

As a wine exporter the biggest barriers we faced were getting our wine labels approved in China. The first batch took nearly 9 months and a lot of pushing on the ground over there and a lot of the requirements for label approval were a little ridiculous eg use by date on wine etc also resubmitting labels for approval for a new vintage even though the wine is the same variety etc. By the time the labels are approved the vintage is out of date.

PHILLIP PAPANICOLAOU

EXPORT DIRECTOR

CARINDALE WINES

+61 2 49987665

<http://www.carindalewines.com.au>