

Interface

a journal for and about social movements

Artist: Rydell skinnyrydell@gmail.com

- 5/2 (Nov 13): Open issue
- 5/1 (May 13): Anti & post colonial movements
- 4/2 (Nov 12): Global emancipation of labour
- 4/1 (May 12): Arab Spring and Euro mobilizations
- 3/2 (Nov 11): Feminism & women's movements
- 3/1 (May 11): Repression and social movements
- 2/2 (Nov 10): Activists in the creation of media
- 2/1 (May 10): Crises & revolutions
- 1/2 (Nov 09): Civil society vs social movements
- 1/1 (May 09): Movement knowledge

All issues free online as single PDF files (5 – 10MB) or individual articles

Learning from each other's struggles:

- between different movements
- between movements in different regions
- between different languages
- between different political traditions
- between different disciplines
- between activists and researchers

free – online – multilingual - Creative Commons

We publish activist interviews, testimonies, editorials, articles, action notes, research notes, event analyses, key documents, debates, bibliographies, round tables, special contributions, book reviews, review essays and more

Authors so far located in Angola, Argentina, Australia, Austria, Brazil, Britain, Canada, Dubai, Ecuador, Egypt, Germany, Greece, Hungary, India, Ireland, Italy, Latvia, Mexico, Netherlands, New Zealand, Nigeria, Norway, Palestine, Poland, Portugal, Russia, Senegal, South Africa, South Korea, Spain, Swaziland, Sweden, Thailand, Tunisia, Turkey, the UAE, the USA and Venezuela

We're looking for contributions

- by activists and engaged researchers
- in any language we can read (19 at last count)
- in forms that fits their purpose and content
- that are about sharing what we're learning about how to make movements with each other

<http://interfacejournal.net>