Greetings,

May 2016

Welcome to the spring 2016 edition of the PARC Prisoner Resource Directory. This year, in response to your letters, we have added new education and re-entry resources, and have updated addresses for many of the listings. Thanks to the thousands of readers who have written letters of support and encouragement, and those who return our evaluation form, enabling us to get a better idea of the true readership of the directory and let us know which direction to take when adding new categories or information. Special thanks to those who pass on the directory to others—our resource directory is widely circulated in jails and prisons with each copy viewed by an average of 15 or more persons.

Several of the organizations listed in this directory no longer respond to individual prisoner letters, but are still listed for informational purposes or have resources that friends or family may download through the Internet and mail into the prisoner (e.g., the National Prison Project, as detailed on page 2). These groups are noted in the directory.

This past year has seen many successes for prisoners' rights. The death penalty is losing support nationwide. In the last year, Nebraska abolished its use, and four states have stopped killings indefinitely under governors' orders. The movement for voting rights for convicted individuals is gaining steam; most recently, Virginia restored voting rights to people once they have completed their term of incarceration and parole.

Officials across the country have announced "reforms" to the use of solitary confinement, including from the Federal Bureau of Prisons, Colorado, Maine, Mississippi, Wisconsin, and several other states. New York and California each settled class action lawsuits challenging the use of long term solitary confinement, Peoples v. Fischer (11 CIV 2964 SAS) and Ashker v. Governor of California (4:09-cv-05796 CW). California is now in the process of a two-year monitoring period by order of the court, and we are using the expert witness findings to press the state to establish real education and programming. As of 3/31/16, CDCr has reviewed 1,126 people in solitary confinement. It has approved 929 of them for General Population (in prison), and has actually transferred 781 to General Population. We have a long way to go, and the retraining of guards is high priority.

Previously, as a result of regulation changes that came about as a result of the 2011 and 2013 hunger strikes, CDCr released over 1100 prisoners from SHU to General Population. This covered the time period from October 2012 through August 2015.

We do not keep a database of the prisoners with whom we correspond. For any further correspondence, please label the outside of your envelope "Second Contact-No Packet Needed." We do our best to answer individual requests. We graciously accept your support and enthusiasm. To those on the outside, feel free to copy and distribute this directory.

WE ARE NOT A LAW OFFICE OR A LEGAL REFERRAL SERVICE.
WE CANNOT GIVE LEGAL ADVICE.

We hope the directory assists you with information and contacts you may need.

In Solidarity towards Justice Always, PARC

The mission of the Prison University Project is to provide excellent higher education programs to people incarcerated at San Quentin State Prison; to create a replicable model for such programs; and to stimulate public awareness and meaningful dialogue about higher education and criminal justice in California. The central goals of the College Program at San Quentin are to educate and challenge students intellectually; to prepare them to lead thoughtful and productive lives inside and outside of prison; to provide them with skills needed to obtain meaningful employment and economic stability post-release; and to prepare them to become providers, leaders, and examples for their families and communities.

Prisoner Reentry Network

1201 Martin Luther King Jr. Way, #200

PO Box 71552 · Oakland, CA 94612

www.prisonerreentrynetwork.org

PRN is dedicated to promoting successful transitions from incarceration to the community, and is located in Oakland, CA. PRN responds to the most immediate challenges facing people leaving prison. The first forty-eight hours following release are critical, and preparing for this time prior to release is key to a successful transition from incarceration to the community. PRN provides low-cost solutions to critical problems, and all of PRN's expenditures are weighed against the benefit of simply paying a formerly incarcerated person's rent. No one knows about reentry like someone who has left prison. PRN provides information about the concerns voiced by incarcerated and formerly incarcerated people.

Exoneree Diaries

Haymarket Books · PO Box 18065 · Chicago, IL 60618 · 773-583-7884 · www.haymarketbooks.org

Exoneree Diaries: The Fight for Innocence, Independence, and Identity (Alison Flowers, 2016, $17.95 + $2.50 S&H, use coupon code EXONEREE40 for a 40% discount - $10.77 + $2.50, TOTAL = $13.02). Through intimate portraits of four exonerated prisoners, investigative journalist Alison Flowers explores what happens to innocent people when the state flings open the jailhouse door and tosses them back, empty-handed, into the unknown. From the front lines of the wrongful conviction capital of the United States—Cook County, Illinois—Flowers recounts profoundly human stories of reclaiming life, overcoming adversity, and searching for purpose after exoneration. As she tells each exoneree's powerful story, Flowers vividly shows that release from prison, though sometimes joyous and hopeful, is not a Hollywood ending—or an ending at all. Rather, an exoneree's first unshackled steps are the beginning of a new journey full of turmoil and uncertainty. Flowers also sheds new light on the collateral damage of wrongful convictions on families and communities, challenging deeper problems of mass incarceration and the criminal justice system.

Prison Education Guide

Prison Legal News · PO Box 1151 · Lake Worth, FL 33460 · 561-360-2523 · www.prisonlegalnews.org/store/products/prison-education-guide
Prison Education Guide (Christopher Zoukis, 2016, 280 pages, $49.95 + $6 S&H) is the most comprehensive guide to correspondence programs for prisoners available today. This exceptional book provides the reader with step-by-step instructions to find the right educational program, enroll in courses and complete classes to meet their academic goals. It is perfect for the incarcerated student who lacks Internet access or the ability to attend education classes in person. Prison Education Guide includes a detailed analysis of the quality, cost, and course offerings of all college correspondence programs available to prisoners. In a time when so many academic opportunities in prisons have been eliminated, this book is an invaluable reentry tool for prisoners who seek to further their education while incarcerated, and to help them prepare for life and work following their release.

Prisoners' Self Help Litigation Manual

Prison Legal News · PO Box 1151 · Lake Worth, FL 33460 · 561-360-2523
www.prisonlegalnews.org/store/products/prisoners-self-help-litigation-manual-4th-edition
The Prisoners' Self-Help Litigation Manual (John Boston & Dan Manville, 4th Ed, 2010, 960 pages, $39.95 + $6 S&H) is an indispensable guide for prisoners and prisoner advocates seeking to understand the rights guaranteed to prisoners by law and how to protect those rights. Clear, comprehensive, practical advice provides prisoners with everything they need to know on conditions of confinement, civil liberties in prison, procedural due process, the legal system, how to litigate, conducting effective legal research, and writing legal documents. Written by two legal and penitentiary experts with intimate knowledge of prisoner's rights and legal aid work, authors John Boston and Daniel E. Manville strategically focus on federal constitutional law, providing prisoners and those wishing to assist them with the most important information concerning legal rights.

Protecting Your Health and Safety: A Litigation Guide For Inmates

Prison Legal News · PO Box 1151 · Lake Worth, FL 33460 · 561-360-2523
www.prisonlegalnews.org/store/products/protecting-your-health-and-safety-a-litigation-guide-for-inmates Protecting Your Health & Safety (Robert E. Toone, 2nd Ed, 2009, 325 pages, $10 + $6 S&H) is an easy to read, plain language guide prisoners can use to identify and litigate federal civil rights claims against prison officials. Over 100 pages are dedicated to the different kinds of constitutional and statutory violations prisoners frequently encounter while incarcerated. Topics discussed include the First to Fourteenth Amendments, the Religious Freedom Restoration Act, the Religious Land Use and Institutionalized Persons Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act, and the Rehabilitation Act. Each issue, whether it may be First Amendment retaliation or a violation of the Equal Protection Clause, is addressed in laymen's terms and supported by case citations from federal district courts, federal courts of appeal, and the United States Supreme Court. Difficult concepts like deliberate indifference are simplified in just seven pages, giving you what you need to know to make out a cognizable Eighth Amendment claim. Another 130 pages discuss how to write a complaint, seek in forma pauperis status, ask for appointment of counsel, respond to motions to dismiss and motions for summary judgment, conduct discovery, and even present your case at trial. Even procedural issues such as exhaustion of administrative remedies are addressed, helping to avoid dismissal at the pleading stage. A glossary of commonly used legal terms is also included, along with a directory of addresses where to file a federal civil rights suit in each judicial district.

The Disciplinary Self-Help Litigation Manual

Prison Legal News · PO Box 1151 · Lake Worth, FL 33460 · 561-360-2523
www.prisonlegalnews.org/store/products/disciplinary-self-help-litigation-manual
The Disciplinary Self-Help Litigation Manual (Dan Manville, 2nd Ed, 2015, 368 pages, $49.95 + $6 S&H) is designed to inform prisoners of their rights when faced with the consequences of a disciplinary hearing. This authoritative and comprehensive work educates prisoners about their rights throughout this process and helps guide them at all stages, from administrative hearing through litigation. This invaluable how-to guide offers step by step information for both state and federal prisoners and includes a 50 state analysis of relevant case law.

The Habeas Citebook: Ineffective Assistance of Counsel

Prison Legal News · PO Box 1151 · Lake Worth, FL 33460 · 561-360-2523
www.prisonlegalnews.org/store/products/the-habeas-citebook-ineffective-assistance-of-counsel
The Habeas Citebook (Brandon Sample, 2010, 220 pages, $49.95 + $6 S&H) is a much-needed tool for prisoners who are forced to seek relief on their own. The book is thorough, but simple and readable. It starts with a well-organized listing of hundreds of different types of ineffective assistance of counsel, set forth in the form of citations to court rulings - a novel approach that not only acts as a springboard for further research but also saves the prisoner countless hours of preliminary research. The book is also practical and useful. It provides invaluable resources, including templates and forms, that explain what, when, where and how to file for habeas relief. It contains readable summaries of the relevant laws and rules and Plain-English explanations of some of the inherently mystifying concepts of habeas law, such as "procedural default" and "certificates of appealability" and the "AEDPA." It includes practical advice on what to do and what not to do on issues such as identifying and selecting the claims to be argued; seeking discovery and evidentiary hearings; and seeking the appointment of counsel. In addition, the book consistently offers critical insights on winning court strategies.

STANDARD MINIMUM RULES FOR THE TREATMENT OF PRISONERS (SELECTED)

United Nations Congress on the Prevention of Crime and the Treatment of Offenders, held at Geneva 1955, approved 1957. Revised and reapproved on May 22, 2015 as 122 individual rules, now known as the "Mandela Rules." (Full set of Mandela Rules is 36 pages, available for download at: www.penalreform.org/wp-content/uploads/2015/05/MANDELA-RULES.pdf. According to letters from our readers, the UN will not send free printed copies.)

Accommodations

- Cells for individuals should not be used to accommodate two or more persons overnight; dormitory facilities are to be supervised at night.

Exercise and Sport

- If not employed in outdoor work, every prisoner shall have at least one hour of exercise in the open air, weather permitting.
- Young prisoners and others of suitable age and physique are to receive physical and recreational training.

Medical Services

- Pre-natal and post-natal care and treatment are to be provided by women's institutions; where nursing infants are allowed to remain with their mothers, a nursery staffed by qualified persons is needed.
- The medical officer shall see all sick prisoners daily, along with those who complain of illness or are referred to his/her attention.
- The medical officer is to report to the director on prisoners whose health is jeopardized by continued imprisonment and on the quality of the food, hygiene, bedding, clothing, and physical regimen of the prisoners.

Discipline and Punishment

- Cruel, inhuman, and/or degrading punishments, including corporal punishment and restriction to a dark cell, shall be prohibited.

Instruments of Restraint

- Handcuffs, straitjackets, and other instruments of restraint are never to be applied as a punishment, and irons and chains are not to be used as means of restraint.

Information to and Complaints by Prisoners

- Upon admission, prisoners shall be informed of the regulations they are to live by and of authorized channels for seeking information and making complaints.
- Prisoners are to have the right to make complaints to the director of the institution, as well as to the central prison administration and the judicial authority, in the proper form but without censorship as to substance, and they are to have the opportunity to speak directly to an inspector of prisons outside the presence of institutional staff members.
- Unless evidently frivolous, each complaint shall be replied to promptly.

Contacts with the Outside World

- Prisoners are to be allowed regular contact with family and friends, by both correspondence and personal visits.
- Prisoners who are foreign nationals shall be allowed communication with diplomatic and consular representatives of their State, or a State or international authority that has taken charge of their interests.
- Prisoners are to be kept informed of current events and important items of news.

Books

- Every institution shall maintain for the use of prisoners a library with recreational and instructional books.

Guiding Principles

- The prison system must not aggravate unnecessarily the suffering inherent in a prisoner's loss of self-determination and liberty.
- Prisons should utilize all remedial, educational, medical, and spiritual forms of assistance to treat the prisoner's needs and facilitate his return to society as a law-abiding member.
- Government or private agencies should be available for the after care of released prisoners

Treatment

- Treatment of prisoners under sentence shall be directed to achieve the capacity for law-abiding and self-supporting lives, utilizing professional services whenever possible.

Education and Recreation

- The ongoing education of prisoners is to be facilitated, and schooling of illiterates and youthful prisoners is to be considered compulsory.
- Recreational and cultural activities are to be made available.
