Dear Guest,

I would like to provide you with some helpful information regarding a Chef's Table dining experience in the Mitsitam Café.

Upon entering the National Museum of the American Indian through the main entrance, your group will go through security and enter what is known as the Potomac Atrium. Our café is located toward the back of the museum on the ground level.

Executive Chef Jerome Grant or a member of the Café staff will greet your group and give a brief overview of the Mitsitam, its features and history. We will discuss the layout of the café, its menu and the five stations: Mesoamerica, Northern Woodlands, South America, Northwest Coast and Great Plains.

Tables will be reserved for the group and we will be happy to answer any questions you or your guests may have while dining. Below, please find a few Chefs' Tables options. We are happy to customize these options to meet your specific needs and enhance your experience. Please note, Chef's Tables reservations are subject to Chef availability and seasonal business obligations.

We greatly appreciate the opportunity to host your group and thank you for considering Mitsitam Café and our Chef's Table Options.

Sincerely,
Jerome Grant
