Local push: Castletown Fish and Chips has new trading hours.

Castletown Fish and Chips

DIANE WRIGHT has owned Castletown Fish and Chips for two years and is excited about her new trading hours. She runs the store with her three children and five other young local workers.

Diane was born and raised in Esperance along with her three children.

The family previously owned a Fish and Chip shop in Perth's Beechboro area and had that shop for three and a half years.

Diane is proud that all of her stock is purchased locally. "All of my stock is purchased locally, with fish being supplied by Esperance Fish Processors and the rest from SouthCoast wholesalers," she said.

"We have numerous specials to cater for couples or families, with our Seafood platter and Fisherman's Basket being the most popular."

The shop has recently changed out trading hours and now close on a Tuesday night, but opens for trading on Saturday and Sunday lunches from 11.30am to 1.30pm.

Castletown Fish and Chips is taking its annual break.

The business wishes to advise it will be closed for one week from June 4 and will re-open on June 11.

Castletown Fish and Chips apologises for any inconvenience.

Huge selection: Sumo Salad team members Ellen Kleemann, Lukas Waight, Tracey MacNish and Scott Waight enjoy the great working atmosphere.

Sumo Salad

Sumo Salad is the new kid on the block and is taking Esperance by storm.

The small healthy fast food come café is gearing up for winter and owner Scott Waight is expecting nothing short of brilliance from his "design your own" gourmet salad selection.

Sumo Salad has an amazing winter menu in full swing including Soups, warm wraps, risottos, curries, noodles and coffee.

"Our made to order wraps have been a real hit and we can't keep up with the delicious soups" Scott said.

"Our warm MTO (made to order) dishes, Thai Beef, Caesar Salad, Surf & Turf, etc have been very popular as a healthy evening meal"

With an ever-changing deli display, there is always something to tempt even the fussiest eaters.

Scott and his friendly staff urge you to come down and try Sumo Salads amazing healthy range of salads.
