

On September 12, 2006, the SHAC 7 were sentenced to lengthy prison sentences for their part in a campaign to close down notorious animal testing lab Huntingdon Life Sciences. None of them were accused of committing any illegal acts; they were simply accused of involvement with a website and newsletter than reported on protest activity and provided information about the lab and its supporters. The SHAC 7 are appealing their unjust sentences, and they need your support. Please write them in prison, donate, get the word out, and keep fighting!
