Lawyers, legal experts and academics who serve as sources of information on questions related to refugee law and policy.

PREFACE

The ELENA Index of useful addresses lists organisations and individuals providing legal services and other forms of support to refugees and asylum seekers in Europe. It is not intended to be a complete directory of all organisations and persons active in the asylum field, but reflects the information provided by the ELENA Coordinators in the various countries. This list is only indicative of lawyers and organisations operating in this field and is not a formal endorsement by the ELENA network.

The ELENA Index is meant to serve as a tool for lawyers and legal counsellors participating in the European Legal Network on Asylum in their daily counselling and advocacy work. It provides addresses of colleagues and organisations in other countries which are useful when working with refugee and asylum law.

The ELENA Index is updated on an annual co-ordinated basis from the ECRE Secretariat. For more up-to-date information, additions, corrections and comments please contact the ELENA National Coordinators in the respective country or the ECRE Secretariat via e-mail: JZelvenska@ecre.org.

This document is for internal use by agencies dealing with refugees and asylum seekers. It can be distributed to individuals with links to such an agency.

EUROPEAN COUNCIL ON REFUGEES AND EXILES

The European Council on Refugees and Exiles (ECRE) is a pan-European alliance of 90 NGOs protecting and advancing the rights of refugees, asylum seekers and displaced persons. Our mission is to promote the establishment of fair and humane European asylum policies and practices in accordance with international human rights law.

Working together with our members and partners to inform and persuade European authorities and the public, we monitor and denounce human rights violations while proposing and promoting fair and effective durable solutions. We accomplish our mission through research, advocacy and the sharing of knowledge and expertise.

ECRE strives for a Europe that protects refugees, asylum seekers and displaced persons with dignity and respect.

“Europe” refers to the broader geographic territory as well as “Europe” as an actor giving access to protection and providing assistance on its territory and outside.

The term “protects” is defined in the broadest sense, to encompass access to asylum, legal and physical protection and integration.

“Refugees, asylum seekers and displaced persons” to include all people seeking protection against their loss of rights due to displacement.

INTRODUCTION TO ELENA

The European Legal Network on Asylum (ELENA) is a forum of legal practitioners promoting the highest human rights standards for the treatment of refugees, asylum seekers and other persons in need of international protection in their daily individual counselling and advocacy work.

The ELENA network established in 1985 now extends across 35 European states and involves some 500 lawyers and legal counsellors. It is coordinated by the Secretariat of the European Council on Refugees and Exiles (ECRE) in Brussels in close consultation with the ELENA National Coordinators. National co-ordinators of the network include legal practitioners, legal academics and legal officers in ECRE member organisations.

Our objectives:

- Provide and reinforce contact between legal practitioners in different European countries to promote cooperation on individual cases and practice;
- facilitate the exchange of information and experience between legal practitioners across Europe;
- study the implementation of national, European and international law relating to refugees;
- organise seminars on specific topics relating to refugee law and make the results available to practising lawyers;
- promote the development of national networks of legal practitioners specialising in asylum law.

VII. LEGAL AID

Under the relevant legislation asylum seekers have to be provided with a (government appointed) legal advisor by the asylum authority during their admission procedure as well as during their appeals procedure (in particular for lodging the appeal).

For unaccompanied minor asylum seekers these legal advisors also serve as legal representatives during the admission procedure after which legal representation is taken over by the respective local youth welfare office.

Currently the two following organizations are charged with this service:

- ARGE Rechtsberatung (consisting of Diakonie and Volkshilfe Oberösterreich) www.arge-rechtsberatung.at/
- Verein Menschenrechte Österreich
www.verein-menschenrechte.at/rechts.html

In addition, asylum seekers are always entitled to appoint their own legal counsellor, e.g. from other refugee counselling organisations or a lawyer.

In procedures before the Constitutional Court and the Administrative Court where representation by lawyers is mandatory indigent asylum seekers may apply for legal aid.

VII.LEGAL AID

Legal aid is available according to Article 508/1-508/25 of the "Code Judiciaire" and Royal Decree of 20 December 1999 and 18 December 2003. The legislation distinguishes between legal aid at the first instance authority i.e. 'first line' legal advice only and legal aid at the appeal stage known as 'second line' legal advice and representation. A request should be made to the relevant Bar Association of each judicial district. A lawyer is then designated who receives a small amount from the state.

The Brussels bar association organises free legal aid for the refugees detained in the airport reception centre of Zaventem near Brussels.

VII. LEGAL AID

The overall responsibility of asylum issues in BiH lies with the Ministry of Security of the BiH Council Of Ministers. The ministry signed the protocol on cooperation with the Association “Vasa Prava BiH”, by which the association “Vasa prava BiH” was given exclusive right to provide free legal assistance and counselling to asylum seekers, refugees and victims of human trafficking. The protocol also enables lawyers of “Vasa prava BiH” to access reception and asylum centres. Lawyers of the association are called on by the State Border Service when an asylum seeker first enters the country at some of the border crossings.

The association has 16 field offices and over 60 professional legal staff. The beneficiaries are mainly displaced persons, returnees, repatriates (whether they return to their places of origin or become internally displaced upon repatriation), refugees and minority members of the population. The Ministry of Security authorised the association to provide legal aid and information in all issues pertaining to asylum, human trafficking and refugees.

VI. LEGAL AID

With the entry into force of the new Law on International and Temporary Protection (LITP) in summer 2015, legal aid i.e. legal counselling funded by the state, is also available for applicants in the first instance procedure. The LITP specifies that applicants should, at their request, be provided with legal and procedural information on the approval of international protection, taking into account the circumstances of the specific case, in a language which it may be reasonably be presumed that they understand and in which they are able to communicate.

The right to counselling should be provided by organisations working to protect the rights of refugees or by attorneys with whom the Ministry shall conclude an agreement on the provision of legal counselling. However at the moment no such agreement is concluded.

According to the LITP, free legal aid in terms of representation is available only in the court procedure and includes assistance in the preparation of a claim to the Administrative Court and representation before the Administrative Court i.e. in the first instance administrative disputes, if requested by the applicant and foreigners under transfer, under the condition that they do not possess sufficient financial resources or things of significant value.

The free legal Aid before the Administrative Court is provided by Attorneys at Law.

VII. LEGAL AID

According to the Legal Aid Law 2002 access to legal aid is granted only at the judicial review of an asylum application before the Administrative Court. No legal aid is afforded during the first instance administrative examination of asylum applications. The provision of legal aid has been subjected to a “means and merits” test, which has been applied strictly leading to a very limited number of cases receiving such aid.

VI. AIRPORT / BORDER SERVICES

The following organizations provide assistance at the airport:

OPU (Organization for Aid to Refugees)

Caritas

(for contact details see section IV.)

VII. LEGAL AID

NGOs such as OPU, SOZE, PPI and Caritas provide free legal assistance to asylum seekers up to the first appeal stage. Representation during the appeals procedure before Regional Court is provided by NGOs and also appointed private lawyers. Representation at the Supreme Administrative Court is mandatory. Asylum seekers who lack the necessary financial means are represented free of charge at second and higher appeals by appointed lawyers if the respective courts decides to grant free of charge aid. (for contact details see section IV.)

Provided by all mentioned in section IV. The extent of such aid depends on current funding. Usually counseling is available in the main office of NGO. OPU and Caritas also go to most of the centers for asylum seekers (i.e. reception centre, detention centre and accommodation centre).

VI. AIRPORT / BORDER SERVICE

The Danish Refugee Council can be contacted, but there is no NGO present at Danish airports.

VII. LEGAL AID

Free legal aid is available from the Danish Refugee Council through all stages of the status determination procedure. The Danish Refugee Council makes regular visits to detention centres and asylum centres for legal counselling. In the appeal-process of asylum applicants covered by the Dublin-Regulation, the Refugee Council functions as legal representative. During the appeals procedure of an asylum case, all asylum seekers are provided with a lawyer paid for by the state. Eligibility for free legal aid is not dependent on a merits or means test in Denmark.

VII. LEGAL AID

Legal representation is available for asylum applicants. The Estonian Human Rights Centre, an independent non-governmental public interest foundation, based in Tallinn is the principal provider of advice to asylum applicants in Estonia. It is important to note that it is not state funded, but relies on annual applications to the European Refugee Fund. Initial advice is given by law students, and in appeals the Centre provides legal representatives/lawyers or sometimes help asylum seekers to apply for free state legal aid enabling asylum seekers to be represented by lawyers in state hearings. Free State legal aid is for appeals and it is not automatic. There is an application that is available only in Estonian that needs to be filled and the Administrative Court decides whether the person is granted free legal aid or not. The status determination bureau informs the Centre about new asylum seekers who have lodged their application, but the Centre is also proactive and regularly contacts the reception centre to find out about candidates that need assistance. It works closely with the UNHCR in Stockholm, which provides training and reviews cases.

VI. AIRPORT / BORDER SERVICES

No special services are provided to asylum seekers at airports or borders.

VII. LEGAL AID

The Refugee Advice Centre (RAC) provides legal advice and counselling services. RAC has three offices in different parts of the country. All legal advice and counselling services, both at the first instance stage and at the appeals procedures are covered by the law for free legal aid in addition to detention hearings in courts. Access to free legal aid is always dependent on a means test. i.e whether the asylum seeker has sufficient means or not.

VII. LEGAL AID

Asylum seekers are not entitled to state-funded legal aid prior to or during the first instance procedure conducted by the Federal Office for the Recognition of Foreign Refugees.

Legal aid may be granted during the second and further instances before the administrative courts. A positive decision depends on two major conditions:

1. the applicant has to be considered as "poor" (dependent on public means/social benefits) by

GERMANY (☎+49)

- showing official social aid receipts or equivalent documents;
2. the applicant must be able to demonstrate that his/her application has a reasonable chance to succeed.

Denial of legal aid cannot be reviewed judicially.

VI. AIRPORT / BORDER SERVICES

For information on civil society organizations currently present in entry or/and exit points in Greece for provision of humanitarian assistance to third country nationals newly-arrived or on the move, please consult UNHCR relevant index (“who what where”), available in: <http://data.unhcr.org/mediterranean/country.php?id=83>

VII. LEGAL AID

Asylum seekers have the right to consult, at their own cost, a lawyer or other legal advisor on matters relating to their application.

Free legal assistance is only provided for judicial appeals before the Administrative Court of Appeals upon the applicant’s request and is subject to (a) an insufficient means test, establishing the applicant’s inability to afford legal representation; and (b) a merits test, determining that the application has a “probability” of success. The choice of legal representative is made on the basis of a list drawn up by the relevant Bar Association. However, in order to submit an application for legal aid, the asylum seeker needs to hire a lawyer, he/she has no choice over his /her legal representative, as lawyers are appointed from the list designated by the Bar Association. The low rates and the great delays in remuneration awarded to legal aid lawyers act as a severe disincentive for legal professionals to take up asylum cases, adversely affecting both the availability and the quality of free legal assistance.

In Greece, free legal assistance and representation in all stages of the administrative and judicial asylum procedure has always been provided by NGOs according to their capacity. The provision of free legal assistance, as it is currently provided in Greece by NGOs lacking relevant funding following the end of the European Refugee Fund (ERF) in early 2015, in no way may be perceived as satisfying the requirements set in the law and directly affects the quality of the asylum procedure. As of February 2016, the recast APD Directive has not been transposed into Greek legislation and no formal free legal aid system has been put in place as regards either the first or second instance of the administrative asylum procedure.

For further information on legal aid for asylum seekers in Greece, see AIDA Country Report: Greece, available at: www.asylumineurope.org/reports/country/greece.

VII. LEGAL AID

The Hungarian Legal Aid Act allows for ex post facto granting of legal aid (and reimbursement of legal fees) if the legal assistance does not require more than 2 hours, or if the legal assistance does not require more than 4 hours of work and the case is urgent.

In urgent cases, the client contacts the legal aid provider directly, and the legal aid provider will take care of claiming his/her fees and costs from the Legal Aid Office once the assistance has been provided to the client. In all other cases, the beneficiary of legal aid first needs to have his/her application for legal aid approved by the Legal Aid Office, and may only then approach a legal aid provider of his/her choice.

However, if there is a need for more hours to be spent on a given asylum case, in principle this is possible under the legal aid system – however, in practice this requires much more paperwork and is also time-consuming.

VI. LEGAL AID

Legal aid for asylum seekers is provided solely through the Refugee Legal Service, an office established by the Legal Aid Board to provide confidential and independent legal services to persons applying for asylum in Ireland. The RLS offers advice and representation to those at all stages of the asylum process and has offices in Dublin, Cork and Galway. Since its establishment in 1999, staff of the RLS have developed specialist expertise in all areas of refugee and asylum law. Solicitors employed by the RLS work exclusively in the area of refugee law and are committed to providing a professional, independent and confidential service to their clients. The RLS has a dedicated children's unit and a specialised judicial review unit. Many barristers and some solicitors do often take cases pro bono, or on a no fee basis, but cannot provide a legally aided service.

Country of Origin Information Experts

The Refugee Documentation Centre (RDC) is an independent library and research service within the Legal Aid Board. The role of the RDC is to provide a research and query service for all organisations involved in the asylum process. To that end, the RDC builds and maintains a collection of objective, up to date country of origin information (COI) and asylum, immigration and human rights information. The Centre provides training and fosters cooperation with similar agencies abroad to advance knowledge of COI research. The RDC also publishes The Researcher, a quarterly electronic newsletter, for which it welcomes contributions. Members of the public and other agencies may also use the Refugee Documentation Centre to conduct their own research.

IRELAND (☎+353)

VII. LEGAL AID

For administrative proceedings in front of the Asylum Board no legal aid is provided. However, there are several organizations that give advice to asylum seekers free of charge.

Legal aid is provided only for court proceedings to citizens and to foreigners who have a permit to stay, if without means (the annual income limit for since 2015 has been 11.528,41)

For civil proceedings the request must be submitted to the legal aid board of the “Consiglio dell’ordine degli avvocati” of the town where the case will be introduced, in the same offices there are lists of lawyers who accept cases through legal aid.

In case of appeal against expulsion legal aid is provided even for irregular migrants and the request is presented directly to the deciding judge.

VIII. LAWYERS AND LEGAL EXPERTS WITH AN OVERALL KNOWLEDGE OF REFUGEE LAW AND POLICY

The lawyers and the associations mentioned in the previous sections have an overall knowledge of refugee law and can reply to academics and experts if needed.

The following list includes only researchers who volunteered to be listed.

VII. LEGAL AID

According to the Law on Legal Status of Aliens asylum seekers have a right to free legal aid. The Ministry of Interior periodically announces public competition between law firms and concludes agreement with the winner to provide state guaranteed legal aid, which covers only preparation of appeals and representation at Vilnius District Administrative Court or Supreme Administrative Court of Lithuania in asylum cases and preparation of requests and representation in the court of the first instance and Supreme Administrative Court of Lithuania in detention cases. At the moment the Lithuanian Red Cross as the implementing partner of UNHCR provides legal assistance (in the forms of legal consultations and strategic litigation) to asylum seekers, which is not covered by state guaranteed legal aid. Lithuanian Red Cross lawyers provide legal assistance to all asylum seekers and people granted asylum in Lithuania. Legal assistance covers all stages of asylum procedure and all legal questions arising to people granted asylum. Usually people granted asylum also receive legal consultations concerning their social integration, family reunification, application for new temporary or permanent residence permits, receiving travel documents, rights in the labor market, etc.

VI. AIRPORT / BORDER SERVICES

No airport/border services are in place in Luxembourg. However, member organisations of the Luxembourg platform ("Lëtzebuenger Flüchtlingsrôt") are allowed, on a regular basis, to meet asylum seekers which are subject to a retention decision, at the retention centre.

VII. LEGAL AID

There is a legal aid scheme covering lawyers' fees in relation to asylum cases. The scheme covers both the provision of legal advice and legal assistance in the asylum procedure, be it administrative or judicial. The legal aid scheme is available to all asylum seekers with no or low income.

VIII. LAWYERS AND LEGAL EXPERTS WITH AN OVERALL KNOWLEDGE OF ASYLUM LAW AND POLICY

The organisations cited as providing services to asylum seekers and refugees are in a position to give references of legal experts.

The Federation of Refugee Organisations (VON) in the Netherlands was founded in 1985 primarily as an advisory council to the Dutch government on matters of minority policy. Together with similar councils of other minority groups they regularly consult with the government about the position of minority groups in the Netherlands. In 1987 ten of the largest refugee organisations had become affiliated to VON. By way of writing advisory reports, information dissemination and training VON tries to improve the knowledge about refugee matters for member-organizations, governmental authorities, political parties and other organisations.

III. ORGANISATIONS SUPPORTING ASYLUM SEEKERS

See following section.

IV. ORGANISATIONS PROVIDING ADVICE TO ASYLUM SEEKERS

VluchtelingenWerk Nederland (Dutch Council for Refugees)

VluchtelingenWerk Nederland has approximately 500 local sections all over the Netherlands, consisting mainly of volunteers. These sections provide legal counselling and social assistance to asylum seekers and refugees. Housing and material assistance is provided by national and local authorities. Addresses and telephone numbers of local sections of VluchtelingenWerk can be obtained through VluchtelingenWerk Nederland (see above).

V. LAWYERS PROVIDING ADVICE TO ASYLUM SEEKERS

Approximately 450 lawyers are participating in the Working Group on Legal Aid for Refugees. This Working Group can be contacted at VluchtelingenWerk Nederland
Tel.: +31 (0)20-3467250 helpdesk

In this index it is not possible to mention all the participating lawyers. Therefore we just mention the Legal Aid Board that is organising and providing Legal Aid in the Application Centers, some of the private lawyers having office-hours in the Application Centers and some private lawyers who have their offices near the German and Belgian borders. The Helpdesk of the Dutch Council for Refugee Council is able to recommend other lawyers.

VII. LEGAL AID

Asylum seekers must make their request for asylum at the Central Location for Reception (Centraal Ontvangst Locatie) in Ter Apel. The screening and registration takes place here. From there asylum seekers are transferred to a Application Centre. The Legal Aid Board in Asylum procedures is responsible for the organisation of legal aid. The legal Aid Board at these application centres provides the asylum seeker with a legal aid lawyer.

Lawyers are providing providing legal aid to the asylum seeker after arrival and during the determination procedure in the Netherlands. In general this legal aid is free and there is only a limited merits test applied.

VI. AIRPORT / BORDER SERVICES

Asylum seekers can seek asylum at the border control at the airport or Storskog, the only Norwegian external Schengen land border station, or any international port, and should do so immediately upon arrival. Asylum seekers arriving from within the Schengen area or to a port with no border control should apply to the closest police station. The asylum applications will be registered by the police and the asylum seeker will be offered to stay in an asylum camp. On rare occasions detention will be used, but the asylum seekers will be given free legal assistance by the lawyer of his or her choice and be brought before a tribunal as quickly as possible if the detention exceeds one night. All asylum seekers will be given free legal assistance by the lawyer of his or her choice if they are not granted a residence permit at the time a negative decision is made, and he or she will have the possibility to appeal the decision. If the asylum seeker has not requested a particular lawyer before the decision is made one will be appointed.

There are no NGOs providing help at the airport/border station but if detained the asylum seeker has the right to free legal assistance from the lawyer of his or her choice.

A decision on rejection/refused entry can not be effectuated until the asylum claim has been examined. A foreigner being rejected/refused entry and not applying for asylum has the right to free legal assistance by the lawyer of his or her choice in the handling of the rejection decision.

VII. LEGAL AID

1. Upon arrival asylum seekers are given legal information by NOAS, an NGO given this task by the Directorate of Immigration. Unaccompanied minors and some other groups can be given free legal aid by an independent lawyer before a decision is made. Unless a specific lawyer has been requested one will be appointed from a list. Once a specific lawyer has been appointed free legal aid cannot be given by another lawyer.
2. If receiving a negative decision every asylum seeker will receive free legal aid by an independent lawyer. Unless a specific lawyer has been requested an immigration lawyer will be appointed from a list. Once a specific lawyer has been appointed free legal aid cannot be given by another lawyer. Also manifestly ill-founded and Dublin cases will receive free legal aid, but to a lesser extent.

3. Free legal aid is given by the state according to standardised rates. If deemed necessary due to the complexity of the case further legal aid will be given upon application. The lawyer will make necessary applications. Under the legal aid system the lawyer has the duty to give assistance that is deemed necessary.
4. Legal aid is rarely given to try cases before the national courts. The Norwegian Bar Association is running a project to have more negative decisions tried by the courts. Cases are being presented to a committee which will recommend cases to be brought before the courts on a no win-no fee basis by experienced lawyers.

VII. LEGAL AID

A State legal aid system was introduced by the Law amending the Law on Protection on 13 November 2015.¹

The legal aid system covers legal information - provided by the employees of the Office for Foreigners in cases concerning cessation of protection in the first instance - and legal aid - provided by advocates, legal counsellors and NGOs in the second instance. The latter involves preparing appeal and providing legal representation in cases concerning refusal of protection, discontinuing of the procedure, refusal of reopening the procedure, Dublin, inadmissibility decisions and cessation of protection. The system is managed by the Head of the Office for Foreigners who contracts advocates, legal counsellors and NGO lawyers. The system entered into force on 1 January 2016.

VII. LEGAL AID

According to Asylum Act 27/2008, 30th June amended by Act 26/2014, 5th May entitles the High Commissioner for Refugees/Portuguese Refugee Council (PRC) to provide free legal assistance at all stages of the asylum procedure. PRC also provides other juridical assistance concerning e.g. family reunification requests, contracts, housing or professional problems to asylum seekers and refugees, nationality processes. There is a legal aid scheme which allows free legal representation by private Lawyers for judicial appeals. This scheme covers both court and lawyers' fees.

However, according to the referred legal aid scheme lawyers are not chosen by the parties but nominated by the Lawyers' Bar Association, after authorisation provided by the Institute of Social Welfare.

VI. AIRPORT / BORDER SERVICES

Monitoring of the situation at borders and airports is very limited due to restrictions in access to these areas and the size of the land border of Russia.

For information on all legal questions concerning the border contact “Memorial Human Rights Centre”:

VII. LEGAL AID

Legal aid is enshrined in the constitution but only in certain cases foreseen by law (see Federal Law No. 63 from 31.05.2002). There are unclear provisions for its implementation so in practice it is difficult to get access to legal aid.

In the case of refugees free legal assistance is not provided by the state. However, the UNHCR and the European Commission provide a considerable part of funding to organisations and lawyers belonging to the network “Migration and Rights” who are therefore able to offer their services.

VI. AIRPORT / BORDER SERVICES

There are 89 border crossings and 3 international airports in Serbia (one airport in Belgrade, one on Kosovo 1244 and one in Niš which has international flights only during tourist season). All border crossings are controlled by the Directorate of Border Police. UNHCR and nongovernmental organizations providing legal assistance do not have its representatives at the airports in Serbia. However, since 2013 NGOs providing free legal aid do have access to Belgrade airport facilities upon the request from a foreigner intending to seek asylum in Serbia. Besides, as NGOs providing free legal aid were allowed to post informative posters on free legal for asylum seekers in Serbia at the Belgrade airport facilities.

VII. LEGAL AID

Article 10 of the Law on Asylum of the Republic of Serbia defines the principle of providing information and free legal aid. At this moment, three non-governmental organisations offers free legal aid to asylum seekers, and they have enough capacities at present to assist all persons wishing to apply for asylum in the Republic of Serbia. Free legal aid is provided to such persons at all stages of the procedure. The funding for free legal aid is secured predominantly within UNHCR projects. Republic of Serbia does not allocate funds for this purpose. It is unclear how asylum seekers will realize their right to free legal aid or obtain information about their rights if no donors are interested in supporting this project. (such a situation arising is not improbable having in mind that earlier donors stopped supporting the projects of free legal aid in Serbia). At present, the Law does not specify the conditions which non-governmental organisations should fulfill so that they could be given approval for offering legal aid. It should be kept in mind that Serbia has not yet adopted the Law on Free Legal Aid and that this has been an issue of serious debates.

VI. AIRPORT / BORDER SERVICES

Slovenia does not have airport services.

VII. LEGAL AID

Legal aid is provided by in the law by the following legislative acts:

1. Zakon o brezplačni pravni pomoči (Free Legal Aid Act), Official gazette no. 96/2004, 30.8.2004
2. Zakon o mednarodni zaščiti (International protection Act), Official gazette No. 11/11, 21.2.2011, amended by Zakon o spremembah in dopolnitvah Zakona o mednarodni zaščiti – ZMZ-D, Official gazette no. 111/13, 27.12.2013

According to the International Protection Act, the Minister of Justice appoints refugee counsellors for procedures before the Administrative and Supreme Court for the period of 3 years. Asylum seekers are only entitled to free legal aid at the appeal stage of the asylum procedure. However, to a certain extent, free legal advice is provided at the initial stage through national AMIF projects and is dependent on funding.

SLOVENIA (☎+386)

SPAIN (☎+34)

CEAR legal team (Madrid and Barcelona),
ACCEM legal team (Madrid).
For contact details see section II above.

Bar Association of Madrid
Web: www.icam.es

VII. LEGAL AID

1. Spanish Law recognizes for asylum seekers who have a low income the right to free legal aid for the administrative determination procedure and also for the subsequent judicial review and appeal procedures.
2. Asylum seekers at border points (checkpoints, international seaports and airports) are entitled to legal advice through a private lawyer or a public attorney, provided free of charge by NGOs (see sections II and VII) or the local Bar Association.
3. Voluntary agencies can also provide free legal advice throughout the determination procedure. Due to the difficulties involved in the proceedings, it is strongly recommended to be advised by an Immigration and Asylum Law practitioner.
4. The Asylum Act also establishes that NGOs assisting asylum seekers and refugees can play a consultative role in the determination procedure by submitting written reports on individual cases. Organisations listed under section III may provide this service. They are also in close contact with the UNHCR Branch Office, which under Spanish Law has to be heard in every individual case.

5. Free legal aid for litigation must be requested through the Bar Association Legal Assistance Service (Servicio de Orientación Jurídica del Colegio de Abogados)

VIII. LAWYERS AND LEGAL EXPERTS WITH AN OVERALL KNOWLEDGE OF REFUGEE LAW AND POLICY

The lawyers mentioned above (section V) can provide all necessary information on asylum matters, and also give reference if needed for other lawyers in the area under their responsibility.

V. LEGAL AID

In cases where there is a risk that the asylum applicant may be refused a residence permit, legal assistance is generally provided through the appointment by the Migration Agency of a public counsel under Section 18, 1§ of the Aliens Act. From the beginning of the procedure, a public counsel represents an asylum-seeker until a final decision has been made on the application. However, a public counsel will not be appointed in cases where the reasons for asylum are considered manifestly unfounded.

IV. ORGANISATIONS PROVIDING ADVICE TO ASYLUM SEEKERS

On the website of the Swiss Refugee Council (<https://www.refugeecouncil.ch/help.html>, Legal Aid Offices for Asylum Seekers) you will find a list with addresses and contact information of the NGO offices for free legal advice sorted by cantons. Please contact the office in the canton where you are staying.

V. LAWYERS PROVIDING ADVICE TO ASYLUM SEEKERS

The organisations listed in the index above provide legal aid to asylum seekers for free or at minimal charges. Asylum seekers could also be represented at their expense by independent lawyers. The Swiss Refugee Council has a list of private lawyers who are specialized on asylum or aliens law. If you wish to mandate a lawyer, please contact the Swiss Refugee Council for further advice.

VII. LEGAL AID

The organisations listed in the index above (IV.) provide legal aid to asylum seekers for free or at minimal charges. Legal aid is available at the reception centres and during the determination and appeals procedure. Information sheets should be available at the reception centres. Asylum seekers can also be represented at their expense by independent lawyers. In very rare cases, the State Secretariat for Migration or the Swiss Federal Administrative Court grants free legal aid.

VI. AIRPORT / BORDER SERVICES

Neither UNHCR Turkey Representation nor any NGO legal assistance providers have any permanent presence or regularized access to transit zone detention facilities at Turkey's international airports.

Helsinki Citizens' Assembly extends limited legal counselling and assistance services to transit zone immigration detainees at Istanbul Ataturk Airport and Istanbul Sabiha Gokcen Airport, by means of telephone counselling and occasional lawyer's visits as well as judicial action as needed.

VII. LEGAL AID

Turkey's general state-funded Legal Aid Scheme is implemented by the bar associations in each province subject to means and merits criteria. While there is no legislative impediment for bar associations to extend legal assistance and representation services to foreign nationals, including asylum seekers, in practice the current involvement of bar associations in the field of refugee law is limited. Although there have been significant capacity-building and advocacy efforts at both national and local levels to increase the coverage of asylum seekers within the Legal Aid Scheme, at present only the bar associations of Istanbul, Izmir, Ankara and Van maintain a modest but dedicated engagement to handle a modest number of refugee law cases.
