Re: Request Number: ORACL-2016-00834

Date of Receipt: January 18, 2013

Subject of Request: US v. Swartz

Dear Mr. Leopold:

In response to your Freedom of Information Act and/or Privacy Act request, the paragraph(s) checked below apply:

1. [] A search for records located in EOUSA-_____ has revealed no responsive records regarding the above subject.
2. [] A search for records located in the United States Attorney's Office(s) for the District of Massachusetts has revealed no responsive records regarding the above subject.
3. [] After an extensive search, the records which you have requested cannot be located.
4. [] Your records have been destroyed pursuant to Department of Justice guidelines.
5. [] Please note that your original letter was split into separate files ("requests"), for processing purposes, based on the nature of what you sought. Each file was given a separate Request Number (listed below), for which you will receive a separate response:

This is the final action on this above-numbered request. If you are not satisfied with my response to your request, you may administratively appeal by writing to the Director, Office of Information Policy (OIP), United States Department of Justice, Suite 11050, 1425 New York Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20530-0001, or you may submit an appeal through OIP's eFOIA portal at <http://www.justice.gov/oip/efoia-portal.html>. Please note that OIP is in the process of transitioning from its current eFOIA portal to the portal on FOIAonline. Please visit the link above for instructions for submitting an appeal electronically. Your appeal must be postmarked or transmitted electronically within sixty (60) days from the date of this letter. If you submit your appeal by mail, both the letter and the envelope should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal." If you submit your appeal by mail, both the letter and the envelope should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal." If you are dissatisfied with the results of any such administrative appeal, judicial review may thereafter be available in U.S. District Court, 28 C.F.R. § 16.9.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Susan B. Gerson", with a stylized flourish at the end.

Susan B. Gerson
