

American Psychologist
Proposal for a Special Section or Special Issue

1. Title:
2. Editors: Please list in order that will be used for the issue/section. If there are multiple editors, indicate who will serve as the primary editor and maintain responsibility for coordinating the issue and communicating with the Editor-in-Chief and APA Publications. After a proposal is approved, an AP Associate Editor will be assigned as a participating editor of the package.

3. Brief (not to exceed one page) description of the proposed issue (please attach)

4. Content:
- | | | |
|------------------------|-------|----|
| Introduction | Yes | No |
| Number of Articles | _____ | |
| Number of Commentaries | _____ | |
| Concluding article | Yes | No |

Please note that papers should adhere to the standard page limits and Instructions to Authors.

5. Estimated total number of manuscript pages: _____

6. Please attach the call for papers. If an open call is not planned, please explain why.

7. Will specific individuals be invited to contribute articles?
Yes No

If yes, please attach a list of likely authors with topics. Please draft a sample letter of invitation. The letter should include language that indicates that the paper will be peer reviewed and that there is no guarantee of acceptance.

8. Timeline

Call is published, letters of invitations are sent out	_____
Manuscripts are due and distributed for review	_____
Editorial decision letters completed and sent to authors	_____
Manuscript revisions due	_____
Revisions reviewed and final revision requests sent to authors	_____
All manuscripts accepted and ready for publication	_____

9. Other considerations?