

Will You Walk Into My Parlor?

Prime Minister Bruce is asking the people of Australia to vote away the right to have any voice in deciding the standard of living in this country.

80 PER CENT. OF THE PEOPLE OF AUSTRALIA ARE WAGE-EARNERS.

Every matter vital to their welfare is now controlled by Parliaments elected directly by the people themselves. But if Mr. Bruce has his way

Government by the People will be Ended

The Federal and State Parliaments will, if the Referendum proposals are carried, be robbed of the power to legislate for the flesh and blood realities of life.

Political action will be limited to a point of utter uselessness. The chief legislative functions, so far as wage-earners are concerned, will be handed over to the Judicial Dictatorship of three reactionary Judges appointed for life. They will be entrusted with powers greater than the whole of the Australian Parliaments.

"If They were Angels" said Mr. W. A. Watt, M.H.R., "I should hesitate to repose in the three new jurists of the Arbitration Court the enormous powers which must be given under this extension of powers and the Judiciary Bill which the Government has introduced."

Without consulting Parliament, without any responsibility to the people whatever, this All-mighty Tribunal could, for a start,

Reduce Wages and Sweep Away the 44-Hour Week

"Will you walk into my Parlor?"
Said the Spider to the Fly,
"'Tis the prettiest little Parlor
That ever you did spy."

VOTE "NO"

THE SPIDER: "Everything is now ready for the Labor fly to come into the parlor."
