TO RUSSIA WITH LOVE (AND RAGE)

Early in the summer of 2006, the G8 will meet in St. Petersburg (formerly Leningrad), Russia. Autonomous groups and networks from across Eastern Europe and much further afield have already begun organising to oppose the Summit. In the process, they are strengthening and developing their own networks of resistance.

Mobilisations are gearing up to take to the streets of St. Petersburg and a call has been issued for simultaneous actions to take place around the world during the Summit.
