

TROY DAVIS:

The Human Face of the Death Penalty

Saturday, March 17
5:00-6:30pm
Keystone Church
5019 Keystone Place N.
Seattle, WA 98103

Troy Davis's case sparked international outrage when the state of Georgia executed him on September 21, 2011, despite a strong case of innocence. Troy's execution was the 2nd most tweeted-about event of the year in the U.S., and was listed by Time Magazine among the top ten news stories of 2011. Troy's case is emblematic of what is so broken in the U.S. Death Penalty system. But Troy Davis was not just a case. Troy was a man with a devoted family and friends who loved him dearly. Come to a discussion with those who knew Troy and worked to prevent his execution. The event will focus not only on Troy's case, but on the human beings behind the headlines (Troy and the incredible Davis family), and the human impact of the death penalty.

Donations accepted; all donations will go towards the Davis family who lost three warriors for justice in eight months: Troy, his sister and staunchest advocate Martina, and their mother Virginia.
