

TIME FOR A LEFT TURN IN NEWCASTLE

HELP SUSANNA SCURRY GET ELECTED IN 2013

We need your assistance

Susanna Scurry has lived in Newcastle since 2001. She started her working life waitressing and then successfully studied nursing and midwifery—a career that she has followed ever since. In 1970 at the age of sixteen she won a Scholarship and lived in the Philippines with wealthy families behind high walls and tinted glass windows. It was there she saw how inequity breeds unhappiness and conflict. She believes that there is more than enough wealth created by working people to give everyone a comfortable life and that part of the problem is that it is unevenly distributed.

Susanna will fight for the expansion of first class public health services, education, transport infrastructure, decent jobs, and an independent foreign policy (not following the USA from disaster to disaster). She will stand up against the companies that are impacting on the health and environment of our area. She wants to make sure the world is left a better place for children and grandchildren.

Susanna is running as an Independent candidate for the seat of Newcastle and is supported by the PLP (Progressive Labour Party). See www.progressivelabour.org
