

“NOTICE OF THE ANNUAL CLERY CAMPUS SECURITY REPORT”

In accordance with the guidelines established by Towson University and pursuant to federal law, identified as the “Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998,” all currently enrolled students, campus employees and all prospective students and prospective employees are entitled to request and receive a copy of the Towson University Annual Campus Security and Fire Safety Report (CLERY REPORT). The report contains crime statistics about certain specified crimes/incidents that have been reported to the Towson University Police Department and/or campus security authorities over the past three years and occurred either on-campus, in off-campus buildings or property owned or controlled by the university or on public property adjacent to campus. It also contains statistics on fires that occurred in on-campus student housing facilities during calendar years 2013, 2014 and 2015.

The report also contains policies and practices pertaining to campus security, emergency response policies and procedures, crime reporting, alcohol and drugs, victims’ assistance programs, student discipline, campus resources, timely warnings and emergency notifications, community safety alerts, crime prevention, access to campus facilities/properties and personal safety tips. The report encourages the reporting of all crime occurrences and describes how and to whom to report crimes.

Finally, the report contains policies and procedures concerning on-campus residential students who become missing for more than 24 hours.

Copies of this report can be obtained by calling 410-704-2505 or 410-704-5766, or by going to the Towson University Police Department. The report can also be accessed online at www.towson.edu/publicsafety/cleryact.html

Computers are available in the university's Cook Library during normal operating hours for individuals who want to access the report online. During times when the library is closed, a computer can be made available within the police department for access to the report.
