Premiere showing of this new video by the Freedom Archives
Sunday, January 28, Noon, Roxie Cinema

“The people who tried to kill me in 1973 are here today, trying to destroy me. I mean it literally. People from the San Francisco Police Department who participated in harassment, torture and my interrogation in 1973 ... none of these people have ever been brought to trial, charged with anything, been questioned about that.”

—John Bowman, former Black Panther, comrade & friend (1947-2006)

16th @ Valencia in San Francisco

Join the film makers and participants—Ray Boudreaux, Richard Brown, Soffiyah Elijah, Hank Jones, Harold Taylor

Also join us for an additional tribute to John Bowman 3pm January 28th at the African American Cultural Center, 762 Fulton Street, SF

"Friends, enemies, comrades, pretenders, sisters and brothers; John Henry Bowman III has transcended to be with our ancestors. With his departure, the light of the world will shine less bright. In the pain of our sadness, remember not to forget, that he always answered the call to defend, serve and protect us.

"To the pretenders and their allies, the "enemies of humanity", beware! Celebrate at your own risk the silence of this warrior's courageous heart. Just know that the seeds of resistance to your agenda has been planted and nurtured by the example of his life." - CDHR
