Australia - China FTA
Herald Sun 23.4.2005

I like to know what is in it for poorer Australia? What is in it for rich China?

I thought Australia and China had already a free trade deal?

All our imports are mostly from China.
Go through "Myes" in Melbourne, and that is all I do "go through Myes".

Just about everything you pick up says
"Made in China"!

Now the Australian government wants to make it official by "signing" a FTA?
I am stumt. It is unbelievable.

Has Australia become that desperate to survive? My answer to the FTA is NO!
