

Faculty Nomination Form

PRESIDENT’S AWARD FOR DISTINGUISHED SERVICE TO THE UNIVERSITY 2016

To honor those among us who have labored many years to advance excellence in higher education, the University will present the “Distinguished Faculty Service Award” to a faculty member who has dedicated twenty or more years to higher education at Towson University, or at Towson University and other colleges or universities. The recipient will be an individual who has made an important contribution through their teaching, scholarship, and participation in university affairs. The recipient of the award will receive $2,500 and will make brief remarks at the winter commencement ceremony in December.

Judging Criteria: Among the factors to be considered are: (1) extraordinary effort as a teacher and/or scholar; (2) extraordinary service for twenty (20) or more years to the institution and/or profession; (3) a balance of achievement in teaching, scholarship, and service to the institution or profession; (4) evidence of direct impact and involvement with students.

The Faculty Development and Research Committee of the University Senate will review all nominations and submit three to the president. The president, on consultation with the representatives from the committee, will select the recipient of the award.

NOMINATION INSTRUCTIONS: A one-page, single-spaced supporting justification must be included with a nomination along with a detailed curriculum vita of the nominee. Any member of the Towson community may nominate a TU faculty member who meets the criteria. The person making the nomination must sign the form. Completed forms should be sent electronically to Dr. Janet DeLany, Dean of Graduate Studies, at jdeleny@towson.edu. The deadline for nominations is Friday, October 21, 2016.
