DEFENDING GALLIPOLI The Turkish Story

by Harvey Broadbent

FROM THE BESTSELLING AUTHOR OF GALLIPOLI: THE FATAL SHORE COMES THIS ORIGINAL, DRAMATIC AND EYE-OPENING ACCOUNT OF THE INFAMOUS GALLIPOLI CAMPAIGN, TOLD THROUGH 'ENEMY EYES'.

Based on exclusive access to Turkish archives, Defending Gallipoli reveals how the Turks reacted and defended Gallipoli. Author and Turkish language expert Harvey Broadbent spent five years translating everything from official records to soldiers' personal diaries and letters to unearth the Turkish story.

It is chilling and revealing to see this famous battle in Australian history through the 'enemy' lens. The book commences with a jihad, which sees the soldiers fighting for country and God together. But it also humanises the Turkish soldiers, naming them, revealing their emotions, and ultimately shows how the Allies totally misunderstood and underestimated them.

Defending Gallipoli fills a huge gap in the history of the Gallipoli campaign.

Harvey Broadbent is a leading authority on Turkey and its history. He is the author of Gallipoli: The Fatal Shore (2005), The Boys Who Came Home: Recollections of Gallipoli (1990/2000) and Voices of the First World War (2014). In a 23-year career at the ABC, he produced four documentaries on Gallipoli for ABC Television and several radio features. Since 2005 he has been using his expertise as a Senior Research Fellow and Associate Professor at Macquarie University, where he directed the Gallipoli Centenary Research Project, a partnership between the university, the Australian War Memorial and the Australian Research Council.
