

Come Meet
All The Way From Tanzania, East Africa

The Incredible CHARLOTTE O'NEAL

Sister Charlotte is a poet, artist, musician, community activist and co-founder of the United African Alliance Community Center (UAACC). She and her husband, Pete O'Neal, are former Black Panthers from Kansas City who have lived in Tanzania for 35 years. They continue to serve their community through the programs of the UAACC which include a school, recording studio, radio station, and cultural exchange programs. They sponsored a program to install solar panels in people's homes in their village who never had electricity.
