Opening Keynote

Friday – October 14 – 8:00am – 9:00am

Angelo McClain, PhD, LICSW

Our opening keynote will be delivered by Angelo McClain, PhD, LICSW, Chief Executive Officer, National Association of Social Workers.

Dr. McClain leads efforts that grow and support the social work profession in the United States from NASW's national headquarters in Washington DC. Dr. McClain joined NASW after serving six years as Commissioner for the Massachusetts Department of Children and Families. While there, he oversaw a budget of $850 million and a workforce of 3,500 employees to address reports of abuse and neglect for the state's most vulnerable children, partnering with families to help them better nurture and protect their children.

Prior to that position, Dr. McClain was Vice President and Executive Director of Value Options New Jersey where he built and oversaw administrative, clinical and quality management program infrastructures that increased access to behavioral health services for children and youth, including those in the juvenile justice system.

Morning Plenary

Friday – October 14 – 9:00am – 10:00am

Co-sponsor: NASW-CA American Red Cross Council

A Tale of Three Cities: Sandy Hook, Boston, and Crow, Montana – Responding to Active Shooter, Weapons of Mass Destruction and Terrorism.

Conference Workshop Session A

Did I Want It? Arousal and Orgasm in Sexual Assault

Course #: A-1 CEUs: 1.5
Date/Time: Friday - October 14 - 10:45am - 12:15pm
Presenter: Andrew Pari, LCSW, Diplomate, Sexual Assault Recovery
Description: Arousal during sexual assault occurs in up to 25% of cases. A devastating source of shame and guilt, it is a barrier to treatment and prosecution. This "taboo" is often unaddressed clinically even by experienced psychotherapists. This presentation will focus on survivor experience, cultural myths, and treatment interventions.

Financial Empowerment through Social Work

Course #: A-2 CEUs: 1.5
Date/Time: Friday - October 14 - 10:45am - 12:15pm
Presenters: Joanna K. Doran, MSW, PhD, Assistant Professor, CSU Los Angeles, School of Social Work; Patricia S. Avery, Office of Financial Empowerment, Consumer Financial Protection Bureau
Description: Clients' ability to attain their goals can depend on a hidden factor; financial capability. This session will help practitioners and educators learn how to weave financial information and tools into their practice. Attendees will leave the session with resources and techniques for building financial capability among clients – and for themselves.

The Mental Health Impact of Human Trafficking and CSEC

Course #: A-3 CEUs: 1.5
Date/Time: Friday - October 14 - 10:45am - 12:15pm
Presenters: Laurie Dunford, LCSW, Sr. Social Worker, Survivor Care, , Love146; Kimberly Casey, MPP, Director of U.S. Prevention, Love146
Description: Social workers are often well positioned to prevent, identify, and respond to trafficking and exploitation, but do not always have the resources. In this interactive workshop, participants will analyze the risk factors and impact of sexual exploitation on mental health and ways they can respond to at-risk and exploited youth.

VA Benefits Boot Camp: Accessing Pension Benefits for Older Veterans and their Families

Course #: A-4 CEUs: 1.5
Date/Time: Friday - October 14 - 10:45am - 12:15pm
Presenter: Naomi Rodda, LCSW, Director, Community Social Services, Motion Picture & Television Fund
Description: This session provides a comprehensive overview of VA pension benefits available to older veterans and their family members. Participants will learn how to screen clients, circumvent barriers to benefits access, and facilitate the claims process. Using case studies, participants will be able to apply information presented to situations encountered in daily practice.

Culturally Competent Sexual Healthcare for People with Disabilities

Course #: A-5 CEUs: 1.5
Date/Time: Friday - October 14 - 10:45am - 12:15pm
Presenter: Linda R. Mona, Ph.D., Founder and Chief Consultant, Inclusivity Clinical Consulting Services
Description: This course will focus on assessment and treatment of sexual health among people with disabilities. Sexuality is an under discussed yet important and necessary topic to address with clients at the onset of assessment. Participants will learn assessment and treatment strategies aimed at providing comprehensive disability culturally competent sexual healthcare.

Conference Workshop Session B

Workplace Bullying: Part I – Clinical Issues

Course #: B-1 CEUs: 1.5
Date/Time: Friday - October 14 - 1:30pm - 3:00pm
Presenter: Judith G. Balcerzak, MSW, PhD, LCSW
Description: Session One provides an overview of various types of workplace bullying and information about the effects of bullying on targeted individuals. Clinical assessment and treatment strategies will provide guidance for therapeutic interventions and career change.
Note: Participants are encouraged to attend both Part I and Part II of this series.

Understanding the Needs of Child Immigrants from Central America and the Impact of U.S. Immigration Policy

Course #: B-2 CEUs: 1.5
Date/Time: Friday - October 14 - 1:30pm - 3:00pm
Presenter: Ronald Gutierrez, LCSW, Clinical Director, Legal Services for Children
Description: The 2014 Influx of Unaccompanied Children from Central America resulted in the unprecedented detention of 68,434 children (during ORR FY 2014) who fled their home countries to seek refuge in the U.S. The majority of these children have experienced extensive pre-migration trauma and present numerous psychosocial needs. This training will seek to: explain events leading to the 2014 Influx; provide current migration conditions; and provide an overview of U.S. Immigration Policy and the immigration consequences of being an "Unaccompanied Alien Child."

Journey of Change for a Foster Child: A Case Study of the Power of Sand Play, Art, and Mindfulness

Course #: B-3 CEUs: 1.5
Date/Time: Friday - October 14 - 1:30pm - 3:00pm
Presenter: Estela Andujo, Ph.D, LCSW, Clinical Associate Professor, University of Southern CA, School of Social Work, Virtual Academic Center
Description: Using an in-depth case study of a foster child who has experienced trauma, this presentation will discuss how evidenced informed practices such as sandplay, art, and mindfulness are viable treatment options for treating trauma. Using an idiographic and interactive approach participants will experience the journey of recovery.

Critical Connections with a Silent Minority

Course #: B-4 CEUs: 1.5
Date/Time: Friday - October 14 - 1:30pm - 3:00pm
Presenters: Pamela Mang, Deaf Licensed Marriage & Family Therapist; Supported by: Janice Elizabeth Kreh, ACSW
Description: Social workers and mental health professionals are trained to work with individuals from diverse backgrounds. However, diversity can span far beyond the constraints of traditional professional development leaving some populations marginalized or invisible. This presentation is to help professionals understand the huge diversity they are dealing with within the Deaf community, Deaf culture, and Low English Proficiency. Cultural and communication barriers can greatly impact therapeutic and social services. Furthermore, lack of awareness and resources can create many unnecessary problems.

Power and Authority in Social Work Administration: Inspiring Clinical Excellence Through Our Leadership

Course #: B-5 CEUs: 1.5
Date/Time: Friday - October 14 - 1:30pm - 3:00pm
Presenter: Amber Rickert, LCSW, MPH, Director of Outpatient Services, Los Angeles Child Guidance Clinic
Description: Working in public mental health settings in today's climate of change can be rewarding and challenging. Being a leader requires comfort with our power and authority as well as clarity about our management styles. Attendees will develop a plan to activate inspiration at all levels of administrative management.

Conference Workshop Session C

Workplace Bullying: Part II – Organizational Issues and Consultation

Course #: C-1 CEUs: 1.5
Date/Time: Friday - October 14 - 3:15pm – 4:45pm
Presenter: Judith G. Balcerzak, MSW, PhD, LCSW
Description: Session Two identifies at risk organizational practices and healthy workplace characteristics along with prevention strategies and interventions for organizational changes. This session will also highlight macro issues and policy needs. Both sessions will emphasize proposed roles for social workers in addressing workplace bullying.
Note: Participants are encouraged to attend both Part I and Part II of this series.

Self-Advocacy: How to Help Without Hindering: Speech Language Pathologist and Social Worker Working Together

Course #: C-2 CEUs: 1.5
Date/Time: Friday - October 14 - 3:15pm – 4:45pm
Presenter: Nora A. O'Connor, LCSW; Loryn McGill, MS, CCC-SLP
Description: Empowering people with a speech and language disorder to advocate for themselves is of interest for both a Speech-Language Pathologist and a Social Worker. The purpose of this workshop is to explore how related disciplines work together to enhance the practice of social work. Both groups of clinicians need to learn how to help without hindering in their respective roles. We will discuss self-advocacy and diversity in various stages of treatment.

Building Communities of Practice in Child and Family Disaster Mental Health Research

Course #: C-3 CEUs: 1.5
Date/Time: Friday - October 14 - 3:15pm – 4:45pm
Presenter: Leslie H. Wind, PhD, MSW, LCSW, Associate Dean of Academic Programs, Clinical Associate Professor, University of Southern California School of Social Work
Description: National tragedies have raised awareness of the mental health impact of disasters/terrorism. This presentation describes a national initiative to enhance disaster mental health research through training and education of rapid response teams. Participants will learn how teams were developed and engage in initial designing of such an initiative in California.

Defining a New Age in Women Veteran Care: Findings from California Community Providers

Course #: C-4 CEUs: 1.5
Date/Time: Friday - October 14 - 3:15pm – 4:45pm
Presenters: Amy Fairweather, Esq., Director, Institute for Veteran Policy; Megan Zottarelli, M.P.A., Senior Analyst, Institute for Veteran Policy
Description: Women veterans are the fastest growing veteran cohort. Many do not seek care outside of the veteran/military systems where providers may not recognize their status or have cultural competence to best treat them. This session presents lessons learned from 22 community providers throughout California as they developed or honed women veteran specific programs. Participants will learn specific recommendations and resources to better address the treatment and service needs of women veterans in their practice.

Safety Strategies in Technology

Course #: C-5 CEUs: 1.5
Date/Time: Friday - October 14 - 3:15pm – 4:45pm
Presenters: Ruby Guillen, MSW; Robin Siegal, LCSW
Description: Social workers need to understand elements of safety and privacy in technology. How can we protect ourselves and clients' digital information? Attendees will gain skills in cell phone safety, protection when using computers in public and private spaces, emails and social media. This important program is co-sponsored with the NASW-CA Technology Council.
