

Australia Western Sahara Association presents

The Runner

Directed by Saeed Taji Farouky

An inspiring story that is now being shared with the world

The Runner is the story of world champion long-distance runner, Salah Hmatou Ameidan, and the journey that transformed him from an athlete into the symbol of a national liberation movement. He comes from Western Sahara, under Moroccan occupation since 1975. He is willing to risk his life, his career, his family and his nationality to run for the cause of a free Western Sahara.

"The Runner is an excellent and necessary way of telling the 'forgotten' story of Western Sahara."

John Pilger, journalist

"This is a very important project. The story of the Western Sahara is one of the great untold stories of the present time."

- Ken Loach, film director
