student.
- So that the assessor can properly assess my work, I give this person permission to act according to University policy and practice to reproduce this work and provide a copy to another member of staff for the purpose of cross checking and moderation and to take steps to authenticate the assessment, including submitting a copy to a checking/detection system that in turn may retain a copy of this work on a database for future checking.
- I have carefully read the assessment criteria that will be used to evaluate my work as published on the Unit of Study's space on VU Collaborate.
- I will retain, for a period of no less than 12 months from the date of submission, a copy of this assignment and will furnish it to the University should it be required.

I certify that the statements I have attested to above have been made in good faith and are true and correct. I also certify that this is my work and that I have not plagiarised the work of others and not participated in collusion.
